Reformation And The Culture Of Persuasion:

Reformation and the Culture of Persuasion Andrew Pettegree, 2005-06-23 A groundbreaking new history of the process of religious conversion during the European Reformation

Monstrous Births and Visual Culture in Sixteenth-Century Germany Jennifer Spinks, 2015-10-06 Presents an examination of printed representations of monstrous births in German speaking Europe from the end of the fifteenth century and through the sixteenth century beginning with a seminal series of broadsheets from the late 1490s by humanist Sebastian Brant and including prints by Albrecht Durer and Hans Burgkmair

African Literacies and Western Oralities? William A. Coppedge, 2021-11-03 How do twenty first century Christians communicate the Bible and their faith in today's mediascape Members of the International Orality Network ION believe that the answer to that paramount question is orality For too long they argue presentations of Christianity have operated on a printed literate register hindering many from receiving and growing in the Christian faith Instead they champion the spoken word and narrative presentations of the gospel message In light of the church's shift to the Global South how have such communication approaches been received by majority world Christians This book explores the responses and reactions of local Ugandan Christians to this oral renaissance The investigation grounded in ethnographic research uncovers the complex relationships between local and international culture brokers all of whom are seeking to establish particular modern identities The research conclusions challenge static Western categorizations and point towards an integrated understanding of communication that appreciates the role of materiality and embodiment in a broader religious socioeconomic discourse as well as taking into account societal anticipations of a flourishing modern African Church This book promises to stimulate dialogue for those concerned about the communication complexities that are facing the global church in the twenty first century

The Dynamics of the Early Reformation in their Reformed Augustinian Context Robert Christman, 2025-10-01 On 1 July 1523 Johann van den Esschen and Hendrik Voes two Augustinian friars from Antwerp were burned on the Grand Plaza in Brussels thereby becoming the first victims of the Reformation Despite being well known the event barely registers in most Reformation histories By tracing its origins and examining the impact of the executions on Martin Luther on the Reformed Augustinian world and on the early Reformation in the Low Countries and the German speaking lands this study definitively demonstrates that the burnings were in fact the denouement of broader trends within Late Medieval Reformed Augustinianism as well as a watershed in the early Reformation In doing so it also reveals the central role played by the Augustinian friars of Lower Germany in shaping both the content and spread of the early Reformation as well as Wittenberg's influence on the events leading up to these first executions Winner of the Gerald Strauss Book Prize awarded by the Sixteenth Century Society Conference for the best book in the field of German Reformation history

From Rome to Zurich, between Ignatius and Vermigli, 2017-02-20 From Rome to Zurich between Ignatius and Vermigli brings notable scholars from the fields of Reformation and Early Modern studies to honor their friend

Restoring Christ's Church Michael S. Springer, 2016-04-08 This book examines the struggle for Protestant consensus and unity through the work of John a Lasco 1499 1560 It is only in recent years that scholars have begun to recognize the importance of Lasco as one of the leading figures of the European Reformation and a pivotal figure between Lutheran and Reformed theologians The Polish reformer was among the most dynamic church organizers of the sixteenth century dedicated to healing the divisions among evangelicals and searching for the key to Protestant unity in the example of the Apostolic Church It was to this end that he published the Forma ac ratio in 1555 a work that recorded the rites and practices of the London Strangers Church of which he had been the first superintendent and to provide a model for uniting the disparate Protestant communities on the Continent Although some recent works have focused on aspects of Lasco's early career in Germany and England this is the first book to provide a comprehensive analysis of the Forma ac ratio and the reformer's reasons for writing it This study also puts Lasco's distinct model for Protestant churches into the wider European context and assesses his impact on the struggle for unity through an examination of his correspondence the reaction to his writings and his influence on Protestant congregations across Europe

Books in Early Modern Norway Gina Dahl, 2011-07-12 During recent decades much has been written about early modern book distribution but until now Norway has been absent from the discussion Drawing on book listings this study seeks to fill this lacuna by exploring the market for books in early modern Norway Its approach is multifaceted consideration of the types of books accessed by different elements of Norwegian society is set alongside developments within the book market itself such as the extended life of popular books the gradual replacement of Latin by the vernacular and the rise in the eighteenth century in the number of books available on the market The study demonstrates the internationality of the Norwegian book market while acknowledging specific patterns that determine its Norwegian character

Making Publics in Early Modern Europe Bronwen Wilson, Paul Yachnin, 2011-07-21 The book looks at how people things and new forms of knowledge created publics in early modern Europe and how publics changed the shape of early modern society The focus is on what the authors call making publics the active creation of new forms of association that allowed people to connect with others in ways not rooted in family rank or vocation but rather founded in voluntary groupings built on the shared interests tastes commitments and desires of individuals By creating new forms of association cultural producers and consumers challenged dominant ideas about just who could be a public person greatly expanded the resources of public life for ordinary people in their own time and developed ideas and practices that have helped create the political culture of modernity Coming from a number of disciplines including literary and cultural studies art history history of religion history of science and musicology the contributors develop analyses of a range of cases of early modern public making that together demonstrate the rich inventiveness and formative social power of artistic and intellectual publication in this period

Antoine de Chandieu Theodore G. Van Raalte, 2018-08-01 Offering the first study in any language dedicated to the influential publications of the French Reformed theologian Antoine de Chandieu 1534 1591 Theodore Van Raalte begins by recalling Chandieu's reputation as it stood at the death of Theodore Beza in 1605 Poets in Geneva mourned the end of an era of star theologians reminiscing about Geneva's Reformed triumvirate of gold silver and bronze gold represented Calvin silver Chandieu and bronze Beza Van Raalte's work sets Chandieu within the context of Reformed theology in Geneva the wider history of scholastic method in the Swiss cantons and the gripping social and political milieux of this tumultuous time Chandieu was far from a mere ivory tower theologian as a member of French nobility in possession of many estates and castles in France he and his family acutely experienced the misery and triumph of the French Huguenots during the Wars of Religion Connected to royalty from the beginning of his career Chandieu later served the future Henry IV as personal military chaplain and cryptographer His writings run the gamut from religious poetry put to music by others in his lifetime to carefully crafted disputations which saw publication in his posthumous Opera Theologica in five editions between 1592 and 1620 Chandieu had developed a very elaborate form of the medieval quaestio disputata and made liberal use of hypothetical syllogisms Van Raalte argues that Chandieu utilized scholastic method in theology for the sake of clarity of argument rootedness in Scripture and certainty of faith
