Prison Without Walls:

Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds

Life Imprisonment in Asia Dirk van Zyl Smit,Catherine Appleton,Giao Vucong,2022-11-30 Life imprisonment is the punishment most often imposed worldwide for what societies regard as the most serious offences Yet in Asia the phenomenon has never been studied systematically Life Imprisonment in Asia fills this major gap It brings together thirteen new essays on life imprisonment in key jurisdictions in the region Each chapter consolidates what is known about the law and practice of life imprisonment in the jurisdiction and then explores aspects of the imposition or implementation of life sentences that the authors regard as particularly problematic In some instances the main issue is the imposition of life sentences by the courts and their relationship to the death penalty In others the focus is on the treatment of life sentenced prisoners In many instances the most prominent question is whether life sentenced prisoners should be released and if so according to what processes In the overview chapter the editors place the complex picture that emerges of life imprisonment in Asia in a global context and point to reforms urgently required to ensure that Asian life sentences meet international human rights standards Life Imprisonment in Asia should be read by everyone who has an interest in just punishments for serious offences not only in Asia but throughout the world It will be an invaluable tool for lawyers criminologists policy makers and penal reform advocates in the region and beyond The Oxford History of the Prison Norval Morris,David J. Rothman,1998 Ranging from ancient times to the present a survey of the evolution of the prison explores its relationship to the history of Western criminal law and offers a look at the social world of prisoners over the centuries Curing the Criminal Jesse Orila Stutsman,1926 Annual Report of the New York State Commission of

Correction New York (State). State Commission of Correction, 1914 Tables Documents of the Senate of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Senate, 1916 The Hudson Tom Lewis, 2007-04-01 The Hudson River has always played a vital role in American culture Flowing through a valley of sublime scenery the great river uniquely connects America's past with its present and future This book traces the course of the river through four centuries recounting the stories of explorers and traders artists and writers entrepreneurs and industrialists ecologists and preservationists those who have been shaped by the river as well as those who have helped shape it Their compelling narratives attest to the Hudson River's distinctive place in American history and the American imagination Among those who have figured in the history of the Hudson are Benedict Arnold Alexander Hamilton Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt the Astors and the Vanderbilts and Thomas Cole of the Hudson River school Their stories appear here alongside those of such less famous individuals as the surveyor who found the source of the Hudson and the engineer who tried to build a hydroelectric plant at Storm King Mountain Inviting us to view the river from a wider perspective than ever before this entertaining and enlightening book is worthy of its grand subject A Collection of the Public General Statutes Passed in the ... Mental Culture in Burmese Crisis Politics Gustaaf Houtman, 1999 An examination of the current political crisis in Burma and in particular its Buddhist and socio psychological aspects Transactions of the ... National Prison Congress, 1877 Transactions of the National Prison Congress American Correctional Association, 1877 Proceedings for 1884 and 1885 include report of conference of prison officials Chicago 1884 separately paged Annual Report of the State Commission of Prisons New York (State). State Commission of Prisons, 1911 Coxsackie Joseph F. Spillane, 2014-05-29 Even handed and free of jargon a revealing account of how our criminal justice system operates on the ground level Edward D Berkowitz author of Mass Appeal Joseph F Spillane examines the failure of progressive reform in New York State by focusing on Coxsackie a New Deal reformatory built for young male offenders Opened in 1935 to serve adolescents adrift Coxsackie instead became an unstable and brutalizing prison From the start the liberal impulse underpinning the prison's mission was overwhelmed by challenges it was unequipped or unwilling to face drugs gangs and racial conflict Spillane draws on detailed prison records to reconstruct a life behind bars in which ungovernable young men posed constant challenges to racial and cultural order The New Deal order of the prison was unstable from the start the politics of punishment quickly became the politics of race and social exclusion and efforts to save liberal reform in postwar New York only deepened its failures In 1977 inmates took hostages to focus attention on their grievances The result was stricter discipline and an end to any pretense that Coxsackie was a reform institution In today's era of mass incarceration prisons have become conflict ridden warehouses and powerful symbols of racism and inequality This account challenges the conventional wisdom that America's prison crisis is of comparatively recent vintage showing instead how a racial and punitive system of control emerged from the ashes of a progressive ideal Should be required reading for historians of juvenile and criminal corrections Presents a compelling cautionary tale that contemporary would be reformers ignore at their peril while offering important new insights for scholars American Historical Review The Delinquent ,1914
