The Anderson Tapes Lawrence Sanders, 2013-02-12 The explosive Edgar Award winning debut novel told entirely through surveillance recordings eyewitness reports and other official documents by New York Times bestselling author Lawrence Sanders New York City Summer 1968 Newly sprung from prison professional burglar John Anderson is preparing for the biggest heist of his criminal career The mark is a Manhattan luxury apartment building with the tony address of 535 East Seventy Third Street Enlisting a crew of scouts con artists and a getaway driver Anderson orchestrates what he believes to be a foolproof plan To pull off the big score he needs one last thing the permission of the local mafia who expect a piece of the action But no one inside Anderson's operation knows that the police have recorded their conversations The New York Police Department has hatched a plot of its own but even its task force may not be enough to stop such a cunningly planned robbery

The Kennedy Assassination Tapes Max Holland, 2004-09-14 A major work of documentary history the brilliantly edited and annotated transcripts most of them never before published of the presidential conversations of Lyndon B Johnson regarding the Kennedy assassination and its aftermath The transition from John F Kennedy to Johnson was arguably the most wrenching and ultimately one of the most bitter in the nation's history As Johnson himself said later I took the oath I became president But for millions of Americans I was still illegitimate a naked man with no presidential covering a pretender to the throne The whole thing was almost unbearable In this book Max Holland a leading authority on the assassination and longtime Washington journalist presents the momentous telephone calls President Johnson made and received as he sought to stabilize the country and keep the government functioning in the wake of November 22 1963 The transcripts begin on the day of the assassination and reveal the often chaotic activity behind the scenes as a nation in shock struggled to come to terms with the momentous events The transcripts illuminate Johnson's relationship with Robert F Kennedy which flared instantly into animosity the genuine warmth of his dealings with Jacqueline Kennedy his contact with the FBI and CIA directors and the advice he sought from friends and mentors as he wrestled with the painful transition We eavesdrop on all the conversations including those with leading journalists that persuaded Johnson to abandon his initial plan to let Texas authorities investigate the assassination Instead we observe how he abruptly established a federal commission headed by a very reluctant chief justice of the Supreme Court Earl Warren We also learn how Johnson cajoled and drafted other prominent men among them Senator Richard Russell who detested Warren Allen Dulles John McCloy and Gerald Ford into serving We see a sudden president under unimaginable pressure contending with media frenzy and speculation on a worldwide scale We witness the flow of inaccurate information some of it from J Edgar Hoover amid rumors and theories about foreign involvement And we glimpse Johnson addressing the mounting criticism of the Warren Commission after it released its still controversial report in September 1964 The conversations rendered here are nearly verbatim and have never been explained so thoroughly No passages have been deleted except when they veered from the subject Brought together with Holland's commentaries they make riveting hugely revelatory reading Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 The Dennis Brutus Tapes Dennis Brutus, 2011 Poet and anti apartheid activist Dennis Brutus recorded a series of tapes in the 1970s which have been edited and annotated by Bernth Lindfors to give valuable insights into Brutus's life and works Dennis Brutus 1924 2009 is known internationally as a South African poet anti apartheid activist and campaigner for human rights and the release of political prisoners His literary works include Sirens Knuckles Boots 1963 Letters to Martha and Other Poems from a South African Prison 1968 A Simple Lust 1973 and Stubborn Hope 1978 When Dennis Brutus was a Visiting Professor at The University of Texas at Austin in 1974 75 he recorded on tape a series of reflections on his life and career In addition he frequently responded to questions about his poetry and political activities put to him by students and faculty in formal and informal interviews that were also captured on tape Transcripts of a selection of these tapes as well as reprints of two interviews recorded earlier are reproduced here in order to put on record fragments of the autobiography of a remarkable man who lived in extraordinary times and managed to leave his mark on the land and literature of South Africa Brutus was an effective anti apartheid campaigner who succeeded in getting South Africa excluded from the Olympics His opposition to racial discrimination in sports led to his arrest banning and imprisonment on Robben Island Upon release he left South Africa and lived most of the rest of his life in exile where he continued his political work and simultaneously earned an international reputation as a poet who often sang of his love for his country The tapes are edited by Bernth Lindfors who has added an Introduction and a transcript of a 1970 interview as well as other transcripts of lectures and discussions Bernth Lindfors is Professor Emeritus of English and African Literatures The University of Texas at Austin and founding editor of Research in African Literatures He has written and edited numerous books on African literature including Folklore in Nigerian Literature 1973 Popular Literatures in Africa 1991 Africans on Stage 1999 Early Soyinka 2008 and Early Achebe 2009 Understanding God's Contracts with Mankind J.
