Blake,2020-06-01 In 1903 Theodore Roosevelt planned a tour of the mid West and Western states It was dubbed the Great Loop Tour being careful not to call it a campaign tour although he intended to seek re election the following year Theodore was adamant that his speeches be devoid of any partisan rhetoric nor would he meet solely with Republican office holders in the various cities and towns he planned to visit He would happily shake hands with a Democratic mayor or Senator just as he would a Republican Theodore s speeches which he wrote himself covered subjects of good citizenship a square deal for every man a strong navy and the positive aspects of the recent irrigation bill he signed into law Then there were his speeches relating to conservation of the land forests rivers and wildlife Nowhere did these subjects become more important to him than when he visited Yellowstone the Grand Canyon and Yosemite While he was still three years away from having the law that would knight him as the Conservation President Theodore was already making his mark on preserving the country s resources Marguerite Young, Our Darling Miriam Fuchs,1994 With Miss MacIntosh My Darling 1965 Marguerite Young established herself as one of the greatest writers of our time and yet she has been slow to attract critical attention Miriam Fuchs remedies that defect with the first book length study of her work a gathering of personal reminiscences and appreciative essays that explore the breadth of Young s achievement Part 1 consists of tributes and recollections by such writers as Anne Tyler Amy Clampitt Stanley Kunitz Anna Balakian among other friends and students Part 2 offers a dozen critical essays on her work from Angel in the Forest to Young s forthcoming biography of Eugene Debs with special attention to the wonders of Miss MacIntosh My Darling Part 3 consists of two interviews with Young Also included are a dozen photos most published here for the first time and a chronology by Martha J Sattler

Negotiating Opportunities Jessica McCrory Calarco,2018 In Negotiating Opportunities Jessica McCrory Calarco argues that the middle class has a negotiated advantage in school Drawing on five years of ethnographic fieldwork Calarco traces that negotiated advantage from its origins at home to its consequences at school Through their parents coaching working class students learn to follow rules and work through problems independently Middle class students learn to challenge rules and request assistance accommodations and attention in excess of what is fair or required Teachers typically grant those requests creating advantages for middle class students Calarco concludes with recommendations advocating against deficit oriented programs that teach middle class behaviors to working class students Those programs ignore the value of working class students resourcefulness respect and responsibility and they do little to prevent middle class families from finding new opportunities to negotiate advantages in school
