Russian Architecture Trends In Nationali:

Architectures of Russian Identity, 1500 to the Present James Cracraft, Daniel B. Rowland, 2018-08-06 From the royal pew of Ivan the Terrible to Catherine the Great's use of landscape to the struggles between the Orthodox Church and preservationists in post Soviet Yaroslavl across five centuries of Russian history Russian leaders have used architecture to project unity identity and power Church architecture has inspired national cohesion and justified political control while representing the claims of religion in brick wood and stone The architectural vocabulary of the Soviet state celebrated industrialization mechanization and communal life Buildings and landscapes have expressed utopian urges as well as lofty spiritual goals Country houses and memorials have encoded their own messages In Architectures of Russian Identity James Cracraft and Daniel Rowland gather a group of authors from a wide variety of backgrounds including history and architectural history linguistics literary studies geography and political science to survey the political and symbolic meanings of many different kinds of structures Fourteen heavily illustrated chapters demonstrate the remarkable fertility of the theme of architecture broadly defined for a range of fields dealing with Russia and its surrounding territories The authors engage key terms in contemporary historiography identity nationality visual culture and assess the applications of each in Russian contexts

A History of Russian Exposition and Festival Architecture Alla Aronova, Alexander Ortenberg, 2018-10-03 This collection of thirteen vignettes addresses several important episodes in the history of Russian temporary architecture and public art from the royal festivals during the times of Peter the Great up to the recent venues including the Sochi Winter Olympics The forms and the circumstances of their design were drastically different however the projects discussed in the book share a common feature they have been instrumental in the construction of Russia's national identity with its perception of the West simultaneously a foe and a paragon looming high over this process The book offers a history of multidirectional relationships between diplomacy propaganda and architecture

New Perspectives On Russian And Soviet Artistic Culture John O. Norman, 1994-01-07 Russian Architecture and the West Dmitrii Olegovich Shvidkovskii, Shvidkovsky, 2007-01-01 This is the first book to show the development of Russian architecture over the past thousand years as a part of the history of Western architecture Dmitry Shvidkovsky Russia's leading architectural historian departs from the accepted notion that Russian architecture developed independent of outside cultural influences and demonstrates that to the contrary the influence of the West extends back to the tenth century and continues into the present He offers compelling assessments of all the main masterpieces of Russian architecture and frames a radically new architectural history for Russia The book systematically analyzes Russian buildings in relation to developments in European art pointing out where familiar European features are expressed in Russian projects Special attention is directed toward decorations based on Byzantine models the heritage of Italian master builders and carvers the impact of architects and others sent by Elizabeth I the formation of the Russian Imperial Baroque the Enlightenment in Russian art and 19th and 20th century European influences With over 300 specially commissioned photographs of sites throughout Russia and western Europe this magnificent book is both beautiful and groundbreaking

Russian Archaism Irina Shevelenko,2024-08-15 Russian Archaism considers the aesthetic quest of Russian modernism in relation to the nation building ideas that spread in the late imperial period Irina Shevelenko argues that the cultural milieu in Russia where the modernist movement began as an extension of Western trends at the end of the nineteenth century soon became captivated by nationalist indoctrination Members of artistic groups critics and theorists advanced new interpretations of the goals of aesthetic experimentation that would allow them to embed the nation building agenda within the aesthetic one Shevelenko's book focuses on the period from the formation of the World of Art group 1898 through the Great War and encompasses visual arts literature music and performance As Shevelenko shows it was the rejection of the Russian westernized tradition informed by the revival of populist sensibilities across the educated class that played a formative role in the development of Russian modernist agendas particularly after the 1905 revolution Russian Archaism reveals the modernist artistic enterprise as a crucial source of insight into Russia's political and cultural transformation in the early twentieth century and beyond

