My Nine Lives Ruth Praver Jhabvala, 2016-04-01

For her first novel in more than nine years Ruth Praver Jhabvala has written a most unusual book in a career of distinctive and unique accomplishments. My Nine Lives is Chapters of a Possible Past as the subtitle declares. It is as the author has commented a book filled with invented memories. Nine vignettes are linked to portray a rich life filled with searching from London to Delhi from Hollywood to New York. Each chapter gathers a different cast of characters, some new and some vaguely familiar, and the linked assembly is as exciting and illuminating as an artist's first show at a Soho gallery or a new play at the Studio Theater. After seventeen books now in her 77th year Ruth Praver Jhabvala takes on as her subject herself the life she may have or may have wished to live.

In constantly searching to complete themselves, they become the perfect fodder for the charismatic Rawul of Dhoka and his sinister Sixth World Movement.

Shards of Memory Ruth Praver Jhabvala, 1995

The saga of an Indian family transplanted to Europe and America. It begins with the great grandfather, a merchant who emigrated to New York and spent his life writing nostalgic poetry on India. A tale of East and West, the nuances of social conventions and the immigrant's sense of detached belonging.

With a mixture of impassioned dialogue and subtle narrative, Jhabvala examines the psychological and cultural forces that wend their paths into inextricable knots of love and conflict.
