Return To Essentials Reflections On The Present State Of Historical Study:

Return to Essentials Geoffrey Rudolph Elton, 2002-08-22 This volume contains the text of the three Cook Lectures which review various current doubts and queries concerning the writing of reasonably unbiased history Virtual History and the Bible J.Cheryl Exum, 2021-09-06 To mark the new millennium Virtual History and the Bible asks where we are at the fin de siècle and how we got that way What if important events in ancient history had turned out differently How different might the present century be What if Merneptah's scribes were telling the truth when they claimed Israel has been laid waste What if the exodus and conquest had really happened What if we had no Assyrian account of Sennacherib's third campaign or the palace reliefs depicting his capture of Lachish What if the Chronicler did use the Deuteronomistic History What if Luke had never met Theophilus What if Paul had travelled east rather than west This is not fantasy or fiction The sixteen essays in this volume by eminent historians of the Bible engage in serious scholarly inquiry into alternative historical scenarios and their potential consequences The result is a trenchant demonstration of the ways historians set about working with the evidence in order to reconstruct the past Contributors Keith W Whitlam Lester L Grabbe Susan Ackerman Thomas L Thompson Ernst Axel Knauf Ehud Ben Zvi Diana Edelman Robert P Carroll Niels Peter Lemche Joseph Blenkinsopp A Graeme Auld Philip R Davies Loveday C A Alexander Richard Bauckham John Dominic Crossan Pheme Perkins

Psychoanalysis, Historiography, and Feminist Theory Katherine Kearns, 1997-10-16 In this book Katherine Kearns explores the relationship of history to narrative She combines psychoanalysis with recent feminist theory to reveal the hidden assumptions behind the construction of any historical narrative Her alternative approach one she labels psychohistoriography rejects the notion that certain historical categories are inalienably given By introducing insights derived from psychoanalysis and critical theory Kearns expands our conception of what can legitimately count as historical evidence A Lover's Quarrel with the Past Ranjan Ghosh, 2012 Although not a professional historian the author raises several issues pertinent to the state of history today Qualifying the non historian as an able interventionist in historical studies the author explores the relationship between history and theory within the current epistemological configurations and refigurations He asks how history transcends the obsessive linguistic turn which has been hegemonizing literary discourse analysis and focuses greater attention on historical experience and where history stands in relation to our understanding of ethics religion and the current state of global politics that underlines the manipulation and abuse of history

IRA Intellectual Richard English, 1998 Ernie O Malley 1897-1957 was one of the most talented and colourful of modern Irish republicans An important IRA leader in the 1916-1923 Irish Revolution this bookish gunman subsequently became a distinguished intellectual and the author of two classic autobiographical accounts of the revolutionary period On Another Man's Wound and The Singing Flame His post revolutionary life took on a bohemian flavour Travelling extensively in Europe and America he mixed with a wide range of artistic and literary figures and devoted himself to a variety of writing projects In his IRA career he mixed with revolutionaries such as Michael Collins and Eamon de Valera in his post IRA years his friends included Samuel Beckett Louis MacNeice John Wayne and John Ford This important new thematic biography draws on previously unseen archival sources and introduces O Malley to both scholarly and general readers O Malley's post revolutionary life was as turbulent as his IRA years and illuminates many persistent themes of Irish history ranging from the origins and culture of militant republicanism and the complexities of Anglo Irish relations to the development of intellectual and artistic life in twentieth century Ireland This exciting new biography will be essential reading for anyone seeking to understand the background to modern Irish politics and the past and present role of the IRA

Beyond the Great Story Robert F. Berkhofer, 1995 What legitimate form can history take when faced by the severe challenges issued in recent years by literary rhetorical multiculturalist and feminist theories That is the question considered in this pathbreaking book Robert Berkhofer addresses the essential practical concern of contemporary historians Victorian Jesus Ian Hesketh, 2017-10-03 Ecce Homo A Survey in the Life and Work of Jesus Christ published anonymously in 1865 alarmed some readers and delighted others by its presentation of a humanitarian view of Christ and early Christian history Victorian Jesus explores the relationship between historian J R Seeley and his publisher Alexander Macmillan as they sought to keep Seeley's authorship a secret while also trying to exploit the public interest Ian Hesketh highlights how Ecce Homo's reception encapsulates how Victorians came to terms with rapidly changing religious views in the second half of the nineteenth century Hesketh critically examines Seeley's career and public image and the publication and reception of his controversial work Readers and commentators sought to discover the author's identity in order to uncover the hidden meaning of the book and this engendered a lively debate about the ethics of anonymous publishing In Victorian Jesus Ian Hesketh argues for the centrality of this moment in the history of anonymity in book and periodical publishing throughout the century