Nationalism in a Transnational Age Frank Jacob,Carsten Schapkow,2021-11-22 Nationalism was declared to be dead too early A postnational age was announced and liberalism claimed to have been victorious by the end of the Cold War At the same time postnational order was proclaimed in which transnational alliances like the European Union were supposed to become more important in international relations But we witnessed the rise of a strong nationalism during the early 21st century instead and right wing parties are able to gain more and more votes in elections that are often characterized by nationalist agendas This volume shows how nationalist dreams and fears alike determine politics in an age that was supposed to witness a rather peaceful coexistence by those who consider transnational ideas more valuable than national demands It will deal with different case studies to show why and how nationalism made its way back to the common consciousness and which elements stimulated the re-establishment of the aggressive nation state The volume will therefore look at the continuities of empire actual and imagined the role of foreign and otherness for nationalist narratives and try to explain how globalization stimulated the rise of 21st century nationalisms as well

World Fairs and the Global Moulding of National Identities ,2021-11-01 This volume examines the role of the broad variety of international exhibitions between 1851 and 1958 in two programmatic essays and twelve case studies covering not just France and the United States but also among others Sweden Romania Colombia Japan and the nascent European Community World fairs were global platforms for the construction of national identities The mix of national self-profiling and commercial exoticism turned the nation into a brand while reframing the nation state from its nineteenth century positioning amidst neighbouring enemies towards being a competitor in a global consumer oriented trade and entertainment economy By presenting national identities in banal form as feelgood factors world fairs helped the nation to maintain its grassroots appeal across the century of totalitarianism and internationalism Contributors are Joep Leerssen Eric Storm Florian Gro Anthony Swift Cosmin Minea Claire Hendren Taka Oshikiri Robert W Rydell Sven Schuster Miriam Oesterreich Bartosz Dziwanowski Stefa czyk Christina Romlid Jonathan Voges and Anastasia Remes Cultures of Forgery Judith Ryan, Alfred Thomas, 2013-05-13 In Cultures of Forgery leading literary studies and cultural studies scholars examine the double meaning of the word forge to create or to form on the one hand and to make falsely on the other The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1979 Defining Russian Graphic Arts Alla Rosenfeld, 1999 Defining Russian Graphic Arts explores the energy and innovation of Russian graphic arts during the period which began with the explosion of artistic creativity initiated by Serge Diaghilev at the end of the nineteenth century and which ended in the mid 1930s with Stalin s devastating control over the arts This beautifully illustrated book represents the development of Russian graphic arts as a continuum during these forty years and places Suprematism and Constructivism in the context of the other major but lesser known manifestations of early twentieth century Russian art The book includes such diverse categories of graphic arts as lubki popular prints posters and book designs journals music sheets and ephemera It features not only standard types of printed media and related studies and maquettes but also a number of watercolor and gouache costume and stage designs About 100 works borrowed from the National Library of Russia and the Research Museum of the Academy of Fine Arts in St Petersburg Russia many seen here for the first time outside of Russia are featured in this book Additional works have been drawn from the Zimmerli Art Museum The New York Public Library and from other public and private collections Together they provide a rare opportunity to view and learn about a wide variety of artists from the acclaimed to the lesser known This book is a companion volume to an exhibition appearing at the Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum at Rutgers University Russian Architecture of the Soviet Period Андрей Владимирович Иконников, 1988 Reconstruction and Restoration of Architectural Heritage 2021 Sergey Sementsov, Alexander Leontyev, Huerta Santiago, 2021-07-27 Reconstruction and Restoration of Architectural Heritage 2021 presents contributions on various aspects of the study protection and restoration of architectural monuments and on the reconstruction of major historical urban development sites Moreover various complex and problematic aspects of engineering reconstruction of monuments are discussed A wide range of issues is considered in the process of preserving historical heritage including the historical formation of buildings construction and territories the conservation reconstruction and restoration of buildings and constructions the transformation of historical spaces and areas parallels and features in the development of urban planning architecture and construction art in Russia and Spain the fate and work of Augustine Augustinovich Betancourt This collection of papers combines contributions about the history and restoration of many of the largest nature reserves estates cities and monuments It is intended for academics and