Brown, 2016-04-05 A dazzling debut novel set in New York City's Jewish immigrant community in 1935 How was it that out of all the girls in the office I was the one to find myself in this situation This didn't happen to nice Jewish girls In 1935 Dottie Krasinsky is the epitome of the modern girl A bookkeeper in Midtown Manhattan Dottie steals kisses from her steady beau meets her girlfriends for drinks and eyes the latest fashions Yet at heart she is a dutiful daughter living with her Yiddish speaking parents on the Lower East Side So when after a single careless night she finds herself in a family way by a charismatic but unsuitable man she is desperate, unwed, unsure and running out of options After the birth of five children and twenty years as a housewife Dottie's immigrant mother Rose is itching to return to the social activism she embraced as a young woman With strikes and breadlines at home and National Socialism rising in Europe there is much more important work to do than cooking and cleaning So when she realizes that she too is pregnant she struggles to reconcile her longings with her faith As mother and daughter wrestle with unthinkable choices they are forced to confront their beliefs, the changing world and the fact that their lives will never again be the same Real Property Exempt from Taxation in D.C. United States.
