Funeral Festivals in America Jacqueline S. Thursby, 2021-11-21 When Evelyn Waugh wrote The Loved One 1948 as a satire of the elaborate preparations and memorialization of the dead taking place in his time he had no way of knowing how technical and extraordinarily creative human funerary practices would become in the ensuing decades In Funeral Festivals in America author Jacqueline S Thursby explores how modern American funerals and their accompanying rituals have evolved into affairs that help the living with the healing process Thursby suggests that there is irony in the festivities surrounding death The typical American response to death often develops into a celebration that reestablishes links or strengthens ties between family members and friends The increasingly important funerary banquet for example honors an often well lived life in order to help survivors accept the change that death brings and to provide healing fellowship At such celebrations and other forms of the traditional wake participants often use humor to add another dimension to expressing both the personality of the deceased and their ties to a particular ethnic heritage In her research and interviews Thursby discovered the paramount importance of food as part of the funeral ritual During times of loss individuals want to be consoled and this is often accomplished through the preparation and consumption of nourishing comforting foods In the Intermountain West Funeral Potatoes a potato cheese casserole has become an expectation at funeral meals Muslim families often bring honey flavored fruits and vegetables to the funeral table for their consoling familiarity and many Mexican Americans continue the tradition of tamale making as a way to bring people together to talk to share memories and to simply enjoy being together Funeral Festivals in America examines rituals for loved ones separated by death frivolities surrounding death funeral foods and feasts post funeral rites and personalized memorials and grave markers Thursby concludes that though Americans come from many different cultural traditions they deal with death in a largely similar approach They emphasize unity and embrace rites that soothe the distress of death as a way to heal and move forward

Raising the Dead Sharon Patricia Holland, 2000-03-29 Through a series of literary and cultural readings argues that African Americans have a special relation to death arising from their death like social marginality

Assisted Death in the Age of Biopolitics and Bioeconomy Anna E. Kubiak, 2020-08-13 This book analyses assisted death in the philosophical context of biopolitics searching for the form of resistance which would not produce bare life and would not exclude marginalized social groups A great deal of the criticism of euthanasia from pro life movements associates this term with the Nazi practice of eugenics and this book considers the inescapability of the Holocaust in this regard while also moving the discussion on assisted death in new directions Understanding Karma Shrinivas Tilak, 2006 Study of theory of Karma with reference to Mah bh rata and works of Paul Ricoeur Consolationscapes in the Face of Loss Christoph Jedan, Avril Maddrell, Eric Venbrux, 2018-10-09 Human beings are grieving animals Consolation or an attempt to assuage grief is an age old response to loss which has various expressions in different cultural contexts Over the past century consolation has dropped off the West s cultural radar The contributions to this volume highlight this neglect of consolation in popular and academic discourses and explore the usefulness of the concept of consolation for analysing spatio temporal constellations Consolationscapes in the Face of Loss brings together scholars from geography philosophy history anthropology and religious studies The chapters use spatial and conceptual mappings of grief and consolation to analyse a range of spaces and phenomena around grief bereavement and remembrance comfort and resilience including battlefield memorials crematoria graveyards and natural burial sites in Europe Authors shift the discussion beyond the Global North by including responses to traumatic grief in post conflict African societies as well as Australian Aboriginal traditions of ritual consolation The book focuses on the relationship between space place and consolation In so doing it offers a new lens for research on death grief and bereavement It offers new insights for students and researchers interrogating contemporary bereavement as well as those interested in meaning making emerging socio cultural practices and their role in personal and collective resilience
