Deitchman,2019-03-04 This book is the first comprehensive examination of the U S national security situation in all of its dimensions since the dramatic events that began in 1989 It explores the shape of the armed forces and the balance of resources among the broad components of national security The Evergreen ,1840 The History of the Crusades (Complete) Joseph Francois Michaud,2020-09-28 The history of the middle ages presents no spectacle more imposing than the Crusades in which are to be seen the nations of Asia and of Europe armed against each other two religions contending for superiority and disputing the empire of the world After having been several times threatened by the Mussulmans and a long time exposed to their invasions all at once the West arouses itself and appears according to the expression of a Greek historia to tear itself from its foundation in order to precipitate itself upon Asia All nations abandon their interests and their rivalries and see upon the face of the earth but one single country worthy of the ambition of conquerors One would believe that there no longer exists in the universe any other city but Jerusalem or any other habitable spot of earth but that which contains the tomb of Jesus Christ All the roads which lead to the holy city are deluged with blood and present nothing but the scattered spoils and wrecks of empires In this general confusion we may contemplate the sublimest virtues mixed with all the disorders of the wildest passions The Christian soldiers have at the same time to contend against famine the influence of climate and enemies the most formidable in the greatest dangers in the midst of their successes and their constant discords nothing can exhaust either their perseverance or their resignation After four years of fatigue of miseries and of victories Jerusalem is taken by the Crusaders but as their conquests are not the work of wisdom and prudence but the fruit of blind enthusiasm and ill directed heroism they create nothing but a transient power The banner of the cross soon passes from the hands of Godfrey de Bouillon into those of his weak and imbecile successors Jerusalem now a Christian city is obliged again to apply for succour to the West At the voice of St Bernard the Christians take arms Conducted by an emperor of Germany and a king of France they fly to the defence of the Holy Land but they have no longer great captains among them they have none of the magnanimity or heroic resignation of their fathers Asia which beholds their coming without terror already presents a new spectacle The disciples of Mahomet awaken from their apathy they are at once seized with a frenzy equal to that which had armed their enemies they oppose enthusiasm to enthusiasm fanaticism to fanaticism and in their turn burn with a desire to shed their blood in a religious war