The Oxford Handbook of Modern British Political History, 1800-2000 David Brown, Robert Crawford, Gordon Pentland, 2018 The two centuries after 1800 witnessed a series of sweeping changes in the way in which Britain was governed the duties of the state and its role in the wider world Powerful processes from the development of democracy the changing nature of the social contract war and economic dislocation have challenged and at times threatened to overwhelm both governors and governed Such shifts have also presented challenges to the historians who have researched and written about Britain's past politics This Handbook shows the ways in which political historians have responded to these challenges providing a snapshot of a field which has long been at the forefront of conceptual and methodological innovation within historical studies It comprises thirty three thematic essays by leading and emerging scholars in the field Collectively these essays assess and rethink the nature of modern British political history itself and suggest avenues and questions for future research The Oxford Handbook of Modern British Political History thus provides a unique resource for those who wish to understand Britain's political past and a thought provoking long view for those interested in current political challenges

The Rights of

Strangers Georg Cavallar, 2017-07-05 This study investigates the thinking of European authors from Vitoria to Kant about political justice the global community and the rights of strangers as one special form of interaction among individuals of divergent societies political communities and cultures Taking an interdisciplinary approach it covers historical material from a predominantly philosophical perspective interpreting authors who have tackled problems related to the rights of strangers under the heading of international hospitality Their analyses of the civitas maxima or the societas humani generis covered the nature of the global commonwealth Their doctrines of natural law ius naturae were supposed to provide what we nowadays call theories of political justice The focus of the work is on international hospitality as part of the law of nations on its scope and justification It follows the political ideas of Francisco de Vitoria and the Second Scholastic in the 16th century of Alberico Gentili Hugo Grotius Samuel Pufendorf Christian Wolff Emer de Vattel Johann Jacob Moser and Immanuel Kant It draws attention to the international dimension of political thought in Thomas Hobbes John Locke Jean Jacques Rousseau David Hume Adam Smith and others This is predominantly a study in intellectual history which contextualizes ideas but also emphasizes their systematic relevance Global Innovation of Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Prudence C. Layne, Peter Lake, 2014-11-19 This book examines current trends in higher education and the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning It introduces readers to pedagogical strategies that instructors worldwide are using to overcome some of the challenges they face in higher education To maximize their students learning this work argues that institutions are compelled to innovate their policies and instructors must be collaborative and creative in their practices in response to students growing demands needs challenges to their learning and the shifting terrain of a rapidly globalizing world The text explores the idiosyncrasies and challenges that drive innovation across particular cultures disciplines and institutions It suggests that the responses to these drivers offer some universal and compatible lessons that not only optimize teaching and learning but also transgress institutional cultural and disciplinary boundaries in higher education The contributors to this collection work in the United States the United Kingdom Africa Asia Australia Scandinavia and the Middle East They represent a broad range of disciplines fields and institutional types They teach in varied contexts durations delivery modes and formats including online study abroad blended accelerated condensed intensive and mortar and brick settings Their higher education students are equally as diverse in age cultural backgrounds and needs but willingly lend their voices and experiences to their instructors study of teaching and learning in their particular contexts This book harnesses the rich diversities and range our contributors represent and shares the results of their expertise research and assessments of some of the most creative and effective ways to improve student learning in the face of stagnant practices limited resources and other deficiencies that instructors and students face in higher education Personalities, War and Diplomacy T.G. Otte, C. Pagedas, 2014-05-01 Combines essays on the personality dimension in the 19th and 20th century international history placing in a proper historical perspective the impact of individual diplomats politicians and military strategists on foreign policy making

