Committee on the Judiciary

Saying What The Law Is:

Saying what the Law is Charles Fried, 2005 In a few thousand words the Constitution sets up the government of the United States and proclaims the basic human and political rights of its people From the interpretation and elaboration of those words in over 500 volumes of Supreme Court cases comes the constitutional law that structures our government and defines our individual relationship to that government This book fills the need for an account of that law free from legal jargon and clear enough to inform the educated layperson yet which does not condescend or slight critical nuance so that its judgments and analyses will engage students practitioners judges and scholars Taking the reader up to and through such controversial recent Supreme Court decisions as the Texas sodomy case and the University of Michigan affirmative action case Charles Fried sets out to make sense of the main topics of constitutional law the nature of doctrine federalism separation of powers freedom of expression religion liberty and equality Fried draws on his knowledge as a teacher and scholar and on his unique experience as a practitioner before the Supreme Court a former Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts and Solicitor General of the United States to offer an evenhanded account not only of the substance of constitutional law but of its texture and underlying themes His book firmly draws the reader into the heart of today's constitutional battles He understands what moves today's Court and that understanding illuminates his analyses

Why Did Jesus Say, "Salvation is of the Jews"? Donald Werner, 2018-09-02 This book is for Jews and Christians Jesus said Salvation is of the Jews John 4:22 and in Revelation 14:12 Jesus tells us that we must keep the commandments of God have the faith of Jesus The Jewish Jesus told us to keep his teachings and he said unless we do we will never see eternal life I will compare the Jewish faith and the Christian faith to see which one best complies with Jesus teachings It will then be evident to you that most Christians are not saved according to Jesus criteria but Biblical Jews are I know that's a bold statement But Jesus said if we don't keep his teachings we are not saved I always thought that salvation was of the Christian faith but Jesus said Salvation is of the Jews now I know what he meant and Christians had better take note before Judgment Day Also read about evangelism Jesus style Jesus parables saving grace Mark of the Beast Seal of God synagogue of Satan why the church today is Laodicea and much more
