Civilization's Quotations Richard Alan Krieger, 2007 These 8 000 clever and insightful sayings organized by theme will enrich the prose of writers public speakers and anyone seeking to lead or persuade It also provides a wealth of inspirational affirmations to guide us in our lives Chinese proverbs Roman maxims and the wisdom of writers from William Penn to Kahlil Gibran cover themes from humility and patience to courage will and action The topics are arranged in a sequence that begins with birth and progresses through the seasons of the Ideal Life When possible each quotation flows into the next one so that the whole section reads almost like a speech given by one person In other sections one quotation plays off another creating a lively discussion amongst the authors A to Z of Dreams and Their Meanings Gordon Cotter,2011-05-05 Synopsis of myself Gordon Cotter Male DOB 11 05 1934 in Birmingham England In September 1939 I and thousands of children was evacuated from inner cities to rural Britain this was to escape the onset of heavy bombing by German Luftwaffe planes As war had been declared on Germany I was sent to a small community in Northern Scotland There was no communication in those days Only things we heard was from the Radio It was put on twice a day The local community was made up of farmers and some of the wives went to the local Landowner as maids and cleaning staff I was 5 years old and it took time for me to be accepted I went to the local schoolhouse three times a week for lessons The rest of the time I was expected to help around the farmyard I began to notice that a lot of women often came to the house and was taken into the parlour sometimes I would sneak into here and watch and listen to the women talking After a while I got braver and just sat in a corner whilst the women were there It began to come to me that these women were telling my Grandma about their dreams When they were finished they gave my granda some eggs or butter Now I understand it was payment As time went on I began to understand more of what granda was saying to these women I became interested in it I still did not know what it was about Years past and when I was about eleven or twelve The was came to an end I had settled into life in Scotland and quite enjoyed the life It was then that I was told about me being an Evacuee and I could return to my original home if I wanted to I did not remember any of it so I said that I wanted to stay Years Later I regretted this action I had become very close to my grandmother during this time and she and I often talked about the dreams and she said that I did seem to have the gift I had by this time began to understand just what she meant by the various talks with these women I was eventually allowed to sit in on the talks and sometimes I was asked for my opinion In later life my granda became poorly and she showed me a lot of her private books that she had written down her musings on all of the subjects within dreams I was asked to take over from her for the readings When she died I was asked if I wanted anything of hers I asked for the books that she had written down her thoughts on the subject I moved back to Birmingham and the books lay in my attic for years In 1972 I came across them and again began to get an interest in the interpretation of dreams I got out granda s books and decided to bring them up to date It has taken my since then to complete them Trickster in the Land of Dreams Zeese Papanikolas,1998-10-01 Zeese Papanikolas forges seemingly disparate events and movements in western history including some of its strangest and most exotic strains into a coherent whole by examining them against the laughter and wisdom of Shoshonean trickster tales Seen against these tales the West becomes both a canvas for the projection of utopian dreams and the site of their shattered remains Papanikolas undertakes a dramatic retelling of Shoshoni creation stories and examines along with other topics the mythologies embedded in the Dream Mine of Mormon folklore the heroic images of cowboys and Wobblies the MX missile the dark side of Oz and the Las Vegas of tourists dam builders and gamblers Among those whose visions are played out against the mirage haunted background of the West are Cabeza de Vaca Winston Churchill Big Bill Haywood and Native American wise man Antelope Jake It is a testament to the power of Papanikolas's conception that he can weave the themes and topics of each chapter into a book that is both eloquent and intellectually stimulating

Famous Lines Robert Andrews, 1997 This scientific detective story is the first book which explains clearly the science used by paleontologists and the new cutting edge techniques that led to the discovery of Seismosaurus the longest dinosaur yet known and possibly the largest land animal to have ever lived Gillette's first person account of the project answers the most frequently asked questions about Seismosaurus How was it discovered How do we know it is a new species How did it die Part catalogue of the workings of paleontological science in the 1990s the book also illustrates the exciting collaboration between Gillette the chemists and physicists who helped to reconstruct Seismosaurus

Three Times Time Jack Matthews, A year before he died Jack Matthews author of 10 story collections and over 30 books was asked to suggest his 3 favorite stories from all his books for this story sampler Amos Smith the Gunsmith reaches into the folk tale tradition to produce a nice allegory about human labor A Woman of Properties is a satirical suburban tale reminiscent of Flannery O'Connor or Cheever about a real estate agent with a grudge The Girl at the Window is an unsettling and mysterious tale about our relationship to the past Also included is an extended interview the author gave about the craft of writing in 2009 During his career as a writer Mr Matthews was distinguished professor of Fiction Writing at Ohio University in Athens Ohio for over 4 decades Winner of Guggenheim and several arts grants Matthews has been anthologized widely translated into several languages and nominated for a National Book Award His own books have been praised by Eudora Welty Anthony Burgess Shirley Ann Grau Tim O'Brien Doris Grumbach Walker Percy and a host of other famous and highly accomplished authors Mr Matthews is a master of prose conversation and deadpan charm He is ironic cool and shrewd and he writes a lucid prose Tom O'Brien New York Times Matthews always graceful prose finds that precise telling detail It's easy to fall in love with such writing Perry Glasser North American Review Engaging wit and irony have been characteristic of Matthews's writing from the start and both are strongly present in his latest gatherings of stories His irony is increasingly darker however and his characters' obsession with memory and its distortions plays a more dominant role in this later work much of which deals with death For the most part these are stories with deceptively simple and ordinary surfaces but they are driven by powerful and ominous undercurrents which often fuse the local and regional with the archetypal Few can do it better Without question Matthews has established himself as one of America's finest storytellers Stanley Lindberg editor Georgia Review
