Transnationalism and Genealogy Philip Q. Yang, 2020-05-29 Transnationalism and genealogy is an emerging subfield of genealogy which intersects with other fields The last two to three decades have witnessed a significant growth in this subfield especially in the areas of transnationalism and family arrangements transnational marriage transnational adoption transnational parenting and transnational care for elderly parents However large gaps remain especially with regard to the impact of transnationalism on lineage In filling some lacunas in the current literature Transnationalism and Genealogy represents an initial attempt to frame the relationship between transnationalism and genealogy The articles included in this book cover various aspects of transnationalism and genealogy from historical periods until the present with perspectives from anthropology sociology history and African studies The topics stretch from transnationalism and the emancipation of black kinship to the transformation of a Chinese immigrant family from traditional to transnational as well as the impact of this transformation on its family relations and lineage a family history of transnational migration across four nation city states in four generations the role of social media platforms Facebook in particular in facilitating transnational care chains in the Trinidadian diasporic community and a comparison between Chinese immigrants in the United States and Singapore in transnational parenting The introductory essay offers a laconic assessment of the subfield of transnationalism and genealogy

Nations, National Narratives and Communities in the Asia-Pacific Norman Vasu, Yolanda Chin, Kam-yee Law, 2013-09-05 Many states in the Asia Pacific region are not built around a single homogenous people but rather include many large varied different national groups This book explores how states in the region attempt to develop commonality and a nation and the difficulties that arise It discusses the consequences which ensue when competing narratives clash and examines the nature of resistance to dominant narratives which arise It considers the problems in a wide range of countries in the region including Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Hong Kong Korea Australia and New Zealand Contemporary Chinese Diasporas Min Zhou, 2017-09-15 This book focuses on International migration among the Chinese long before European colonists set foot on the Asian continent Long before European colonists set foot on the Asian continent the Chinese moved across sea and land seasonally or permanently to other parts of Asia and the rest of the world to pursue economic opportunities and alternative means of livelihood This volume addresses the new Chinese diasporas around the world offering a snapshot of the cosmopolitan and shifting nature of Chinese population dynamics from the perspectives of anthropologists sociologists and scholars of international studies 50 Years Of The Chinese Community In Singapore Cheng Lian Pang, 2015-10-23 Singapore's success story is essentially a people story Singaporeans have good reason to celebrate the nation's golden jubilee with pride In the short space of five decades the country has moved from Third World to First and its real GDP has grown by 40 times For this phenomenal progress credit must go to its people the Republic's primary resource Against all odds and amidst dire predictions Singaporeans proved that a united and resourceful community could build a nation from scratch This book is dedicated to one segment of these Singaporeans the Chinese community In particular this collection of essays focuses on the Chinese speaking members of the community whose many contributions are less familiar to those brought up on a strict diet of the English language This celebratory book is divided into four broad categories The first section examines the major Chinese organisations and their contributions in the past five decades These include the Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce Industry the Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Associations the Chinese Development Assistance Council and the Chinese Heritage Centre In addition it looks at the history and work of some of the social clubs and charitable organisations in the Chinese community The second section examines some community issues that have engaged the Chinese community in Singapore s first 50 years Two senior journalists and two academics review the evolution of the Chinese language the integration of new immigrants from China and the influence of Chinese religions The five essays in the third section trace the development of Chinese visual and performing art in the Republic The last section looks at the interactions between Singapore s Chinese community and China on the one hand and with the regional Chinese communities on the other The contributors of this salute to the Chinese community are have been directly involved or are passionate about the subjects of their essays Chinese Organisations Singapore Chinese Chamber of Commerce Industry Inextricably Linked to Singapore s Economic Miracle Fiona HU Ai Lan Singapore Federation of Chinese Clan Associations Revitalising Clan Associations PANG Cheng Lian The Chinese Development Assistance Council An Enriching Journey with a Self Help Group Gerald SINGHAM The Chinese Heritage Centre Putting Singapore on the Diaspora Map LEE Tang Ling Chinese Philanthropy Past and Present CHEW Kheng Chuan Chinese Social Clubs AU Yue Pak Community Issues The Evolution of the Chinese Language LEONG Weng Kam New Immigrants from China Boosting Bilateral Relations ZHOU Zhaocheng Chinese Religious Traditions in Singapore Buddhism Taoism and Christianity HUE Guan Theye and Kenneth DEAN Chinese Visual Performing Arts Towards a Nanyang Culture CHOO Thiam Siew The Transformation of Chinese Visual Arts in Nanyang Bridget Tracy TAN Chinese Calligraphy is Alive and Well in Singapore WONG Joon Tai The Singapore Chinese Music Soundscape Terence HO In Step with Nanyang Dance Edmond WONG Interactions with Other Chinese Communities Singapore China People to People Exchanges A Singapore Perspective LYE Liang Fook and John WONG Singapore as a Centre of Southeast Asian Chinese Some Reflections Leo SURYADINATA

