The Book of the End Pasquale De

Marco, 2025-08-14 The Book of the End is a journey to the end of all things From the end of our own lives to the end of the universe itself this book explores the scientific theories the religious beliefs and the philosophical musings on the end What does it mean to die What will it be like to experience the end of the world And what can we do to prepare for the inevitable These are the questions that this book will explore Pasquale De Marco offers a unique perspective on the end drawing on a wide range of sources to provide a comprehensive and thought provoking examination of this complex topic With insights from science religion philosophy and literature Pasquale De Marco offers a unique perspective on the end that will challenge your assumptions and leave you with a new understanding of this profound mystery This book is not a morbid meditation on death and destruction It is a celebration of life and a reminder that even in the face of the inevitable there is hope Pasquale De Marco offers a message of hope and comfort reminding us that the end is not something to be feared but something to be embraced The Book of the End is an essential read for anyone who has ever wondered about the meaning of life and death It is a book that will stay with you long after you finish reading it and a book that you will return to again and again If you like this book write a review

Narrative Ontology Axel Hutter, 2021-11-18 This book is a critical inquiry into three ideas that have been at the heart of philosophical reflection since time immemorial freedom God and immortality Their inherent connection has disappeared from our thought We barely pay attention to the latter two ideas and the notion of freedom is used so loosely today that it has become vacuous Axel Hutter s book seeks to remind philosophy of its distinct task only in understanding itself as human self knowledge that articulates itself in these three ideas will philosophy do justice to its own concept In developing this line of argument Hutter finds an ally in Thomas Mann whose novel Joseph and His Brothers has more to say about freedom God and immortality than most contemporary philosophy does Through his reading of Mann s novel Hutter explores these three ideas in a distinctive way He brings out the intimate connection between philosophical self knowledge and narrative form Mann s novel gives expression to the depth of human self understanding and thus demands a genuinely philosophical interpretation In turn philosophical concepts are freed from abstractness by resonating with the novel s motifs and its rich language Narrative Ontology is both a highly original work of philosophy and a vigorous defence of humanism It brings together philosophy and literature in a creative way it will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy literature and the humanities in general

The Rudolf Mössbauer Story Michael Kalvius, Paul Kienle, 2012-01-14 The Rudolf Mössbauer Story recounts the history of the discovery of the Mössbauer Effect in 1958 by Rudolf Mössbauer as a graduate student of Heinz Maier Leibnitz for which he received the Nobel Prize in 1961 when he was 32 years old The development of numerous applications of the Mössbauer Effect in many fields of sciences such as physics chemistry biology and medicine is reviewed by experts who contributed to this wide spread research In 1978 Mössbauer focused his research interest on a new field Neutrino Oscillations and later on the study of the properties of the neutrinos emitted by the sun

Human Communication as Narration Walter R. Fisher, 2021-06-03 This book addresses questions that have concerned rhetoricians literary theorists and philosophers since the time of the pre Socratics and the Sophists How do people come to believe and to act on the basis of communicative experiences What is the nature of reason and rationality in these experiences What is the role of values in human decision making and action How can reason and values be assessed In answering these questions Professor Fisher proposes a reconceptualization of humankind as homo narrans that all forms of human communication need to be seen as stories symbolic interpretations of aspects of the world occurring in time and shaped by history culture and character that individuated forms of discourse should be considered good reasons values or value laden warrants for believing or acting in certain ways and that a narrative logic that all humans have natural capacities to employ ought to be conceived of as the logic by which human communication is assessed
