Mrs Oliphant A Literary Life:

Mrs Oliphant Elisabeth Jay,1995 As an expatriate Scotswoman Margaret Oliphant 1828 97 started her prolific and accomplished writing career removed from the centre of Victorian literary life This comprehensive biography contains an often surprising portrait of the professional Victorian woman writer The Autobiography and Letters of Mrs. M. O. W. Oliphant M O W Oliphant,2013-10 Margaret Oliphant Wilson Oliphant 1828 1897 was a Scottish writer of 120 works including novels travel books histories and volumes of literary criticism Her second cousin Anna Louisa Walker Coghill 1836 1907 an English and Canadian teacher and author edited Mrs Oliphant s autobiography Women Reviewing Women in Nineteenth-Century Britain Joanne Wilkes,2016-02-17 Focusing particularly on the critical reception of Jane Austen Charlotte Bront and George Eliot Joanne Wilkes offers in depth examinations of reviews by eight female critics Maria Jane Jewsbury Sara Coleridge Hannah Lawrance Jane Williams Julia Kavanagh Anne Mozley Margaret Oliphant and Mary Augusta Ward What they wrote about women writers and what their writings tell us about the critics own sense of themselves as women writers reveal the distinctive character of nineteenth century women s contributions to literary history Wilkes explores the different choices these critics writing when women had to grapple with limiting assumptions about female intellectual capacities made about how to disseminate their own writing While several publishing in periodicals wrote anonymously others published books articles and reviews under their own names Wilkes teases out the distinctiveness of nineteenth century women s often ignored contributions to the critical reception of canonical women authors and also devotes space to the pioneering efforts of Lawrance Kavanagh and Williams to draw attention to the long tradition of female literary activity up to the nineteenth century She draws on commentary by male critics of the period as well to provide context for this important contribution to the recuperation of women s critical discourse in nineteenth century Britain

Anglican Women Novelists Judith Maltby,Alison Shell,2019-06-27 What do the novelists Charlotte Bront Charlotte M Yonge Rose Macaulay Dorothy L Sayers Barbara Pym Iris Murdoch and P D James all have in common These women and others were inspired to write fiction through their relationship with the Church of England This field defining collection of essays explores Anglicanism through their fiction and their fiction through their Anglicanism These essays by a set of distinguished contributors cover a range of literary genres from life writing and whodunnits through social comedy children s books and supernatural fiction Spanning writers from the nineteenth to the twenty first century they testify both to the developments in Anglicanism over the past two centuries and the changing roles of women within the Church of England and wider society The Victorian Novel Francis O'Gorman,2008-04-15 This guide steers students through significant critical responses to the Victorian novel from the end of the nineteenth century to the present day The History of British Women's Writing, 1830-1880 Lucy Hartley,2018-09-22 This volume charts the rise of professional women writers across diverse fields of intellectual enquiry and through different modes of writing in the period immediately before and during the reign of Queen Victoria It demonstrates how between 1830 and 1880 the woman writer became an agent of cultural formation and contestation appealing to and enabling the growth of female readership while issuing a challenge to the authority of male writers and critics Of especial importance were changing definitions of marriage family and nation of class and of morality as well as new conceptions of sexuality and gender and of sympathy and sensation The result is a richly textured account of a radical and complex process of feminization whereby formal innovations in the different modes of writing by women became central to the aesthetic social and political formation of British culture and society in the nineteenth century Elizabeth Gaskell Sandro Jung,2010 Assembles fourteen original essays on Gaskell the Victorian novelist of social problem fiction Libraries in Literature Alice Crawford,Robert Crawford,2022 A collection that explores how libraries have been represented in English language fiction drama and poetry from the early modern period to the present day This accessible volume covers literature from Don Quixote to the work of M R James Agatha Christie and Haruki Murakami and draws together original essays by prestigious contributors "The" Athenaeum ,1892 The American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1897 The Routledge Handbook to the Ghost Story Scott Brewster,Luke Thurston,2017-11-14 The Handbook to the Ghost Story sets out to survey and significantly extend a new field of criticism which has been taking shape over recent years centring on the ghost story and bringing together a vast range of interpretive methods and theoretical perspectives The main task of the volume is to properly situate the genre within historical and contemporary literary cultures across the globe and to explore its significance within wider literary contexts as well as those of the supernatural The Handbook offers the most significant contribution to this new critical field to date assembling some of its leading scholars to examine the key contexts and issues required for understanding the emergence and development of the ghost story Space(s) of the Fantastic David Punter,C. Bruna Mancini,2020-12-29 This book provides a series of new addresses to the enduring problem of how to categorize the Fantastic The approach taken is through the lens of spatiality the Fantastic gives us new worlds although of course these are refractions of worlds already in being In place of real spaces whatever they might be the Fantastic gives us imaginary spaces although within those spaces historical and cultural conflicts are played out albeit in forms that stretch our understanding of everyday location and our usual interpretations of cause and effect Many authors are addressed here from a variety of different geographical and national traditions thus demonstrating how the Fantastic as a mode a genre a way of thinking imagining and writing continually traverses borders and boundaries We hope to move the ongoing debate about the Fantastic forward in a scholarly as well as an engaging way The American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1897 American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1897 Women and Literature in Britain 1800-1900 Joanne Shattock,2001-08-30 These new essays by leading scholars explore nineteenth century women s writing across a spectrum of genres The book s focus is on women s role in and access to literary culture in the broadest sense as consumers and interpreters as well as practitioners of that culture Individual chapters consider women as journalists editors translators scholars actresses playwrights autobiographers biographers writers for children and religious writers as well as novelists and poets A unique chronology offers a woman centered perspective on literary and historical events and there is a guide to further reading

