Creative Work and Distributions of Power Michael Hanchett Hanson, 2024-12-10 Creative Work and Distributions of Power is a journey toward an energized and expanded space for considering power in discussions of creative work Starting with the participatory creativity framework this book expertly guides readers through case studies of two very different examples of creative work the 20th century groundbreaking systems theorist Gregory Bateson and the current musician polymath Tyler The Creator Through skillfully interwoven narrative and theory chapters provide readers with a deep understanding of the roles of power in the ways creativity emerges from complex social material and historical systems Thoughtful metalogues featured throughout the book bring readers into the minds of the authors illustrating the very processes being analyzed The result is a model of the functions of creative work in mediating personal capacities and larger societal forces This critical addition to the discourse around creativity and its practice is an ideal first step in understanding creative work and distributions of power for readers in creativity studies as well as sociology and psychology courses

Multiple Intelligences Reconsidered Joe L.

Kincheloe,2004 Twenty years after the publication of Howard Gardner s Frames of Mind The Theory of Multiple Intelligences Joe L Kincheloe and the contributing authors of Multiple Intelligences Reconsidered critique and rethink the theory in new frames of reference Initially drawn to multiple intelligences MI theory because of its self proclaimed challenge to the psychology establishment the authors delineate their disillusionment with its evolution over the last two decades The critiques provided here open exciting new doors to innovation in educational psychology and pedagogy and move the fields in the direction initially promised by MI theory Each intelligence presented by Gardner is examined and critiqued while larger concepts in the theory are identified and assessed

Introduction to Cybersemiotics: A Transdisciplinary Perspective Carlos Vidales,Søren Brier,2021-04-14 This book traces the origins and evolution of cybersemiotics beginning with the integration of semiotics into the theoretical framework of cybernetics and information theory The book opens with chapters that situate the roots of cybersemiotics in Peircean semiotics describe the advent of the Information Age and cybernetics and lay out the proposition that notions of system communication self reference information meaning form autopoiesis and self control are of equal topical interest to semiotics and systems theory Subsequent chapters introduce a cybersemiotic viewpoint on the capacity of arts and other practices for knowing This suggests pathways for developing Practice as Research and practice led research and prompts the reader to view this new configuration in cybersemiotic terms Other contributors discuss cultural and perceptual shifts that lead to interaction with hybrid environments such as Alexa The relationship of storytelling and cybersemiotics is covered at chapter length and another chapter describes an individual collectivity dialectics in which the latter Commind constrains the former interactants but the former fuels the latter The concluding chapter begins with the observation that digital technologies have infiltrated every corner of the metropolis homes workplaces and places of leisure to the extent that cities and bodies have transformed into interconnected interfaces The book challenges the reader to participate in a broader discussion of the potential limitations alternatives and criticisms of cybersemiotics

The Oxford Handbook of Process Philosophy and Organization Studies Jenny Helin, Tor Hernes, Daniel Hjorth, Robin Holt, 2014-05-15 Process approaches to organization studies focus on flow activities and evolution understanding organizations and organizing as processes in the making They stand in contrast to positivist approaches that see organizations and phenomena as fixed static and measurable Process approaches draw on a range of ideas and philosophies The Handbook examines 34 philosophers and social theorists both those commonly linked to process thinking such as Whitehead Bergson and James and those that are not as often addressed from a process perspective such as Dilthey and Tarde Each chapter addresses the background and context of this thinker their work with a focus on the processual elements and the potential contribution to organization and management research For students and scholars in the field of Organization Studies this book is an entry point into the work of philosophical thinkers and social theorists for whom the world is far from being a solid place

Creativity and Advertising Andrew McStay, 2013-06-19 Creativity and Advertising develops novel ways to theorise advertising and creativity Arguing that combinatory accounts of advertising based on representation textualism and reductionism are of limited value Andrew McStay suggests that advertising and creativity are better recognised in terms of the event Drawing on a diverse set of philosophical influences including Scotus Spinoza Vico Kant Schiller James Dewey Schopenhauer Whitehead Bataille Heidegger and Deleuze the book posits a sensational process based transgressive lived and embodied approach to thinking about media aesthetics creativity and our interaction with advertising Elaborating an affective account of creativity McStay assesses creative advertising from Coke Evian Google Sony Uniqlo and Volkswagen among others and articulates the ways in which award winning creative advertising may increasingly be read in terms of co production playfulness ecological conceptions of media improvisation and immersion in fields and processes of corporeal affect Philosophically wide ranging yet grounded in robust understanding of industry practices the book will also be of use to scholars with an interest in aesthetics art design media performance philosophy and those with a general interest in creativity Andrew McStay lectures at Bangor University and is author of Digital Advertising and The Mood of Information A Critique of Online Behavioural Advertising and Deconstructing Privacy the latter forthcoming in 2014 Information

