The Reflection TLJ Heaven, 2021-08-23 The world we create will be a sustainable one One without humanity One without all those you love We will reward you with being one of the last men to view the ashes of the world you currently know And then we will let you die To rectify the tragic loss of his eldest daughter Rebecca Doctor Johnathan Grunge searched for solutions through his genetic studies It was time for Doctor Grunge to unveil his years of research to the public domain He was never aware of the full implications of his experiments His focus was not shifted away from his DNA program to the monster he created in the dark The monster that kept him sleepless at night The monster that lurked over his family

Jeffers, 2003 The book chronicles James Jeffers life from about age two but it purposefully falls short of being either memoirs or autobiography With this work he has attempted to simply record for his children grandchildren and others the wonderful events of his life as he experienced them The book covers thousands of miles of travel along with living and working with peoples of differing cultures on three continents and in the Caribbean five foreign countries and fifteen different states spanning the nation from coast to coast to coast of the most ethically controversial and politically sensitive domains of contemporary biolaw surrogacy end of life decisions and medical triage The book s approach transcends mere description or comparison delving into the ethical and philosophical dimensions required to adopt a normative framework for evaluating the management of human life at its biological thresholds birth and death Within the central chapters the text follows a consistent thread through a legal philosophical perspective it examines whether the choices of giving life through surrogacy ending life and allocating medical resources in contexts of scarcity can be considered ethically admissible while investigating whether normative structures exist that are capable of guiding human action and upholding autonomy equality justice and human dignity Written in clear and accessible language this book provides conceptual clarity and critical reflection for scholars and practitioners in bioethics biolaw philosophy of law and health policy

Flying, Fighting and Reflection Peter Jacobs, 2018-09-30 This is the thrilling account of the last remaining Battle of Britain ace fighter pilot Tom Ginger Neil Neil was one of an elite band nicknamed The Few by Winston Churchill he flew Hurricanes during 141 combat missions in that battle and went on to command the first Spitfire XII squadron during 1942 43 as the RAF went on the offensive in north west Europe In this the only full account of Neil s life to be published in collaboration with his family we learn how he became a poster boy for the war effort and how he credits his sixth sense for keeping him alive during the Second World War There was however one terrifyingly close brush with death when in 1940 he had a mid air collision with another Hurricane With the rear section of his aircraft gone the plane was out of control and hurtling to the ground yet somehow he managed to bail out and miraculously survived with only a minor leg injury As well as RAF service during the Siege of Malta Wing Commander Neil who is now in his late nineties also served with the Americans during the D Day landings During his career Neil was awarded two Distinguished Flying Crosses for the destruction of at least fourteen enemy aircraft and was a successful test pilot after the war before commanding a jet fighter reconnaissance squadron in Egypt's troubled Canal Zone during the 1950s for which he was awarded the Air Force Cross With contributions from the man himself this book also looks at his life after the RAF and his career as a successful author For military buffs and novices alike it is a must read account of a true war hero

Mr Woodreeve's

Reflection Robert Bluck, 2017-02-02 Emma sees something impossible again a man walking unharmed out of a deep churning river Last time her parents thought she was hallucinating Now she'll keep it secret Is Emma going crazy Or does she see things the others can't see or won't admit to seeing On the surface is a family in crisis Emma is an awkward teenager in a world of her own and there is a web of secrets her family are keeping from each other which can only be untangled if they have the courage to share what they have seen There seems to be a hidden world magical or dangerous only a hair's breadth away from everyday Northumberland The family befriends the mysterious Mr Woodreeve and they begin to dream of moving to the country But why is he so friendly and why is Emma in particular drawn to him When he disappears leaving behind his own peculiar story for them to read they are more confused than ever Secret letters secret places secret lovers all have to be discovered and understood before the family can find their way towards the truth Will they be brave enough to share these secrets and how will their lives be changed
