Matthew Structure Christology Kingdom:

Matthew Jack Dean Kingsbury, 1989-04-01 This book attempts a solution to the problems of the structure christology and Kingdom theology of the Gospel according to St Matthew The author contends that the broad structure of the Gospel consists of three main parts the person of Jesus Messiah the proclamation of Jesus Messiah and the suffering death and resurrection of Jesus Messiah This understanding of the broad structure of Matthew's Gospel opens the way to a proper understanding of his christology That is for Matthew Jesus is first and foremost the Messiah the Son of God Kingbury's analysis of the texts in which Son of God appears and of the numerous other christological terms Matthew employs confirms this conclusion Professor Kingbury demonstrates how Matthew develops both the structure and the primary theological concept of his Gospel The Kingdom of Heaven around the christological category of the Son of God A rigorous conclusion reached is that the focus of the Gospel of Matthew is revealed more in his christology than in his ecclesiology The Synoptic Gospels Keith Fullerton Nickle, 2001-01-01 Nickle provides an updated edition of a proven textbook that fills the gap between brief treatments of the Synoptics by New Testament introductions and exhaustive commentaries In a clear and concise manner The Synoptic Gospels explores the major issues of faith that influenced the writers of the Gospels while utilizing the full range of critical and literary methods Matthew's Gospel and Judaism in the Late First Century C.E. Anthony O'Carroll, 2006 Following a thorough examination of the structure language and argument of Matthew's discourse on parables Anthony O'Carroll underscores its primary relevance to the ongoing discussion on the social context of Matthew's Gospel The convincing analysis of the textual evidence and study of some social and historical trends in Christianity and Judaism in the post 70 C.E. era inform O'Carroll's conclusion that at the time the Gospel was written to its predominantly Jewish Christian community that community had parted ways with Judaism and stood at an ideologically irreconcilable distance from the synagogue across the street A Theology of the New Testament George Eldon Ladd, 1993-09-02 Ladd's magisterial work on New Testament theology has well served scores of seminary students since 1974 Now this comprehensive standard evangelical text has been carefully revised by Hagner to include an update of Ladd's survey of the history of the field of New Testament theology an augmented bibliography and an entirely new subject index Matthew Warren Carter, 1968-02-01 For ten years the well received first edition of this introduction offered readers a way to look at scriptural texts that combines historical narrative and contemporary interests Carter explores Matthew by approaching it from the perspective of the authorial audience by identifying with and reading along with the audience imagined by the author Now an updated second edition is available as part of a series focusing on each of the gospel writers as storyteller interpreter and evangelist This edition preserves the essential identity of the original material while adding new insights from Carter's more recent readings of Matthew's gospel in relation to the Roman Imperial world Four of the seventeen chapters have been significantly revised and most have had minor changes There are also new endnotes directing readers to

Carter's more recent published work on Matthew Scholars and pastors will use the full bibliography and appendix on redaction and narrative approaches while lay readers will appreciate the clear and straightforward text

The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 The Encyclopedia of Christianity is the first of a five volume English translation of the third revised edition of Evangelisches Kirchenlexikon Its German articles have been tailored to suit an English readership and articles of special interest to English readers have been added The encyclopedia describes Christianity through its 2000 year history within a global context taking into account other religions and philosophies A special feature is the statistical information dispersed throughout the articles on the continents and over 170 countries Social and cultural coverage is given to such issues as racism genocide and armaments while historical content shows the development of biblical and apostolic traditions This comprehensive work while scholarly is intended for a wide audience and will set the standard for reference works on Christianity Outstanding reference sources 2000 American Libraries May 2000 Comp by the Reference Sources Committee RUSA ALA

Matthew's Narrative Web Janice Capel Anderson, 1994-01-01 The Gospel of Matthew contains many repeated phrases and double stories Scholars have usually used this as evidence to support various source theories Taking a different approach this book uses narrative and reader response criticisms to explore the role verbal repetition plays in the rhetoric characterization and plot of the Gospel The importance of variation context and the temporal dimension of narrative is highlighted A concluding chapter treats two literary studies of repetition in modern narrative and the relation of narrative and reader response criticisms to aural reception of the Gospels in the first century

Matthew's New David at the End of Exile Nicholas G. Piotrowski, 2016-09-07 Matthew crowds more Old Testament quotations and allusions into the prologue than anywhere else in his gospel In this volume Nicholas G Piotrowski demonstrates the narratological and rhetorical effects of such frontloading Particularly seven formula quotations constellate to establish a redemptive historical setting inside of which the rest of the narrative operates This setting is defined by Old Testament expectations for David's great son to end Israel's exile and rule the nations Piotrowski contends that the rhetorical effect of this intertextual storytelling was to provide the Matthean community with an identity in a contentious atmosphere in terms of God's historical design for the ages now fulfilled in Jesus and his followers

The Gospel of Matthew Donald Senior, 2011-12-01 Biblical texts create worlds of meaning and invite readers to enter them When readers enter such textual worlds which are often strange and complex they are confronted with theological claims With this in mind the purpose of the Interpreting Biblical Texts series is to help dedicated students in their experience of reading and interpreting by providing guides for their journeys into textual worlds The controlling perspective is expressed in the operative word of the title interpreting The primary focus of the series is not so much on the world behind the texts or out of which the texts have arisen as on the worlds created by the texts in their engagement with readers In this volume Donald Senior provides an up to date introduction to the Gospel of Matthew The seven chapters of Part One focus on modern biblical scholarship and the interpretation of Matthew discussing the sources and structure of the Gospel its use of the Old Testament its understanding of Jewish Law its setting as a part of the mission of Christianity to the Gentiles its Christology its understanding of the nature of discipleship and the community from which the Gospel originated The six chapters of Part Two provide a structured guide to reading and interpreting Matthew s Gospel The Death of Jesus in Matthew

Catherine Sider Hamilton, 2017-06-16 This book explores innocent blood and its traditions as keys to the death of Jesus in Matthew against background of exile and return
