The Concept of Mind in Hindu Tantra Gavin Flood,2024-11-18 This book presents an account of the concept of mind in Hindu Tantra through a study of religious and philosophical texts in the medieval period Offering an understanding on how the mind is conceptualized both as that which keeps a person bound to the cycle of reincarnation and as having transformative potential in allowing a person to achieve liberation or salvation this book examines mostly previously untranslated sources It shows how there are different understandings of the mind that relate to different ideas of redemption The main tantric tradition the aiva Siddh nta adopts a model of mind from Yoga in which the wandering mind keeps us trapped whereas the nondualist aiva tradition sometimes called Kashmir aivism sees the mind as inherently pure and free The book traces a history of the concept of mind from early sources especially Buddhism through to the tantric medieval period and ending with the eighteenth century The author shows how the concept changes and what is retained A comparison of the tantric ideas of mind with those of some European philosophy notably Descartes dualism and German idealism s non dualism sharpens the concept of mind in the tantric tradition A historical and philosophical study of key ideas in the tantric traditions this book will be of interest to researchers in the field of Religious Studies Asian Religion Hindu Studies Indian philosophy and comparative philosophy Catalogue W. Heffer & Sons,1929 Ancient History, Literature and Art Julia Harris Bentley,1897 The Self Possessed Frederick M. Smith,2006-12-05 The Self Possessed is a multifaceted diachronic study reconsidering the very nature of religion in South Asia the culmination of years of intensive research Frederick M Smith proposes that positive oracular or ecstatic possession is the most common form of spiritual expression in India and that it has been linguistically distinguished from negative disease producing possession for thousands of years In South Asia possession has always been broader and more diverse than in the West where it has been almost entirely characterized as demonic At best spirit possession has been regarded as a medically treatable psychological ailment and at worst as a condition that requires exorcism or punishment In South and East Asia ecstatic or oracular possession has been widely practiced throughout history occupying a position of respect in early and recent Hinduism and in certain forms of Buddhism Smith analyzes Indic literature from all ages the earliest Vedic texts the Mahabharata Buddhist Jain Yogic Ayurvedic and Tantric texts Hindu devotional literature Sanskrit drama and narrative literature and more than a hundred ethnographies He identifies several forms of possession including festival initiatory oracular and devotional and demonstrates their multivocality within a wide range of sects and religious identities Possession is common among both men and women and is practiced by members of all social and caste strata Smith theorizes on notions of embodiment disembodiment selfhood personal identity and other key issues through the prism of possession redefining the relationship between Sanskrit and vernacular culture and between elite and popular religion Smith s study is also comparative introducing considerable material from Tibet classical China modern America and elsewhere Brilliant and persuasive The Self Possessed provides careful new translations of rare material and is the most comprehensive study in any language on this subject The Golden Bough James George Frazer,1913 The Golden Bough: The Magic Art and the Evolution of Kings. The King of the Wood James George Frazer,1911 Frazer s series which attempted to define the shared elements of religious belief and scientific thought discussing fertility rites human sacrifice the dying god the scapegoat and many other symbols and practices whose influences had extended into 20th century culture His thesis is that old religions were fertility cults that revolved around the worship and periodic sacrifice of a sacred king Frazer proposed that mankind progresses from magic through religious belief to scientific thought The Vegetarian Philosophy of India Holly Roberts,2006 Roberts journeys through the ancient Hindu Buddhist and Jain sacred writings that have led billions of people in India to live as vegetarians and to recognize the soul of God within each being It leads one into Hindu Buddhist and Jain ancient teachings of karma and rebirth
