The Logic of China's New School Reforms Qiquan Zhong, 2021-10-25 This is a collection of essays on China's new curriculum reforms in basic education covering various aspects of the reforms ranging from education theory to classroom activity transformation from teacher training to teaching quality evaluation Prof Zhong presents rich experiences in the reforms in the last decade as collisions between old ideas and new ones marking the end of the Kairov Era pedagogy This book discusses profound changes in China's basic education propelled by both top down designs and bottom up innovations from grass root teachers

Advocacy Leadership Gary L. Anderson, 2009-05-01 In this timely and important new book Gary Anderson provides a devastating critique of why a managerial role for educational leaders is counterproductive especially for improving opportunities for low income students and students of color and instead proposes ways of re theorizing educational leadership to emphasize its advocacy role Advocacy Leadership lays out a post reform agenda that moves beyond the neo liberal competition framework to define a new accountability a new pedagogy and a new leadership role definition Drawing on personal narrative discourse analysis and interdisciplinary scholarship Anderson delivers a compelling argument for the need to move away from current inauthentic and inequitable approaches to school reform in order to jump start a conversation about an alternative vision of education today
