Revival: The Return of the Primitive (2001) Richard K. Fenn, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 This work presents a sociological theory of religion Richard K Fenn demonstrates that the shape of the sacred depends on what aspects of the psyche and of the environment seem to be beyond the pale of the human and the social that is the primitive Whatever is anti social or subhuman and whatever subverts the reign of convention or whatever defies notions of reason represents the primitive Indeed the primitive represents the range of possibilities that excluded us from any society or social system That is why hell is so often populated by those who are partly bestial or crooked and corrupting If there is to be a renewal of Christian thinking and aspiration in our time it has to come from a rediscovery of the dream not only in the metaphorical sense of a vision perhaps of racial equality but in the quite literal sense of the individual s own reservoir of suppressed and unconscious memories and yearnings magical thinking and wounded or grandiose self imagery The Return of the Primitive Richard K. The Principle of Excellence Nimi

Wariboko, 2009-10-26 This book disturbs the normal and depoliticized meaning of virtue through a genealogical reading of the debates conceptual struggles and ambiguities that were cleansed by virtue ethicists to produce today's conception of excellence This approach provides the narrative raw material to craft a new meaning of excellence as a creative actualization of the potentials for human prosperity The fundamental question asked and addressed about excellence is how communities can use excellence as the organizing principle for political and economic development The author explores how large scale modern societies can be better administered in environments characterized by contingency and possibilities At the very least excellence in societal governance practice should involve the creation of possibilities for community and participation by all its members so that their potentialities can be drawn out for the common good The book also explores the connection between excellence and creativity If excellence is the drive toward actualization of potentialities for all human beings it follows that human creativity is an adequate form for that movement The author not only attempts to trace and clarify the mystique of the creative functions of persons and social groups but also shows how the creative functions of human life can express the unconditional eros of divine creativity In the process of doing all this the author offers a fresh and provocative perspective of philosophy and theology's oldest concerns the good truth beauty justice love hope and the eschatological New Creation

Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko, 2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of im possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa

The Split God Nimi Wariboko, 2018-02-15 Although Pentecostalism is generally considered a conservative movement in The Split God Nimi Wariboko shows that its operative everyday notion of God is a radical one that poses under cover of loyalty a challenge to orthodox Christianity He argues that the image of God that arises out of the everyday practices of Pentecostalism is a split God a deity harboring a radical split that not only destabilizes and prevents God himself from achieving ontological completeness but also conditions and shapes the practices and identities of Pentecostal believers Drawing from the work of Slavoj i ek Jacques Lacan Jean Luc Nancy and Giorgio Agamben among others Wariboko presents a close reading of everyday Pentecostal practices and in doing so uncovers and presents a sophisticated conversation between radical continental philosophy and everyday forms of spirituality By de particularizing Pentecostal studies and Pentecostalism Wariboko broadens our understanding of the intellectual aspects of the global Pentecostal and Charismatic movements      Possession, Power and the New Age Mr Matthew

Wood,2013-05-28 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions      The Pentecostal Principle Nimi Wariboko,2012 This volume brings Pentecostal intuitions to bear on the task of reconceptualizing the process of ethical methodology in a pluralistic world applying a Pentecostal sensibility to the study of social ethics      Possession, Power and the New Age Matthew Wood,2016-04-08 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions

