Reformation Principle And Practice Essays In Honour Of Arthur Geoffrey Dickens:

Reformation Principle and Practice Peter Newman Brooks, 1980 Reforming Mary Beth Kreitzer, 2004 Catholics and Protestants have since the start of the Reformation held markedly different views about the Virgin Mary Beth Kreitzer here examines the development of Lutheran views on the subject as expressed in published 16th century sermons including some written by Luther himself Encyclopedia of Monasticism William M. Johnston, 2013-12-04 The two volume Encyclopedia of Monasticism describes the monastic traditions of both Christianity and Buddhism with more than 600 entries on important monastic figures of all periods and places surveys of countries and localities and topical essays covering a wide range of issues e g art behavior economics liturgy politics theology and scholarship Coverage encompasses not only geography and history worldwide but also the contemporary dilemmas of monastic life Recent upheavals in certain countries are highlighted Korea Russia Sri Lanka etc Topical essays subtitled Christian Perspectives and Buddhist Perspectives explore in imaginative fashion comparisons and contrasts between Christian and Buddhist monasticism Encyclopedia of Monasticism also includes more than 500 color and black and white illustrations covering all aspects of monastic life art and architecture A Companion to Medieval and Early Modern Confraternities Konrad Eisenbichler, 2019-02-04 After the State and the Church the most well organized membership system of medieval and early modern Europe was the confraternity In cities towns and villages it would have been difficult for someone not to be a member of a confraternity the recipient of its charity or aware of its presence in the community In A Companion to Medieval and Early Modern Confraternities Konrad Eisenbichler brings together an international group of scholars to examine confraternities from various perspectives their origins and development their devotional practices their charitable activities and their contributions to literature music and art The result is a picture of confraternities as important venues for the acquisition of spiritual riches material wealth and social capital Contributors to this volume Alyssa Abraham Davide Adamoli Christopher F Black Dominika Burdzy David D Andrea Konrad Eisenbichler Anna Esposito Federica Francesconi Marina Gazzini Jonathan Glixon Colm Lennon William R Levin Murdo J MacLeod Nerida Newbigin Dylan Reid Gervase Rosser Nicholas Terpstra Paul Trio Anne Laure Van Bruaene Beata Wojciechowska and Danilo Zardin The Text of the Bible David S. New, 2013-04-26 For 2000 years the Bible has provided evidence and witness for the beliefs of three major world religions Some consider the Bible dangerous while others have died for it but the response to the Bible is always passionate This book relates the story of such passions from the Roman Empire to the present It is a story primarily about individuals the drama of their lives woven into the tapestry of their times barbarian invasions Black Death Waldensian heresy the pageantry of medieval romance the debauchery of the medieval Vatican the spirit of the Renaissance the tradition of monk and scholar All of these historical currents influenced the text now corrupted and distorted and existing in a confusing number of versions This book tells how today's Bible came to be what it is and provides an understanding of the richness of its text Simon Episcopus' Doctrine of Original Sin

Mark A. Ellis, 2006 Simon Episcopius 1583-1643 who began his theological career as the protégé of Jacobus Arminius led the Arminians at the Synod of Dort and was instrumental in guaranteeing Arminianism's survival. This book breaks new ground by clearly showing how in the process of working out the implications of the theological trajectories which Arminius established Episcopius introduced significant changes in his master's theology. It begins by demonstrating changes between Episcopius' early theological works and Arminius' writings and then even greater changes in his mature theological work Institutiones Theologicae. It defends the idea that Arminianism represented a pre-Calvinist movement within the Netherlands which not only rejected Genevan predestination but also intentionally moved away from Reformed Scholasticism. This book is useful for seminars in early Arminian theology and the Arminian controversy in the Netherlands. The People's Book

Jennifer Powell McNutt, David Lauber, 2017-04-11 The Bible played a vital role in the lives, theology, and practice of the Protestant Reformers. These essays from the 2016 Wheaton Theology Conference bring together the reflections of church historians and theologians on the nature of the Bible as the people's book, considering themes such as access to Scripture, the Bible's role in worship, and theological interpretation. Reformations Compared

Henry A. Jefferies, Richard Rex, 2024-03-21 Reformations Compared presents a collection of comparative studies of the Reformation as it reverberated across Europe in the sixteenth century. Each chapter is focused on two or more comparable geographical spaces, isolating the variables that help explain how and why the Reformation unfolded as it did in each separate setting. Rejecting notions of insularity, the contributors seek out the connections and contrasts that shaped the experience of the Reformation from the Baltic to the Mediterranean and from Ireland to Transylvania. In doing so, the volume offers a fresh understanding of the conditions in which the movement succeeded, whether wholly or partially, and those in which it did not. Reformations Compared provides a broad vantage point which encourages readers to reshape their understanding of this decisive episode in European history. Heresy, Culture, and Religion in Early Modern Italy

Ronald K. Delph, Michelle M. Fontaine, John Jeffries Martin, 2006-09-01 Leading scholars from Italy and the United States offer a fresh and nuanced image of the religious reform movements on the Italian peninsula in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. United in their conviction that religious ideas can only be fully understood in relation to the particular social, cultural, and political contexts in which they develop, these scholars explore a wide range of protagonists from popes, bishops, and inquisitors to humanists and merchants, to artists, jewelers, and nuns. What emerges is a story of negotiations, mediations, compromises, and of shifting boundaries between heresy and orthodoxy. This book is essential reading for all students of the history of Christianity in early modern Europe. Conflicts of Devotion

Daniel R. Gibbons, 2017-03-30 Who will mourn with me? Who will break bread with me? Who is my neighbor? In the wake of the religious reformations of the sixteenth century, such questions called for a new approach to the communal religious rituals and verses that shaped and commemorated many of the brightest and darkest moments of English life. In England, new forms of religious writing emerged out of a deeply fractured spiritual community. Conflicts of Devotion reshapes our understanding of the role that poetry played in the re formation of English community and shows us that understanding both the poetics of liturgy and the liturgical character of poetry is essential to comprehending the deep shifts in English spiritual attitudes and practices that occurred during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The liturgical communitarian perspective of Conflicts of Devotion sheds new light on neglected texts and deepens our understanding of how major writers such as Edmund Spenser Robert Southwell and John Donne struggled to write their way out of the spiritual and social crises of the age of the Reformation It also sheds new light on the roles that poetry may play in negotiating and even overcoming religious conflict Attention to liturgical poetics allows us to see the broad spectrum of ways in which English poets forged new forms of spiritual community out of the very language of theological division This book will be of great interest to teachers and students of early modern poetry and of the various fields related to Reformation studies history politics and theology
