last fifteen years of Francisco Franco's dictatorship Pérez interrogates the assumption that after 1957 when the Franco regime recast itself in a secular and modernizing fashion religion vanished from the cultural field. Instead Spanish cinema addressed the transformation within Spanish Catholicism following Vatican II and Spain's modernization processes. Confessional Cinema offers the first analysis of a neglected body of Spanish films, nun films, which focus on the active role of religious women in the transformation of Spanish Catholicism. Pérez argues that commercial films, despite being less aesthetically accomplished, delved more than oppositional art house films into the fluctuating zeitgeist of the development years regarding the transformations within Spanish Catholicism. Confessional Cinema offers a provocative and original analysis of the significance of religion not from a theological point of view but rather as a socio-political force and cultural determinant in the Spanish public sphere of this period, known as desarrollismo (development years from 1960-1975).

Contemporary Peruvian Cinema Sarah Barrow, 2018-03-30 WINNER OF A CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE AWARD 2019 The political violence that erupted towards the end of the twentieth century between the Peruvian state and militant group Shining Path left an indelible mark on the country that resonates even today. This study explores representations of the insurgency on screen and asks what these tell us about the relationship between state fiction, cinema and identity in Peru. In the process Sarah Barrow highlights the Peruvian experience as a paradigm for the wider study of film making in societies faced with violence and terrorism. This book provides in-depth analyses of the pivotal films from the 1980s through to the present day that interpret the events, characters and consequences of the bloody conflict. Setting the films in the context of a time of turbulent transition for both Peruvian society and cinema, addressing developments in film policy and production, it reveals the attempts by filmmakers to reflect, shape, define and contest the identity of a fractured population. By interrogating important themes such as memory, trauma and cultural responses to terrorism, chapters explore local perception of nationhood and highlight links to other Latin American cinemas and global issues. Featuring discussions of the work of Francisco Lombardi, Marianne Eyde, Fabrizio Aguilar and Josue Mendez amongst others, this detailed investigation of the growing success and political importance of the industry's output traces the complexities of modern Peruvian history.

El sabor de lo prohibido José Alcántara Almánzar, 1993 The unevenly clustered historical conditions of the Caribbean nations bind us to the revival and redefinition of the ideals of unification begotten by 19th Century Puerto Rican thinkers. Colección Caribena is intended to build connection points that will... Contemporary Directors' Cinema Jacob Leigh, 2024-12-12 Contemporary Directors' Cinema refreshes the argument about the role of the director through the practice of evaluative criticism. The book identifies what makes nine recent films successful achievements by their directors and collaborators. Each chapter gives some context for the director's work but the central argument focuses on the style, form and themes of each film while explicating aspects of point of view and tone. Contemporary Directors' Cinema argues that in each of its nine case studies the director's work is central to the achievement of economy, unity, eloquence, subtlety, depth, vigour.

vividness and intensity By offering critical readings of nine films from mainstream film culture Contemporary Directors Cinema demonstrates that cinema remains vital as a directors medium The films discussed in this book are Pain and Glory 2019 Shoplifters 2018 Parasite 2019 The White Ribbon 2009 Les Chansons d amour 2007 The Bling Ring 2013 The Great Beauty 2013 Leviathan 2014 and Winter Sleep 2014
