Reference Services For Children And Young Adults:

Reference Services for Children and Young Adults William A. Katz, Ruth A. Fraley, 1983 Reference Services for Children and Young Adults explores information needs of children and young adults discusses the building of collections for reference use delineates issues in providing effective services and discusses the differences similarities of serving these age groups in two different institutional settings the public library and the school library media center Reference and Information Sources and Services for Children and Young Adults Lesley S.J. Farmer, 2022-09-01 Reference and information services are more important than ever for today's young people By analyzing key features of reference and information services to young people in school and public library environments including the research behind the trends and issues librarians can make sure that those services are appropriately responsive to children and teens Based on standards and evidence based practice this book helps you to optimize those resources and services by providing guidance in assessing youth communities determining youth's information needs and information behaviors developing and maintaining age appropriate reference collections starting with the book's core list of print and online resources optimizing physical and virtual access to reference and information sources interacting with youth and facilitating their reference and information literacy skills curating and producing reference and information products dealing with relevant legal and ethical issues and planning effective library reference and information services for youth Chapter sidebar examples provide food for thought Reference Services for Children and Young Adults Rosemarie Riechel, 1991 The purpose of this book is to focus on current reference service practices policies and procedures in order to identify problems deficiencies and barriers A view of reference activity in urban suburban and rural public libraries and school library media centers is provided as are suggested guidelines for and alternative approaches to the improvement of the way the reference and information needs of children and young adults are met Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines Education English and Library and Information Science Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home school library and community settings Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels picturebooks indigenous literature graphic novels and other genres Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship awards marketing and literary museums The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory Literacy and Reading Programmes for Children and Young People: Case Studies from Around the Globe Patrick Lo, Stephanie H. S. Wu, Andrew J. Stark, Bradley Allard, 2022-01-26

Literacy and Reading Programmes for Children and Young People Case Studies from Around the Globe presents interviews with over 40 librarians from around the world who tell of their library programs The volumes are arranged geographically with Volume 1 offering interviews from library professionals from the USA and Europe and with Volume 2 sharing programs from Asia Africa Australia and the Middle East The volumes highlight the diversity of the types of programs catering to the varying needs of children and young adults throughout the world Case studies featured in this book outline the details of programs events and activities provided by over 40 organizations in the context of social capital and social inclusion Each interview chapter discusses the contributions made to literacy development and community building of children and teens With the many variations and examples of best practice librarians and educators can glean new ideas for their own programs The interviews reveal the challenges and issues faced and the work being achieved in vastly different environments in many geographic areas and in diverse economic social and cultural contexts The programs include those of national and state libraries public libraries and mobile libraries carried out by public libraries NGOs and commercial organizations in both developed and developing countries They also feature programs of multicultural libraries libraries for indigenous people and libraries for refugees This publication complements the range of initiatives and activities carried out by IFLA's Libraries for Children and Young Adults Section that supports library services and reading promotion initiatives catering to children and young adults around the world These volumes are rich in variety and will provide much food for thought for creating unique and successful library programs

Services and Resources for Children and Young Adults in Public Libraries Sheila Heaviside, 1995

the findings are presented of 1994 surveys on services and resources for children and young adults ages 12-18 in public libraries Each survey was conducted with a different nationally representative sample of public libraries Data was collected for individual buildings rather than for library systems Findings indicate the following

- 1 children and young adults represent 60% of public library patronage
- 2 30% of public librarians specialize in youth services
- 3 39% of libraries employ a children's librarian 11% have a young adult librarian and 24% have a youth services specialist on staff
- 4 30% of all public libraries have only one librarian on staff
- 5 ethnic diversity of children and young adult patrons has increased over 40% in the last 5 years
- 6 computer technologies are among the most heavily used children's and young adult resources in public libraries and are also the most scarce
- 7 many library programs primarily target preschool and kindergarten children
- 8 only 76% of public libraries report working with schools
- 9 only one in seven libraries offer homework assistance programs
- 10 11% of public libraries have neither a young adult collection or section and
- 11 insufficient library staff is a leading barrier to increasing services and resources for children and young adults
