Revelation Gods Stamp Of Sovereignty:

Revelation R. H. Gause, 1983 Revelation (THNTC) John Christopher Thomas, Frank D. Macchia, 2016 The book of Revelation is perhaps the most theologically complex and literarily sophisticated text in the New Testament In this commentary John Christopher Thomas and Frank Macchia make the brilliant but challenging text of Revelation more accessible and easier to understand on its own terms rather than as a futuristic prophecy In addition to their literary exegetical and theological analysis of the text they offer sustained theological essays on the book's most significant themes and issues accenting especially the underappreciated place of the Holy Spirit in the theology of the book Pentecostal Theology Wolfgang Vondey, 2017-07-13 Winner of the Pneuma Book Award 2018 from The Society for Pentecostal Studies Pentecostalism is the most rapidly growing branch of Christianity since the 20th century yet it does not lend itself well to a singular doctrine and there is therefore no single comprehensive account of Pentecostal theology worldwide In this volume Wolfgang Vondey suggests an account of Pentecostal theology that is genuine to Pentecostals worldwide while allowing for different adaptation and explication among the various Pentecostal groups He argues that Pentecostal theology is fundamentally concerned with the renewal of the Christian life identified by the transforming work of the Holy Spirit and directed toward the kingdom of God The book unfolds in two main parts illustrating the full gospel story and theology Eleven chapters identify the spiritual underpinnings and motivations for Pentecostal theology formulate a Pentecostal theology of action translate apply and exemplify Pentecostal practices and experiences and integrate Pentecostal theology in the wider Christian tradition Journal of Biblical and Pneumatological Research Paul Elbert, 2010-01-01 Journal of Biblical and Pneumatological Research VOLUME TWO FALL 2010 The Journal of Biblical and Pneumatological Research JBPR is a new international peer reviewed academic serial dedicated to narratively and rhetorically minded exegesis of biblical and related texts Potential topics include theological and pneumatological interpretation the role of spiritual experience with authorial canonical and contemporary contexts and the contextual activity of Ruach Yahweh Ruach Elohim and various identifications of the Holy Spirit JBPR hopes to stimulate new thematic and narrative critical exploration and discovery in both traditional and under explored areas of research CONTENTS Editor's Overview of Volume 2 A KAY FOUNTAIN Canonical Messages in the Book of Esther EMERSON B POWERY The Spirit and Political Dissent Revisiting Mark 13:11 LYLE STORY Zechariah's Two Sons of Oil Zechariah 4 STEPHEN KERRY An Exegetical Analysis of Galatians 3:1-5 with Particular Reference to Pneumatological Themes That Relate to the Onset and Continuation of Christian Identity with Respect to Law and Gospel LEE ROY MARTIN Where are all his wonders The Exodus Motif in the Book of Judges Review of Scott Ellington Risking Truth Reshaping the World through Prayers of Lament Walter Brueggemann Review of Dale B Martin Pedagogy of the Bible An Analysis and Proposal Adrian Hinkle Review of James Robinson Word and Spirit in Ezekiel Wonsuk Ma Review of J Gordon McConville God and Earthly Power An Old Testament Political Theology Genesis Kings Helene Dallaire Review of Rebecca

McQueen, 2019-05-21 Growing out of the need to articulate an eschatology that is consistent with the theological beliefs spiritual experience and hermeneutical insights of the Pentecostal movement this volume applies an interdisciplinary approach to the subject integrating historical biblical and theological studies After providing a comprehensive review of the current state of Pentecostal eschatology the study explores the periodical literature of the earliest years of the movement understanding this period to be the heart or originating source of the tradition Drawing upon insights gained from this exploration the boundaries for discerning a contemporary Pentecostal eschatology are established and a constructive biblical theological contribution to this subject is offered focused upon a fresh reading of Revelation 21 22 and framed around the narrative testimony of the fivefold gospel that emerges from the heart of the tradition Setting in Order T. Jensen,2025-08-07 Setting a church in order is a primary task for the pastor Jensen weaves a tapestry of dialogue with Titus and other ancient and contemporary thinkers to underscore this important but sometimes forgotten role The reader will find in Jensen s work part exegesis part theological history part psychosocial integration part contemporary anecdotes all with the appeal for the church to immerse itself in relationship with God and with others that illustrates the heavenly family God is orchestrating and preparing for the coming of Christ Jensen s vision is a renewal of what life together can look like when we gather in our homes and when we gather in our churches The Mark of the Beast; Coming Soon to a Church Near You Martin Miranda,2016-07-08

Since the book of Revelation was written millions of sincere Christians have shown great interest in knowing the true interpretation of the passage registered in verses 16 to 18 of the 13th chapter of Revelation It is said in that passage that a mark will be placed on the right hand or forehead of the inhabitants of the world Due to erroneous interpretations there are millions of people today that are very worried because they would not be able according to the Scripture to buy or sell unless they submit themselves to the authority inspired and directed by Satan Saved, Delivered, and Healed Tony Richie,2022-08-30

Should a Christian doctrine of salvation be concerned with this life or the life to come With forgiveness of sins or deliverance of sinners With the saving of the soul or the healing of the body Should it focus on the person and work of Jesus Christ or on the presence and power of Holy Spirit To all these questions and more Tony Richie s Saved Delivered and Healed Introducing a Pentecostal Doctrine of Salvation answers Yes Then it proceeds to present from the Scriptures from Pentecostal theology and spirituality and from decades of pastoral and personal experiences and academic insights an energetic and holistic view of salvation grounded in the wisdom goodness and power of God Its constant focus is God s ultimate redemptive purpose in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit for the lives of real human beings living in the real world If you have ever wondered what Christian salvation actually means and how it actually works then this book is for you Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and the Comparative Political Theology Dragos

