Spiritual Building Blocks Marshall Welch,2015-09-26 Spiritual Building Blocks takes the greatest commandment and uses it as the cornerstone in building a spiritual foundation to help notice Gods presence in our everyday lives Part 1 begins by unpacking the greatest commandment into six essential parts God the self our neighbor our head our heart and our hands The opening chapters answer common questions about spirituality and its relationship with religion Part 2 presents a variety of spiritual practices and exercises using our head heart and hands as building blocks to nurture our spiritual lives as we love God the self and our neighbors Some of these practices may be new while others may be familiar but reframed in a new way Personal stories by everyday people illustrate many of these exercises Spiritual Building Blocks was written for individuals or small groups interested in deepening their spiritual lives The Sabbath Recorder ,1906 Relig-ish Rachelle Mee-Chapman,2016-07-26 When it comes to religion choose one is no longer your only option You can be spiritual but not religious or not particularly religious at all yet still have a robust system of beliefs and values that guides you Creating your own set of eclectic spiritual practices is not a sign that you are a faith less person but rather a faith ful person responding with honesty to an increasingly expanding world If faithfully attending church isn t helping you live out your values in everyday ways becoming relig ish may be the answer Rachelle Mee Chapman s new book Relig ish will help you Create a set of spiritual practices that fit into your daily life and honor the things you value most Develop right fit spiritual practices for yourself and your family outside of going to church Shake off harmful religious messages and embrace truths that won't damage yourself or your soul Build bridges towards your religious family members by identifying the common values that are the bedrock beneath your beliefs Discover that your soul is not at risk and you are not lost in your wondering wandering post church world Personal recollections.