Confronting the Irish Past Séamus Murphy, 2024-09-10 The 1998 Belfast Good Friday Agreement established power sharing arrangements between the two divided communities in Northern Ireland The Agreement is not set in stone but is rather a hopeful yet uncertain project Making it put down deep cultural roots requires some confrontation with and transformation of the history and the socially constructed memories of Ireland's decisive decade 1912-1923 which was violent and divisive Law, Lawyers and Litigants in Early Modern England Michael Lobban, Joanne Begiato, Adrian Green, 2019-06-27 Explores the impact of legal ideas and legal consciousness on early modern English society and culture

Emerging Vectors of Narratology Per Krogh Hansen, John Pier, Philippe Roussin, Wolf Schmid, 2017-08-07 Narratology has been flourishing in recent years thanks to investigations into a broad spectrum of narratives at the same time diversifying its theoretical and disciplinary scope as it has sought to specify the status of narrative within both society and scientific research The diverse endeavors engendered by this situation have brought narrative to the forefront of the social and human sciences and have generated new synergies in the research environment Emerging Vectors of Narratology brings together 27 state of the art contributions by an international panel of authors that provide insight into the wealth of new developments in the field The book consists of two sections Contexts includes articles that reframe and refine such topics as the implied author narrative causation and transmedial forms of narrative it also investigates various historical and cultural aspects of narrative from the narratological perspective Openings expands on these and other questions by addressing the narrative turn cognitive issues narrative complexity and metatheoretical matters The book is intended for narratologists as well as for readers in the social and human sciences for whom narrative has become a crucial matrix of inquiry

Anatomies of the Gospels and Beyond, 2019-01-28 Anatomies of the Gospels and Beyond is an edited volume structured around essays that focus on one of the four canonical Gospels and Acts and/or theoretical issues involved in literary readings of New Testament narrative The volume is intended to honor the legacy of R Alan Culpepper Emeritus Professor and Former Dean at Mercer University's McAfee School of Theology The title of the volume which alludes to the title of Culpepper's ground breaking monograph Anatomy of the Fourth Gospel and the breadth of the essays are apt reflections of his research interests over his academic career of over forty years The twenty five contributors are internationally recognized experts in New Testament studies thus the essays represent a snapshot of current research

Aššur is King! Aššur is King! Steven Winford Holloway, 2002 Through sustained analysis of texts and visual sources this volume traces the checkered career of Neo Assyrian religious interaction with subject polities of Western Asia through both punitive measures and calculated diplomatic patronage Indigenizing the Academy Devon Abbott Mihesuah, Angela Cavender Wilson, 2004-01-01 Native American scholars reflect on issues related to academic study by students drawn from the indigenous peoples of America Topics range from problems of racism and ethnic fraud in academic hiring to how indigenous values and perspectives can be integrated into research methodologies and interpretive theories Who is the

Historian? Nigel A. Raab, 2016-01-01 Who Is the Historian highlights the skill set imparted to those pursuing a historical education and clearly demonstrates the value of the historian in the contemporary world Contesting the Renaissance

William Caferro, 2010-08-24 In this book William Caferro asks if the Renaissance was really a period of progress reason the emergence of the individual and the beginning of modernity An influential investigation into the nature of the European Renaissance Summarizes scholarly debates about the nature of the Renaissance Engages with specific controversies concerning gender identity economics the emergence of the modern state and reason and faith Takes a balanced approach to the many different problems and perspectives that characterize Renaissance studies The Institutional Framework of Russian Serfdom

Tracy Dennison, 2011-04-28 Russian rural history has long been based on a Peasant Myth originating with nineteenth century Romantics and still accepted by many historians today In this book Tracy Dennison shows how Russian society looked from below and finds nothing like the collective redistributive and market averse behaviour often attributed to Russian peasants On the contrary the Russian rural population was as integrated into regional and even national markets as many of its west European counterparts Serfdom was a loose garment that enabled different landlords to shape economic institutions especially property rights in widely diverse ways Highly coercive and backward regimes on some landlords estates existed side by side with surprisingly liberal approximations to a rule of law This book paints a vivid and colourful picture of the everyday reality of rural Russia before the 1861 abolition of serfdom
