In this thoroughly researched and highly topical book David McDowall considers the Palestinian uprising from a historical social and political perspective and carefully reassesses the prospects for a settlement of the Arab Israeli conflict In the Eye of the Storm Mitri Raheb,2023-06-23

The situation of Christians in the Middle East has become an important topic of international discussion as well as an important theme covered in the media as several CBS Sixty Minutes programs have highlighted the plight of Christians in Palestine Syria Jordan Lebanon and Egypt In the Eye of the Storm tells the story of the plight of twenty first century Middle Eastern Christians in five countries Palestine Israel Jordan Lebanon and Egypt in the context of the so called Arab Spring and within a destabilized region that is a geopolitical triangle shaped by Israeli hegemony and Arab Iranian tensions The book places the situation of the Christians within the wider sociopolitical context of the Middle East in the twenty first century A unique feature of this book is that it is written mainly by native Christians who have spent their entire lives in the region and continue to live there In the Eye of the Storm therefore provides an insider perspective rather than a hegemonic and colonial outsider perspective This book hopes to offer a sociopolitical framework for the Christians of the Middle East thus allowing them to tell their own story as they see it and not one that has been projected onto them by outside forces Palestinians Born in Exile Juliane Hammer,2009-08-17

In the decade following the 1993 Oslo Peace Accords some 100 000 diasporic Palestinians returned to the West Bank and Gaza Among them were children and young adults who were born in exile and whose sense of Palestinian identity was shaped not by lived experience but rather through the transmission and re creation of memories images and history As a result returning to the homeland that had never actually been their home presented challenges and disappointments for these young Palestinians who found their lifeways and values sometimes at odds with those of their new neighbors in the West Bank and Gaza This original ethnography records the experiences of Palestinians born in exile who have emigrated to the Palestinian homeland Juliane Hammer interviews young adults between the ages of 16 and 35 to learn how their Palestinian identity has been affected by living in various Arab countries or the United States and then moving to the West Bank and Gaza Their responses underscore how much the experience of living outside of Palestine has become integral to the Palestinian national character even as Palestinians maintain an overwhelming sense of belonging to one another as a people The Sociology
