Invisible Men Donn Rogosin, Monte Irvin,2020-10 On Feb 13 1920 a group of independent black baseball team owners held a meeting at a YMCA in Kansas City Missouri While they couldn t have known at the time that they were about to change the course of American history it was out of that meeting that the Negro National League was born The league flourished throughout the 1920s and beyond becoming the first successful organized professional black baseball league in the country By providing a playing field for African American and Hispanic baseball players to showcase their world class baseball abilities it became a force that provided cohesion and a source of pride in black communities Among them were the legendary pitchers Smokey Joe Williams whose fastball seemed to come off a mountain top Satchel Paige the ageless wonder who pitched for five decades and such hitters as Josh Gibson Buck Leonard and Oscar Charleston whose talents as players may have even been surpassed by their total commitment to their profession and hardiness Leading the leagues were memorable characters like Gus Greenlee of the Pittsburgh Crawfords and Effa Manley of the Newark Eagles Although their games were ignored by white owned newspapers and radio stations black ballplayers and their teams became folk heroes in cities such as Chicago Kansas City Pittsburgh Philadelphia New York and Washington DC where the teams drew large crowds and became major contributors to the local community life with influence extending far beyond the baseball fields This memorable narrative filled with the memories of many surviving Negro League players pulls the veil off these invisible men who were forced into the segregated leagues What emerges is a glorious chapter in African American history and an often overlooked aspect of our American past Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1981 Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1980 British Books in Print ,1979 The Auk ,1907 Blackbird Story John Singe,2020-03-10 It started with a letter from Queensland and abruptly Duncan Ross a placid clerk is plucked from his humdrum life on the Sydney wharves and dispatched on a secret mission to the South Seas where he encounters brutal blackbirders fierce cannibals and unexpectedly a resurgent Ku Klux Klan fixed on recreating the cotton plantations of the Old South in the far reaches of the Pacific From the crystalline lagoons of the Coral Sea to the pearling grounds of the Torres Strait Duncan charts an erratic course betwixt duty and self preservation Kidnapped castaway and desperate he finally pitches up on the raw coast of unknown New Guinea where he is plunged headlong into the midst of unspeakable savagery and danger This is a rollicking saga of adventure and intrigue set against the colonial rivalry of the great powers in the South Pacific I Walked With Heroes Jerry A. Guzzetta,2023-11-20 The 5th Special Forces Group was activated on September 21 1961 On March 3rd 1971 the Group Colors were returned from Vietnam to Ft Bragg North Carolina However during those years one of the smallest units in the Vietnam Conflict had twenty one campaign ribbons and eighteen Medals of Honor Eight of them posthumously This story is about a group of men who did things daily with no thought of recognition or concern for their own safety These young men did things in a war that needed to be done and whose sacrifice went un noticed by the American people for decades and who did not care about a group of men highly trained highly motivated extremely patriotic and knew more about causing the destruction of an enemy than any other soldier in history Even more it is about men who never came home the people who left them behind and the family of traitors who killed so many Americans The damage they did will never be told to the American Public and is only known by a few
