L. LeMahieu,Christopher Cowley,2020-05-21 In this volume scholars from a number of academic disciplines illuminate how a range of philosophers and other thoughtful individuals addressed the complex issues surrounding philosophy and life writing The contributors interrogate the writings of Teresa of Avila Jean Jacques Rousseau John Stuart Mill Wilhelm Dilthey Walter Benjamin Albert Camus Bryan Magee Mikhail Bakhtin Maurice Merleau Ponty and Judith Butler who range in time from the sixteenth to the twenty first centuries As this volume demonstrates the relationship between philosophy and life writing has become an issue of urgent interdisciplinary concern This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing Performative Reflections of Indian Traditions D. Venkat Rao,2021-09-30 This book focuses on the cohering elements across various texts and traditions of India It engages with several significant works from the Sanskrit tradition and emphasizes the need to move beyond colonial and postcolonial engagements with the enduring cultural pasts of India The chapters are grouped in three main parts accented rhythms dispersed mnemoscapes and inventive iterations It addresses questions such as what enabled cultural communication across very divergent geographical temporal locational contexts and among different cultural formations of India over millennia What is this shareable impulse that pulsates across the domains of dance sculpture painting poetry dharma music medicine the lore of rivers and the epics It explains how modern Indian languages and especially their creative and reflective nodes are unthinkable without the intricately woven textures of these interfaces and their responsive receptions This book is of interest to philosophers humanities students researchers and professors as well as people interested in exploring alternatives to European traditions of thought without an alibi
