Reforming China's Rural Health System ,2009-01-01 Since 1978 when it embarked on sweeping agricultural and industrial reforms China's economic growth has been remarkable Its success in transforming itself within just three decades from a very poor low income country to a successful middle income country is unparalleled During this period however and in contrast to the first 30 years of the People's Republic progress in the health sector has been disappointing For example during the period 1980-2007 China increased its income per head as a percentage of the OECD average from 3 percent to 15 per cent but infant mortality fell no faster

Missing the Mark? Women and the Millennium Development Goals in Africa and Oceania Naomi M. McPherson,2016-04-01 In the year 2000 United Nations world leaders set out eight targets the UN Millennium Development Goals for achieving improved standards of living at the micro level in poorer nations around the globe by the year 2015 The papers in this collection present fine detailed ethnographic studies of cultures in Africa and Oceania with a focus primarily on MDG 3 targeted to promote gender equality and empower women and MDG 5 targeted to improve maternal health to ascertain whether or not these goals have made or missed their mark Ethnographic case studies located in Solomon Islands Marshall Islands Federated States of Micronesia Papua New Guinea Vanuatu Ghana Malawi Cameroon and South Ethiopia show that women in these cultures regardless of nation state face the same issues or problems lack of empowerment gender inequities and inadequate access to cultural or state resources to realize good health in general and good maternal and reproductive health in particular

Health and Human Rights in a Changing World Michael Grodin,Daniel Tarantola,George Annas,Sofia Gruskin,2013-07-04 Health and Human Rights in a Changing World is a comprehensive and contemporary collection of readings and original material examining health and human rights from a global perspective Editors Grodin Tarantola Annas and Gruskin are well known for their previous two volumes published by Routledge on this increasingly important subject to the global community The editors have contextualized each of the five sections with foundational essays each reading concludes with discussion topics questions and suggested readings This book also includes Points of View sections originally written perspectives by important authors in the field Section I is a Health and Human Rights Overview that lays out the essential knowledge base and provides the foundation for the following sections Section II brings in notions of concepts methods and governance framing the application of health and human rights in particular the Human Rights based Approaches to Health Section III sheds light on issues of heightened vulnerability and special protection stressing that the health and human rights record of any nation any community is determined by what is being done and not done about those who are most in need Section IV focuses on addressing system failures where health and human rights issues have been documented recognized even at times proclaimed as priorities and yet insufficiently attended to as a result of State denial unwillingness or incapacity Section V

examines the relevance of the health and human rights paradigm to a changing world underscoring contemporary global challenges and responses Finally a Concluding Note brings together the key themes of this set of articles and attempts to project a vision of the future