Theory , Perspectives on the Ideas of Gregory Bateson, Ecological Intelligence, and Educational Reforms C. A. Bowers, 2011 It is widely acknowledged that Gregory Bateson's ideas have been influential in a number of fields Unfortunately the importance of his ideas for understanding why public schools and universities continue to perpetuate ecologically unsustainable ways of thinking has not been adequately recognized Given the deepening ecological and economic crises this book is particularly timely as it clarifies how Bateson's five key ideas when taken as a whole provides the conceptual framework for introducing educational reforms that address both problems That is he explains why educators unconsciously continue to perpetuate the deep cultural assumptions that were constituted before there was an awareness of environmental limits and how the emphasis on a possessive form of individualism and endless material progress undermines traditions of self reliance within the world's diversity of communities His contributions to making substantive educational reforms include 1 Rethinking social justice issues in ways that take account of how the ecological crisis impacts the most vulnerable people 2 How to make the transition to exercising ecological intelligence in the areas of democratic decision making and moral values 3 Clarifying how computer mediated learning perpetuates abstract thinking and the deep cultural assumptions that are at the cultural roots of the ecological and economic crises The chapter on pedagogical and curricular decisions that foster ecological intelligence provides practical suggestions for how public school teachers and university professors can begin to make the transition to an ethnically diverse and ecologically sustainable future Comments about the book We need an ecological consciousness which in Gregory Bateson s words is aware of the patterns that connect Chet Bowers leads us into that unmapped territory with a compass which helps Wes Jackson President The Land Institute author of Consulting the Genius of Place and Rooted in the Land Essays on Community and Place Chet Bowers philosophical reflections on Bateson s thought and its implications for education are thought provoking challenging and very inspiring Fritjof Capra author of The Web of Life and The Hidden Connections Learning is a Verb Sherrie Reynolds,2017-05-12 This book explores a new way of thinking about teaching and learning Its central goal is to help us understand how we think and learn it will also help teachers understand children and offers a new and helpful perspective on the role of teaching The book provides an orientation or way of thinking about the psychological dimensions of teaching and learning This orientation is discussed in relation to cultural shifts that have influenced all fields of study in education and psychology the shift is reflected in the works of such scholars as Piaget Vygotsky Bruner and others Their work marks a change from a mechanical view of learning to a view of learning as dynamic transformation In Learning Is a Verb Sherrie Reynolds discusses how thinking about teaching and learning must change so that we can create conditions that help children think and interact with one another in helpful healthy ways Her engaging conversational style together with many examples and observations will lead readers from reflection on their experiences to a deeper understanding of the changes needed in our educational system

Complexity and Dynamics ,2017 neuro-linguistic programming: Liberating Parents Keith Gilbert,2009-12-12 Considered by many to be the most thought provoking and exciting book ever written for parents Liberating Parents shows you how to recognise and free yourself from limitations in your thinking that you have been encouraged to accept throughout your life You can only give what you have When you are free you will relate to children through that freedom For more information you can visit my website at www neurolinguisticparents com If you want to discuss any aspects of the book please join us at the Liberating Parents facebook group at www facebook com group php gid 29761887925 Bitter Shade Michael R. Dove,2021-02-23 A seminal anthropological work on the paradoxical relationship between human consciousness and the environment This book asks an age old question about the relationship between human consciousness and the environment How do we think about our own thoughts and actions How can we transcend the exigencies of daily life How can we achieve sufficient distance from our own everyday realities to think and act more sustainably To address these questions Michael R Dove draws on the results of decades of research in South and Southeast Asia on how local cultures have circumvented the curse of consciousness the paradox that we cannot completely comprehend the ecosystem of which we are part He distills from his ethnographic ecological and historical research three principles perspectivism seeing oneself from outside oneself metamorphosis becoming something that one is not and mimesis copying something that one is not which help a society to transcend the hubris and myopia of everyday existence and achieve greater insight into its ecosystem