professionals involved in the history and restoration of nature reserves estates cities and monuments Romanticism in National Context Roy Porter, Mikulas Teich, 1988-05-27 Special emphasis is placed on the interplay between Romantic culture and social political and economic change in this study of the course of Romanticism in various European countries The Illustrated London News ,1927 Identity in Post-Socialist Public Space Bohdan Cherkas, Józef Hernik, 2021-11-29 This book is a comparative analysis of the architecture of central public spaces of capital cities in Central and Eastern Europe during the period of their authoritarian and post authoritarian development It demonstrates that national identity transformations cause structural changes in urban public spaces and theorises identity and national identity within urban planning in order to explain the influence of historical cultural mental social as well as ideological and political conditions on the processes of shaping and perceiving the architecture of public space The book addresses the process of shaping and restructuring historic centres of European capital cities of Kiev Moscow Berlin and Warsaw which developed under authoritarian regime conditions throughout the 20th century and were characterised by ideological determinism and the influence of state ideology and politics on the architecture of public spaces The book will be useful for urban planners architects land management specialists art historians political scientists and readers interested in the theory and history of cities the fundamentals of urban planning and architecture and the planning of cities and public spaces When Art Makes News Katia Dianina, 2012-11-15 From the time the word kultura entered the Russian language in the early nineteenth century Russian arts and letters have thrived on controversy At any given time several versions of culture have coexisted in the Russian public sphere The question of what makes something or someone distinctly Russian was at the core of cultural debates in nineteenth century Russia and continues to preoccupy Russian society to the present day When Art Makes News examines the development of a public discourse on national self representation in nineteenth century Russia as it was styled by the visual arts and popular journalism Katia Dianina tells the story of the missing link between high art and public culture revealing that art became the talk of the nation in the second half of the nineteenth century in the pages of mass circulation press At the heart of Dianina's study is a paradox how did culture become the national idea in a country where few were educated enough to appreciate it Dianina questions the traditional assumptions that culture in tsarist Russia was built primarily from the top down and classical literature alone was responsible for imagining the national community When Art Makes News will appeal to all those interested in Russian culture as well as scholars and students in museum and exhibition studies The Transformation of Russia's Armed Forces Roger N. McDermott, 2016-03-17 At no time since the end of the Cold War has interest been higher in Russian security issues and the role played in this by the modernization of Russia's Armed Forces The continued transformation of its Armed Forces from Cold War legacy towards a modern combat capable force presents many challenges for the Kremlin Moscow's security concerns domestically in the turbulent North Caucasus and internationally linked to the Arab Spring as well as its complex relations with the US and NATO and its role in the aftermath of the Maidan Revolution in Ukraine in 2014 further raises the need to present an informed analytical survey of the country's military past present and future This collection addresses precisely the nature of the challenges facing Russian policymakers as they struggle to rebuild combat capable military to protect Russian interests in the twenty first century This book was based on a special issue of the Journal of Slavic Military Studies

Architectural Conservation and Restoration in Norway and Russia Evgeny Khodakovsky, Siri Lexau, 2017-09-07 Norway and Russia have been closely related through the ages both geographically and historically and have experienced similar problems relating to climate building maintenance and national wooden architecture As a result the parallel study of architectural conservation and restoration theories and practices in both neighbouring Northern states makes for a stimulating collective monograph Architectural Conservation and Restoration in Norway and Russia delves into the main challenges of historic and contemporary architectural preservation practices in the two countries The book consists of three main parts the discovery and preservation of historical architecture in the late nineteenth to early twentieth century contemporary approaches to former restorations and the conservation and maintenance of historical architecture and finally current questions concerning preservation of twentieth century architectural heritage which due to different building technologies and artistic qualities demand revised methods and historical evaluation This is a valuable resource for academics researchers and students in different areas of architecture medieval nineteenth century wooden and contemporary architecture as well as in the fields of art architectural history cultural heritage and Scandinavian and Russian studies
