Retreat Hell:

Retreat, Hell! W.E.B. Griffin, 2004-12-28 It is the fall of 1950 The Marines have made a pivotal breakthrough at Inchon but a roller coaster awaits them While Douglas MacArthur chomps at the bit intent on surging across the 38th parallel Brigadier General Fleming Pickering works desperately to mediate the escalating battle between MacArthur and President Harry Truman And somewhere out there his own daredevil pilot son Pick is lost behind enemy lines and may be lost forever

The Farthest Valley Joseph Wheelan, 2024-10-10 A history of the legendary extraction of the Fifth and Seventh Marines from a Chinese trap told for the first time using Chinese sources Knee deep in snow and under a leaden sky American Marines thousands of miles from home watched more snow settle onto the frozen ground glittering in the fading light Suddenly the still Korean night roared to life with the sound of Chinese mortar fire The Fifth and Seventh Marine Regiments were besieged and surrounded by the Chinese 9th Army Group in a surprise attack at Chosin Reservoir in what is now North Korea Vastly outnumbered and outgunned defeat and death seemed guaranteed Their improbable escape after a week of brutal combat required all the Marines fighting skills and supreme combat leadership It has become the stuff of legend and is brilliantly brought to life in this book through first hand accounts by Joseph Wheelan himself the son of a Chosin veteran However The Farthest Valley also uses Chinese military documents to give a unique perspective on Chinese strategic and tactical failings which allowed the Marines to escape Without the Marines the entire United Nations core strength was at risk of collapse which would have changed the outcome of the Korean War This is a compelling history of the Marines incredible tenacity and of woeful combat leadership as the Chinese gambled away their men s lives and ultimately victory