Stoica,2025-02-15 Sayyid Qutb s Radical Islamism and The Comparative Political Theology argues that Sayyid Qutb s radical critique of secular modernity seen as a product of a great theft of sovereignty that usurps the monopoly of God over the entire world of creation is not idiosyncratic or incoherent but a quintessential expression and an extreme type of a specific tradition of political theology that until now has been exclusively the province of the Western thought Dragos Stoica claims that Sayyid Qutb s political theology of Hakimiyyah God s Sovereignty is better understood by integrating it in a wider context of the antimodern political theology Thus throughout this book he compares Qutb s critique of modernity with the Pakistani Islamist thinker Abu al A la Mawdudi 1903 1979 the Spanish Catholic counter revolutionary political theologian Juan Donoso Cort s 1809 1853 as well as the Protestant political theologians Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Rousas J Rushdoony 1916 2001 This book employs a family resemblance cross cultural comparative method and applies a cross disciplinary analytical model that combines comparative political theology with critical discourse analysis Employing these analytical instruments this book compares Qutb and his counterparts via the category of anti modern political theology more precisely through a set of shared antitheses organized around the master concept of God s Sovereignty The ultimate objective is to augment the understanding of the Qutbian critique of secular modernity as an essential dimension of anti modern political theology Thus by recasting Sayyid Qutb as an essential Muslim political theologian of God s Sovereignty placed within a larger cross cultural paradigm this book contributes as well to the necessary process of decolonization of political theology

The Nature and Demands of the Sovereign Rule of God in the Gospel of Matthew Margaret Hannan, 2006-06-15 This work argues that the author of the Gospel of Matthew structures his work as a Bios or biography of Jesus so as to encapsulate in narrative form the essence of his theological understanding of God s Basileia sovereign rule as proclaimed and taught in the teaching and healing mission of Jesus Evidence for this is found in Matthew s careful use of structural markers to divide his story of Jesus into significant thematic sub sections in which he uses a series of Basileia logia at incisive points to highlight aspects of Jesus teaching and healing mission In this way Matthew is able to portray Jesus as God s promised Messiah who instructs his disciples through discourse and narrative hence in word and example in the nature and demands of God s sovereign rule By structuring his Gospel as a story Matthew depicts Jesus giving instructions to his disciples and also instructs the readers of the text Hence Matthew s Gospel becomes a manual of instruction on the nature and demands of God s sovereignty Its purpose is to ensure that not only the members of the Matthean community but all future disciples of Jesus are competently trained to carry out Jesus commission Go therefore and disciple all the nations 28 19 20 In this way the good news of God s saving presence is proclaimed to all the nations until God s eschatological reign is finally established LNTS 308

Beginnings of Rational Christianity in England Orville Reed, 1905 Theo-Politics? Markus Höfner, 2021-10-25 Using the theological work of Karl Barth as a resource for present day inquiry the contributors in this volume discuss the complex interconnections between the religious and the political designated by the term theo politics Speaking from various political and cultural contexts Germany the United Kingdom the United States Hong Kong Taiwan and the People s Republic of China and different disciplinary perspectives Protestant Theology Political Sciences and Sociology the contributors address contemporary challenges in relating the religious and the political in Western and Asian societies Topics analyzed include the impact of diverse cultural backgrounds on given theo political arrangements theological assessments of political power the political significance of individual and communal Christian existence and the place of Christian communities in civil societies In their nuanced discussions of these topics the contributors neither advocate for a privatized apolitical understanding of the Christian faith nor for a religious politics seeking to overcome modern processes of differentiation and secularization. Critically engaging Barth's theology, they examine the Christian responsibility in and for the political sphere and reflect on the practice of such responsibility in Western and Asian contexts. Revelations of Divine Love Julian (of Norwich), 1877. Revelations Carol Bass, 2018-06-08. Revelations is a result of years of disciplined study of God's Word, a result of intimacy with Jesus, a result of intimate time in the Word from God. The Word in Carol and her in the Word. This devotion is a culmination of years of growth from private time spent daily in God's presence, allowing Jesus the Word made flesh to rule over the evil nature within, thus allowing the Word of God to be King and Lord. His work began in 1989 as Carol poured her heart out quietly journaling and giving expression to her feelings while being alone with the Word. With pen in hand and blank paper waiting, she gained revelation about evils, fleshly nature, within the principalities, powers, and rulers without, and about Jesus the Word Who is the Revealer of all Truth. From the feelings in her heart to the thoughts in her mind to where the pen met the paper, she gained discernment. By expressing her heart in light of the Word of Truth, with the Word of Truth filtering her thoughts and prayers, she discerned her way, aligned her heart and mind with Truth, lived life according to the Truth, and then learned how to pray a right prayer according to the Truth. Church of God Evangel, 2000. The Christian's Fire-Side Library, 1851. Revelation Wilfrid J. Harrington, 2008. Revelation, a prophetic apocalyptic letter, is a profoundly Christian text. Father Harrington is concerned to open up Revelation and to convey its Christian message. After an introduction, he provides a new translation of each section of the writing, followed by notes which deal with matters of text and content that require clarification. He then treats the passage as a whole by discussing its literary character, its theological significance, and its relevance to our situation. Bibliographies direct the reader to important modern studies. Father Harrington brings his scholarship to the Book of Revelation and conveys its Christian message. He puts the work in its historical and social setting, a first-century C.E. province of the Roman Empire, and explores its social and religious background and its literary character. Through Father Harrington, we hear clearly the challenge of John the prophet to the Churches of his time and to ours: not to compromise the gospel message.
