Catalog of Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1991 Catalog of Educational Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf, 1984 Catalog of Captioned Films for the Deaf, 1985 Keep Watching the Skies! Bill Warren, 2017-01-12 Bill Warren's Keep Watching the Skies was originally published in two volumes in 1982 and 1986. It was then greatly expanded in what we called the 21st Century Edition with new entries on several films and revisions and expansions of the commentary on every film. In addition to a detailed plot synopsis, full cast and credit listings and an overview of the critical reception of each film, Warren delivers richly informative assessments of the films and a wealth of insights and anecdotes about their making. The book contains 273 photographs, many rare, 35 in color, has seven useful appendices and concludes with an enormous index. This book is also available in hardcover format. ISBN 978 0 7864 4230 0 The Encyclopedia of Fantastic Film R. G. Young, 2000-04 Thirty five years in the making and destined to be the last word in fantasy film references. This incredible 1,017 page resource provides vital credits on over 9,000 films: 1896-1999 of horror, fantasy, mystery, science fiction, heavy melodrama and film noir. Comprehensive cast lists include directors, writers, cinematographers and composers. Also includes plot synopses, critiques, retitle translation information, running times, photographs and several cross-referenced indexes by artist, year, song, etc. Paperback Other Worlds Albert Goldbarth, 2021-11-02 Other Worlds is true to its title: from a look at our everyday joys and griefs as interpreted by the Mars of classic science fiction and the crazy domain of quantum physics to studies of the many conflicting realities that America uneasily accommodates in a time of pandemic and protests to elegiac poems informed by the realms of memory, ghosts and imagined afterlives. From a poem of one line to a sequence of twelve sections from comic hijinks to despair and from private revelation to public declaiming, this is a bravura performance by the only poet to have twice received the National Book Critics Circle Award and who at age seventy-three is writing at the height of his powers. Excerpt from Last Song: I choose the other way with heels dug in. I vote for screaming yearningly. For heading into the afterlife against the grain of this one. For a slowing down to the pace of a person too absorbed in the glory and grit to work up any hurry for departing it. Onscreen and Undercover Wesley Britton, 2006-10-30 Wesley Britton's Spy Television 2004 was an overview of espionage on the small screen from 1951 to 2002. His Beyond Bond: Spies in Fiction and Film 2004 wove spy literature, movies, radio comics and other popular media together with what the public knew about actual espionage to show the interrelationships between genres and approaches in the past century. Onscreen and Undercover the last book in Britton's Spy Trilogy provides a history of spies on the large screen with an emphasis on the stories these films present. Since the days of the silent documentary, short spying has been a staple of the movie business. It has been the subject of thrillers, melodramas, political films, romances and endless parodies as well. But despite the developing mistrust of the spy as a figure of hope and good works, the variable relationship between real spying and screen spying over the past 100 years sheds light on how we live, what we fear, who we admire and what we want our culture and our world to become. Onscreen

and Undercover describes now forgotten trends traces surprising themes and spotlights the major contributions of directors actors and other American and English artists The focus is on movies on and off camera In a 1989 National Public Radio interview famed author John Le Carre said a spy must be entertaining Spies have to interest potential sources and be able to draw people in to succeed in recruiting informants In that spirit Wes Britton now offers Onscreen and Undercover Idylls And Rambles James V.
