Naipaul, 1985      Mr Stone and the knights companion V.S. Naipaul, 1981      V. S. Naipaul, Man and Writer Gillian Dooley, 2017-02-01 An introduction to the uncompromising artistic vision of the internationally acclaimed writer A survey of the life and work of the 2001 Nobel Laureate for Literature V S Naipaul Man and Writer introduces readers to the writer widely viewed as a curmudgeonly novelist who finds special satisfaction in overturning the vogue presuppositions of his peers Gillian Dooley takes an expansive look at Naipaul's literary career from Miguel Street to Magic Seeds From readings of his fiction nonfiction travel books and volumes of letters she elucidates the connections between Naipaul's personal experiences as a Hindu Indian from Trinidad living an expatriate life and the precise euphonious prose with which he is synonymous Dooley assesses each of Naipaul's major publications in light of his stated intentions and beliefs and she traces the development of his writing style over a forty year career Devoting separate chapters to three of his chief works A House for Mr Biswas In a Free State and The Enigma of Arrival she analyzes their critical reception and the primacy of Naipaul's specific narrative style and voice Dooley emphasizes that it is above all Naipaul's refusal to compromise his vision in order to flatter or appease that has made him a controversial writer At the same time she sees the integrity with which he reports his subjective response to the world as essential to the lasting success of his work      The First Naipaul World Epics, 2021-07-31 The plethora of commentary from highly respected voices in a broad cross section of academic disciplines which V S Naipaul's death on 11 August 2018 elicited ranged so widely both cognitively and emotionally that if a student of literature unfamiliar with the Naipaulian era read it all they would have failed to make sense of the divergences Allegations included that he was a cruel man a scarred man the darkest dungeons of colonialism incarnate self punishing self loathing world loathing full of nastiness and fury a ventriloquist for the nastiest clichés European colonialism had devised to rule the world with arrogance and confidence and so on On the other hand writers referred to Naipaul as a brilliant writer's writer one who holds a mirror of imagination unto society to capture a certain view of reality and one who has turned the genre of the travelogue into an art form Debates aside many of us appreciate the value of Naipaul's writing to the deepest possible comprehension of the imperial impulse and the myriad reasons it manifested as colonialism The First Naipaul World Epics is the first in a series of critical collections that aim to demonstrate this value At the same time the series seeks to help the new student through the quagmire of divergent opinions his personality and writing have generated      Perspectives on Indian English Fiction Jaydipsinh Dodiya, 2006 Contributed articles on 20th century English fiction      Mister Stone and the knights companion Vidiadhar S. Naipaul, 1963      Caribbean Passages Richard Francis Patteson, 1998 This text offers a critical perspective on fiction from the West Indies The writers are from diverse backgrounds with differing artistic perspectives but share a commitment to a repossession of Caribbean life and consciousness The writers are Senior Edgell Phillips Naipul and Antoni Naipaul's Truth Lillian Feder,2001 Lillian feder illustrates how Naipaul has emerged as one of the world s greatest and most controversial living writers The Nightwatchman's Occurrence Book V. Eating and Identity in Postcolonial Fiction Paul Vlitos,2018-10-11 This book focuses on the fiction of four postcolonial authors V S Naipaul Anita Desai Timothy Mo and Salman Rushdie It argues that meals in their novels act as sites where the relationships between the individual subject and the social identities of race class and gender are enacted Drawing upon a variety of academic fields and disciplines including postcolonial theory historical research food studies and recent attempts to rethink the concept of world literature it dedicates a chapter to each author tracing the literary cultural and historical contexts in which their texts are located and exploring the ways in which food and the act of eating acquire meanings and how those meanings might clash collide and be disputed Not only does this book offer suggestive new readings of the work of its four key authors but it challenges the reader to consider the significance of food in postcolonial fiction more generally

The World Is What It Is Patrick French,2008-11-04 The first major biography of V S Naipaul the controversial and enigmatic Nobel laureate a stunning writer whose only stated ambition was greatness in pursuit of which goal nothing else was sacred Beginning in rich detail in Trinidad where Naipaul was born into an Indian family Patrick French skillfully examines Naipaul s life within a displaced community and his fierce ambition at school He describes how on scholarship at Oxford homesickness and depression struck with great force the ways in which Naipaul s first wife helped him to cope and their otherwise fraught marriage and Naipaul s struggles throughout subsequent uncertainties in England including his twenty five year long affair Naipaul s extraordinary gift producing uniquely masterpieces of both fiction and nonfiction is most of all born of a forceful visionary impulse whose roots French traces with a sympathetic brilliance and devastating insight

Migrant Modernism J. Dillon Brown,2013-04-29 In Migrant Modernism J Dillon Brown examines the intersection between British literary modernism and the foundational West Indian novels that emerged in London after World War II By emphasizing the location in which anglophone Caribbean writers such as George Lamming V S Naipaul and Samuel Selvon produced and published their work Brown reveals a dynamic convergence between modernism and postcolonial literature that has often been ignored Modernist techniques not only provided a way for these writers to mark their difference from the aggressively English literalist aesthetic that dominated postwar literature in London but also served as a self critical medium through which to treat themes of nationalism cultural inheritance and identity

Vidiadhar Surajprasad Naipaul Fawzia Mustafa,1995-09-07 This introductory study offers a critical overview of the major works of V S Naipaul from 1950 to the present day Professor Mustafa s main concern is with literary issues but historical political and cultural questions are also addressed with comparative references to other postcolonial works Paradoxically a major segment of Naipaul's non-western pro-decolonisation readership seized on negative elements in his thinking while Western reaction to his ideas and themes led to set notions about Third World society Thus his work has always been the object of radically divergent views dependent on the perspective of the reader In examining this issue Mustafa introduces general debates about postcolonial literary production and its contemporary interrogation of narrative techniques language gender race and canon formulation
