Regarde Regarde Les Lions:

The Black Atlantic Reconsidered Winfried Siemerling, 2015-05-01 A survey of English and French black Canadian writing and its transnational connections from the eighteenth century to the present Comparative Literature in Canada

Susan Ingram, Irene Sywenky, 2019-11-05 This timely volume takes stock of the discipline of comparative literature and its theory and practice from a Canadian perspective It engages with the most pressing critical issues at the intersection of comparative literature and other areas of inquiry in the context of scholarship pedagogy and academic publishing bilingualism and multilingualism Indigeneity multiple canons literary and other the relationship between print culture and other media the development of information studies concerted efforts in digitization and the future of the production and dissemination of knowledge The authors offer an analysis of the current state of Canadian comparative literature with a dual focus on the issues of multilingualism in Canada s sociopolitical and cultural context and Canada s geographical location within the Americas It also discusses ways in which contemporary technology is influencing the way that Canadian literature is taught produced and disseminated and how this affects its readings Contested Spaces, Counter-narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec

Roxanne Rimstead, Domenic A. Beneventi, 2019-03-14 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Québecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space OK! Megamag

Sue Finnie, Danièle Bourdais, 2002-05-15 OK Megamag is a series of ten cross curricular magazine style workbooks aimed at less able pupils at secondary school level including those with a statement of special educational needs Because of its flexibility it can also be used with younger learners It is suitable for pupils who are beginning to study French or who may have some previous experience but would benefit from a fresh start in order to build confidence There are opportunities for listening speaking reading and writing with plenty of activities suitable for pupils who are not good readers writers It can be used to supplement any main course or as a framework for a programme of study How Far is America From Here?

,2005-01-01 How Far is America From Here approaches American nations and cultures from a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective It is very much at the heart of this comparative agenda that America be considered as a hemispheric and global matter It discusses American identities relationally whether the relations under discussion operate within the borders of the United States throughout the Americas and or worldwide The various articles here gathered interrogate the very notion of America which whose America when why now how What is meant by far distance discursive formations ideals and ideologies foundational narratives political conformities aberrations inconsistencies Where is here positionality geographies spatial compressions hegemonic and subaltern loci disciplinary formations reflexes and reflexivities These questions are addressed with regard to the multiple Americas within the USA and the bi continental western hemisphere as part of and beyond inter American cultural relations ethnicities across the national and cultural plurality of America mutual constructions of North and South borderlands issues of migration and diaspora The larger contexts of globalization and America s role within this process are also discussed alongside issues of geographical exploration capital expansion integration transculturalism transnationalism and global flows pre Columbian and contemporary Native American cultures the Atlantic slave trade the environmental crisis U S literature in relation to Canadian or Latin American literature religious conflict both within the Americas and between the Americas and the rest of the world with such issues as American Zionism American exceptionalism and the discourse of on terror and terrorism The Francophone Caribbean Today

Gertrud Aub-Buscher,Beverley Ormerod Noakes,2003 The essays in this volume consider various literary and linguistic aspects of the francophone Caribbean at the beginning of the twenty first century focusing particularly on the French Overseas Departments of Martinique and Guadeloupe and the independent islands of Haiti and Dominica The literary chapters are devoted to new voices in the region and the Caribbean diaspora or to recent works by established authors Contributors offer fresh interpretations of Caribbean literary movements and explore relevant nonliterary issues such as socio political developments which have influenced the writers of today The linguistic chapters examine the dynamics of the respective roles of Creole and the European standard language and consider the present viability of Creole as a literary medium Translating Pain

Madelaine Hron,2010-10-23 In the post Cold War post 9 11 era the immigrant experience has changed dramatically Despite the recent successes of immigrant and world literatures there has been little scholarship on how the hardships of immigration are conveyed in immigrant narratives Translating Pain fills this gap by examining literature from Muslim North Africa the Caribbean and Eastern Europe to reveal the representation of immigrant suffering in fiction Applying immigrant psychology to literary analysis Madelaine Hron examines the ways in which different forms of physical and psychological pain are expressed in a wide variety of texts She juxtaposes post colonial and post communist concerns about immigration and contrasts Muslim world views with those of Caribbean creolit and post Cold War ethics

Demonstrating how pain is translated into literature she explores the ways in which it also shapes narrative culture history and politics A compelling and accessible study Translating Pain is a groundbreaking work of literary and postcolonial studies
