Patton,Mimi Choi,2014-01-23 Coeditors Elizabeth Patton and Mimi Choi argue that an in depth examination of media images issues of second wave feminism Home Sweat Home Perspectives on Housework and Modern Relationships reveals how widespread the cultural image of perfect housewives and the invisibility of household labor were in the past and remain today In this collection of essays contributors explore the construction of women as homemakers and the erasure of household labor from the middle class home in popular representations of housework They concentrate on such matters as the impact of second wave feminism on families and gender relations of popular culture especially in film television magazines and advertising on our views of what constitutes home life and gender relations and of changing views of sexuality and masculinity within the domestic sphere Home Sweat Home will interest students and scholars of gender cultural media and
