Elizabeth Raffald used to be a household name and her list of accomplishments would make even the highest of achievers feel suddenly impotent After becoming housekeeper at Arley Hall in Cheshire at age twenty five she married and moved to Manchester transforming the Manchester food scene and business community writing the first A to Z directory and creating the first domestic servants registry office the first temping agency if you will Not only that she set up a cookery school and ran a high class tavern attracting both gentry and nobility She reputedly gave birth to sixteen daughters wrote book on midwifery and was an effective exorciser of evil spirits These achievements gave her notoriety and standing in Manchester but it all pales in comparison to her biggest achievement her cookery book The Experienced English Housekeeper Published in 1769 it ran to over twenty editions and brought her fame and fortune But then disaster her fortune lost spent by her alcoholic husband Bankrupted twice she spent her final years in a pokey coffeeshouse in a seedy part of town Her book however lived on Influential and often imitated but never bettered it became the must have volume for any kitchen and it helped form our notion of traditional British food as we think of it today To tell Elizabeth s tumultuous rise and fall story historian Neil Buttery doesn t just delve into the history of food in the eighteenth century he has to look at trade and empire domestic service the agricultural revolution women s rights publishing and copyright law gentlemen s clubs and societies the horse races the defeminization of midwifery and the paranormal to name but a few Elizabeth Raffald should be revered not unknown How can this be Perhaps we should ask Mrs Beeton Mrs Beeton's Household Management Isabella Beeton, Mrs. Beeton (Isabella Mary), 2006 Isabella Beeton s Book of Household Management is both an entertaining curiosity and an important social document providing an invaluable insight into the day to day workings of a Victorian household

Victorian London Liza Picard, 2014-01-28 To Londoners the years 1840 to 1870 were years of dramatic change and achievement As suburbs expanded and roads multiplied London was ripped apart to build railway lines and stations and life saving sewers The Thames was contained by embankments and traffic congestion was eased by the first underground railway in the world A start was made on providing housing for the deserving poor There were significant advances in medicine and the Ragged Schools are perhaps the least known of Victorian achievements in those last decades before universal state education In 1851 the Great Exhibition managed to astonish almost everyone attracting exhibitors and visitors from all over the world But there was also appalling poverty and exploitation exposed by Henry Mayhew and others For the laboring classes pay was pitifully low the hours long and job security nonexistent Liza Picard shows us the physical reality of daily life in Victorian London She takes us into schools and prisons churches and cemeteries Many practical innovations of the time flushing lavatories underground railways umbrellas letter boxes driving on the left point the way forward But this was also at least until the 1850s a city of cholera outbreaks transportation to Australia public executions and the workhouse where children could be sold by their parents for as little as 12 and streetpeddlers sold sparrows for a penny tied by the leg for children to play with Cruelty and hypocrisy flourished alongside invention industry and philanthropy