The Haunted Study P. J. Keating, 2012-10-04 The Haunted Study a rare example of a work of literary history that is genuinely interdisciplinary explores how the leading novelists of the late Victorian and Edwardian periods came to develop so many of the attitudes that are now generally accepted as characteristically modern The writing of fiction is not treated as though it exists in some kind of isolation but is shown to be intimately related to other forms of social activity Conrad James Meredith and their immediate modernist successors Joyce Lawrence and Woolf may now seem to be set apart in a variety of crucial ways from say Ouida and Marie Corelli or even Gissing Wells and Bennett but all of them worked within the same rapidly changing society and were unavoidably influenced by its dominant economic political and cultural concerns These influences were not peripheral but central and formative They profoundly affected the creation of a commercially fragmented culture as well as the nature of fiction within that culture The Haunted Study covers an exceptionally large number of authors from the critically despised to the critically admired and examines the impact on their work of such factors as the professionalisation of literature the earning power of authors the emergence of new kinds of readers and disturbingly present throughout the whole period fundamental democratic change

Portable Property John Plotz, 2008 What fueled the Victorian passion for hair jewelry and memorial rings When would an everyday object metamorphose from commodity to precious relic In Portable Property John Plotz examines the new role played by portable objects in persuading Victorian Britons that they could travel abroad with religious sentiments family ties and national identity intact In an empire defined as much by the circulation of capital as by force of arms the challenge of preserving Englishness while living overseas became a central Victorian preoccupation creating a pressing need for objects that could readily travel abroad as personifications of Britishness At the same time a radically new relationship between cash value and sentimental associations arose in certain resonant mementoes in teacups rings sprigs of heather and handkerchiefs but most of all in books Portable Property examines how culture bearing objects came to stand for distant people and places creating or preserving a sense of self and community despite geographic dislocation Victorian novels because they themselves came to be understood as the quintessential portable property tell the story of this change most clearly Plotz analyzes a wide range of works paying particular attention to George Eliot's Daniel Deronda Anthony Trollope's Eustace Diamonds and R D Blackmore's Lorna Doone He also discusses Thomas Hardy and William Morris's vehement attack on the very notion of cultural portability The result is a richer understanding of the role of objects in British culture at home and abroad during the Age of Empire

Penelope Fitzgerald and the Consolation of Fiction Christopher Knight, 2016-09-13 Christopher J Knight's Penelope Fitzgerald and the Consolation of Fiction is a study of the British author Penelope Fitzgerald 1916-2000 attending to her nine novels especially as viewed through the lens both of late style she published her first novel

The Golden Child at age sixty and in her words of consolation that is for doubts and fears as well as for naked human loss As in Shakespeare's late religiously inflected romances the two concerns coincide and Fitzgerald's ostensible comedies are marked by a clear experience of the tragic and the palpable sense of a world that verges on the edge of indifference to human loss Yet Fitzgerald her late age pessimism notwithstanding seeks with the aid of her own religious understandings in each of her novels to wrestle meaning consolation and even comedy from circumstances not noticeably propitious Or as she herself memorably spoke of her own deepest convictions I can only say that however close I've come by this time to nothingness I have remained true to my deepest convictions I mean to the courage of those who are born to be defeated the weaknesses of the strong and the tragedy of misunderstandings and missed opportunities which I have done my best to treat as a comedy for otherwise how can we manage to bear it The recipient of Britain's Booker Prize and America's National Book Critics Circle Award Penelope Fitzgerald's reputation as a novelist and author more generally has grown since her death significantly to the point that she is now widely judged one of Britain's finest writers comparable in worth to the likes of Jane Austen George Eliot and Virginia Woolf Victorian Women Writers and the Woman Question Nicola Diane

Thompson, 1999-07 This book was first published in 1999 This collection of essays by leading scholars from Britain the USA and Canada opens up the limited landscape of Victorian novels by focusing attention on some of the women writers popular in their own time but forgotten or neglected by literary history Spanning the entire Victorian period this study investigates particularly the role and treatment of the woman question in the second half of the century There are discussions of marriage patriarchy and divorce satire suffragette writing writing for children and links between literature and art Moving from Margaret Oliphant and Charlotte Mary Yonge to Mary Ward Marie Corelli Ouida and E Nesbit this book illuminates the complex cultural and literary roles and the engaging contributions of Victorian women writers Representations of Hair in Victorian Literature and Culture Galia Ofek, 2016-12-05 Galia Ofek's wide ranging study elucidates the historical artistic literary and theoretical meanings of the Victorians' preoccupation with hair Victorian writers and artists Ofek argues had a well developed awareness of fetishism as an overinvestment of value in a specific body part and were fully cognizant of hair's symbolic resonance and its value as an object of commerce In particular they were increasingly alert to the symbolic significance of hairstyling Among the writers and artists Ofek considers are Elizabeth Gaskell George Eliot Margaret Oliphant Charles Darwin Anthony Trollope Elizabeth Barrett Browning Eliza Lynn Linton Mary Elizabeth Braddon Herbert Spencer Dante Gabriel Rossetti Edward Burne Jones Charles Dickens Thomas Hardy and Aubrey Beardsley By examining fiction poetry anthropological and scientific works newspaper reviews and advertisements correspondence jewellery paintings and cartoons Ofek shows how changing patterns of power relations between women and patriarchy are rendered anew when viewed through the lens of Victorian hair codes and imagery during the second half of the nineteenth century
