Medievalists reading and writing about and around authority related themes lack clear definitions of its actual meanings in the medieval context Authorities in the Middle Ages offers answers to this thorny issue through specialized investigations This book considers the concept of authority and explores the various practices of creating authority in medieval society In their studies sixteen scholars investigate the definition formation establishment maintenance and collapse of what we understand in terms of medieval struggles for authority influence and power The interdisciplinary nature of this volume resonates with the multi faceted field of medieval culture its social structures and forms of communication The fields of expertise include history legal studies theology philosophy politics literature and art history The scope of inquiry extends from late antiquity to the mid fifteenth century from the Church Fathers debating with pagans to the rapacious ghosts ruining the life of the living in the Sagas There is a special emphasis on such exciting but understudied areas as the Balkans Iceland and the eastern fringes of Scandinavia Luther at Leipzig , 2019-09-16

On the five hundredth anniversary of the 1519 debate between Martin Luther and John Eck at Leipzig Luther at Leipzig offers an extensive treatment of this pivotal Reformation event in its historical and theological context The Leipzig Debate not only revealed growing differences between Luther and his opponents but also resulted in further splintering among the Reformation parties which continues to the present day The essays in this volume provide an essential background to the complex theological political ecclesiastical and intellectual issues precipitating the debate They also sketch out the relevance of the Leipzig Debate for the course of the Reformation the interpretation and development of Luther and the ongoing divisions between Protestantism and Roman Catholicism The Contested Theological Authority of Thomas Aquinas Elizabeth Lowe, 2003
