Blessed Connections Judith Schwanz, 2008-01-15 No pastor sets out to fail but statistics say 15 to 20 percent of pastors leave pastoral ministry within the first five years One seminary administrator said that every person he had heard of leaving the ministry had done so because of a relationship failure We cannot escape relationships in ministry yet few seminaries offer courses in how to build healthy relationships The assumption is that the type of person who is called to ministry will have all the people skills they need which sadly is not always true n Blessed Connections seminary professor Judith Schwanz focuses on the person of the minister and the relational system of the minister s life She spotlights three areas of connection relationship with self relationships with other people and relationship with God Attending to these three primary connections will strengthen the pastor and cushion her or him against the pressures and stresses of daily ministry Blessed Connections is ideal for seminary students and new pastors and includes Assessment Journal questions at the end of each chapter for personal application

The articles represent a sampling of the type of teaching provided at Tyndale since its beginnings in 1985 as well as a taste of the ongoing research of some of its members. Wisdom From the Margins William G. Britton, 2018-05-16 Henri Nouwen wisely said, "The great illusion of leadership is to think that man can be led out of the desert by someone who has never been there Jesus has been there and knows how to lead us out but first he just may lead us in He meets us in the desert and does his best work in us there We look for an easier way in vain I myself reluctantly entered the desert and eventually received unimagined gifts there gifts I didn't ask for deserve or want gifts hidden in such painful loss that I despaired and yet looking back now these desert gifts were the best thing that ever happened to me I entered the desert and years later found my way out It's not a new way it was just new to me Jewish and Christian sages had been living it for thousands of years Somehow in recent generations we managed to forget it In this collection I mean to begin to make those riches available to you I'm hoping that like me you'll discover something that you didn't know you wanted or needed and something now you wouldn't give up at any price

Creation and Hope Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Andrew Shepherd, 2018-04-25 We live in an ecological age Science in the last few hundred years has given us a picture of nature as blind to the future and mechanical in its workings even while ecology and physics have made us aware of our interconnectedness and dependency upon the web of life As we witness a possible sixth great mass extinction there is increasing awareness too of the fragility of life on this planet In such a context what is the nature of Christian hope St Paul declares that all of creation will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God How are we to imagine this freedom when death and decay are essential to biological life as we currently experience it and when the scientific predictions for life are bleak at best This book explores these questions reflecting on how our traditions shape our imagination of the future and considering how a theology of hope may sustain Christians engaged in conservation initiatives The essays in this volume are partly in dialogue with the ground breaking work of Celia Deane Drummond and are set in the context of global and local Aotearoa New Zealand ecological challenges Perspectives on the Sabbath Christopher John Donato, 2011-03-15 Four views of the Sabbath commandment Seventh day Fulfillment Christian Sabbath and Lutheran are presented by scholars in point counterpoint style to determine which is most faithful to Scripture