RE-IMAGINING CHURCH Gerald Rose,Philip Hughes,Gary D. Bouma,2014-11 Many church leaders are confused Patterns of ministry which worked so well in the past are no longer effective Churches which grew rapidly have ceased to grow The culture of the Western world has changed At its heart is a change in the nature of authority from tradition and reason to the authority of personal experience This book explores the changes in culture and church life Rev Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association outlines the problem the churches are facing Rev Gary Bouma Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Monash University and an Anglican Priest charts the origins of the problem The large part of the book is the work of Rev Dr Gerald Rose a senior minister in the Churches of Christ in Victoria Australia Through careful observation and detailed interviews of ministers he describes a range of ministry responses to the changing culture He explores not one solution but many the ministry of intentional mission of the charismatic movement of ministry based in relationships and of ministry rooted in classical spirituality This is a book which should be read by church leaders ministers and pastors of all denominations It provides great insight into the nature of contemporary culture and outlines positive pathways for ministry in the Western context      Towards Tragedy/Reclaiming Hope Pink Dandelion,Douglas Gwyn,Rachel Muers,Brian Phillips,2017-03-02 The death of tragedy in the modern era has been proposed and debated in recent years largely in terms of literature and western culture in general Today any catastrophe or misadventure is likely to be labeled a tragedy without any inference of a larger transcendent horizon or providential design that the word once conveyed This book offers new perspectives on the idea of the death of tragedy taking England and the Religious Society of Friends Quakers in particular as a case study Chapters focus on the origins of tragedy in ancient Greece gospel and tragedy the beginnings of the Quaker movement in seventeenth century England apocalyptic versus secularized experiences of time Edwardian Quaker triumphalism the search for English identity in postcolonial Britain liberal Quakerism at the end of the twentieth century and the promise and dilemma of postmodernity The different disciplinary perspectives of the contributing authors bring literature history theology and sociology into a creative and revealing conversation A Foreword by Richard Fenn introduces the book with an original and provocative meditation on tragedy and time      Christ and Human Rights Professor George Newlands,2013-05-28 Human rights is one of the most important geopolitical issues in the modern world Jesus Christ is the centre of Christianity Yet there exists almost no analysis of the significance of Christology for human rights This book focuses on the connections Examination of rights reveals tensions ambiguities and conflicts This book constructs a Christology which centres on a Christ of the vulnerable and the margins It explores the interface between religion law politics and violence East and West North and South The history of the use of sacred texts as texts of terror is examined and theological links to legal and political dimensions explored Criteria are developed for action to make an effective difference to human rights enforcement and resolution between cultures and religions on rights      Christ and Human Rights George Newlands,2017-09-29 Human rights is one of the most important geopolitical issues in the modern world Jesus Christ is the centre of Christianity Yet there exists almost no analysis of the significance of Christology for human rights This book focuses on the connections Examination of rights reveals tensions ambiguities and conflicts This book constructs a Christology which centres on a Christ of the vulnerable and the margins It explores the interface between religion law politics and violence East and West North and South The history of the use of sacred texts as texts of terror is examined and theological links to legal and political dimensions explored Criteria are developed for action to make an effective difference to human rights enforcement and resolution between cultures and religions on rights      Catholics, Conflicts and Choices Angela Coco,2014-09-12 Many Catholics today are disenchanted with the Church s continuing distrust of women and laity But despite this widespread dissatisfaction traditional power relations have hardly changed over the last century Catholics Conflicts and Choices presents detailed interviews with lay people priests Sisters and Christian Brothers each discussing their personal struggles with church teachings and practices The conversations are selected to illustrate different experiences of power relations particularly different aspects of gender dynamics within the organisational structures of the Church The interviews are examined within a framework of feminist sociological and psychological theory Catholics Conflicts and Choices reveals how despite a long history of challenging official notions of authority and obedience and assumptions about intimate relationships there is little potential for change if the established power relations of the Church are not confronted

Lay Presidency at the Eucharist? Nicholas Taylor, 2009-05-21 The demand for allowing lay ministers to preside at the Eucharist has become a pressing issue in many churches not only in Anglicanism Within the Anglican Communion this issue seems to be potentially divisive as most provinces refuse to accept lay presidency but some as the Archdiocese of Sydney are discussing schemes to introduce it In Lay Presidency at the Eucharist an Anglican theological approach to controversial questions is articulated Taylor investigates in particular what allegiance to Scripture entails and how its authority is to be applied in the Church today The evidence of the New Testament and early Church on the Eucharist and ministry and how critical scholarship relates to the authority of Scripture in the life of the Church are explored whilst the Reformation and subsequent developments in Anglican theology and Eucharistic practice are considered Pressure to authorize lay presidency is largely a response to a shortage of clergy to meet demand for Eucharistic worship and alternative provision for this need is discussed before going on to consider specific schemes The theological issues to do with the Church the Eucharist and the ministry are reviewed and outstanding questions identified

A New Science Bruce Mazlish, 2010-11 What makes this book stand out is the way in which Mazlish situates sociology in the broader context of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century social thought This is the most interesting treatment I have read of how there came to be a felt need for sociology of how a place was created in the intellectual firmament for this new science Craig Calhoun University of North Carolina At a time of the breakdown of sociology or at least the virtual loss of the idea of historicity within the discipline this examination of the birth of sociology can provide valuable insight into the current condition no less than the glorious antecedents of a major field of social research A New Science does a great deal to explain how the field of sociology comes to reject connections and celebrate distinctions distinctions of class race nationality and the like And in the extended discussions of Marx Durkheim Toennies who is especially deserving and often ignored in the great chain of European sociological beings and Weber we get a word picture of some genuine substance and innovation Irving Louis Horowitz History of European Ideas Although numerous able interpreters have attempted syntheses of the sociological tradition Mazlish is the first to search so boldly for its ultimate intentions Beginning students will find this a stimulating wittily written introduction to the history of sociology Harry Liebersohn American Historical Review An accessible fascinating erudite and provocative tour de force with a memorable even gripping conclusion It is a must for both college and general libraries Choice      Myth and the Christian Nation Burton L. Mack, 2014-12-18 America is widely regarded as the ultimate Christian Nation Religious language has always been at the forefront of American politics but this has increased since the events of 9 11 Myth and the Christian Nation presents a startling analysis of how and why Christianity and national identity have been woven together in recent American political discourse Drawing on examples of religious myth making across the ancient world Myth and the Christian Nation brings the weight of history to bear on America today a place where myth monotheism sovereignty and power can be harnessed together in the service of specific interests The book invites readers to rethink the role of religion in the construction of social democracy and to see America afresh      French Social Theory Mike Gane, 2003-03-06 This accomplished book provides a peerless account of the French tradition It provides an overview of French social theory divides French social theory into three coherent cycles positivist anthropological and Marxist and situates the discussions of individuals and schools in the relevant social and political contexts
