Nova My Story:

Renaissance Rewritings Helmut Pfeiffer, Irene Fantappiè, Tobias Roth, 2017-09-25 Rewriting is one of the most crucial but at the same time one of the most elusive concepts of literary scholarship In order to contribute to a further reassessment of such a notion this volume investigates a wide range of medieval and early modern literary transformations especially focusing on texts and contexts of Italian and French Renaissance literature The first section of the book Rewriting gathers essays which examine medieval and early modern rewritings while also pointing out the theoretical implications raised by such texts The second part Rewritings in Early Modern Literature collects contributions which account for different practices of rewriting in the Italian and French Renaissance for instance by analysing dynamics of repetition and duplication verbatim reproduction and free reworking textual production and authorial self fashioning alterity and identity replication and multiplication The volume strives at shedding light on the complexity of the relationship between early modern and ancient literature perfectly summed up in the motto written by Pietro Aretino in a letter to his friend the painter Giulio Romano in 1542 Essere modernamente antichi e anticamente moderni

With All My Heart Michael W. Evans, 2017-08-29 This is not a war story and I never anticipated it to be It is a love story in my opinion I am biased a story of love tears tragedy and then love again Perhaps with an added touch of the goodness that people oftentimes find in each other The minute you begin to write about a military man you are going to have war You have to read beyond what our Jake experienced to get to my ending