International Handbook of Rural Demography László J. Kulcsár,Katherine J. Curtis,2011-12-15 This is the third in an essential series of Springer handbooks that explore key aspects of the nexus between demography and social science With an inclusive international perspective and founded on the principles of social demography this handbook shows how the rural population which recently dropped below 50 per cent of the world total remains a vital segment of society living in proximity to much needed developmental and amenity resources The rich diversity of rural areas shapes the capacity of resident communities to address far reaching social environmental and economic challenges Some will survive become sustainable and even thrive while others will suffer rapid depopulation This handbook demonstrates how these future development trajectories will vary according to local characteristics including but not limited to population composition The growing complexity of rural society is in part a product of significant international variations in population trends making this comparative and comprehensive study of rural demography all the more relevant Collating the latest research on international rural demography the handbook will be an invaluable aid to policy makers as they try to understand how demographic dynamics depend on the economic social and environmental characteristics of rural areas It will also aid researchers assessing the unique factors at play in the rural context and endeavoring to produce meaningful results that will advance policy and scholarship Finally the handbook is an ideal text for graduate students in a spread of disciplines from sociology to international development

Singapore Garry Rodan,2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 A collection of valuable previously published essays analyzing the major social dynamics shaping the increasingly complex society economy and polity of contemporary Singapore Topics range from ideology and culture to the character of the state and its institutions and the possibilities for political reform      Social Capital in Singapore Vincent Chua, Gillian Koh, Ern Ser Tan, Drew Shih, 2020-12-27 How can social cohesion be achieved in a meritocratic and multicultural global city state Meritocracy poses a paradox On one hand it integrates individuals through frameworks of equal treatment equal justice and opportunity regardless of race language or religion On the other hand individuals are then segregating through academic sorting they are rewarded based on credentials and performance which also results in elite identification and bonding After a generation without mitigation action social stratification can result Distinctive circles differentiating social elites from non elites the professional classes from non professional classes emerge The remedy the authors propose is network diversity which is the organic forming of ties across class and other social boundaries built on deliberate policies programmes and platforms designed to facilitate that This social mixing forged in social infrastructure such as schools workplaces and voluntary associations pays off by producing the collective goods of national identity and trust This hypothesis has been tested in the case of Singapore society and the empirical results from the research on the power of network diversity and bridging social capital are found in this volume An insightful read for scholars and practitioners in public policy and social network analysis looking to understand the challenges faced by and the experiences that have emerged from the case of Singapore with its multicultural and cosmopolitan setting      Handbook of the International Political Economy of the Corporation Andreas Nölke, Christian May, 2018-09-28 Over the past few decades corporations have been neglected in studies of international political economy IPE Seeking to demystify them what they are how they behave and their goals and constraints this Handbook introduces the corporation as a unit of analysis for students of IPE Providing critical discussion of their global and domestic power and highlighting the ways in which corporations interact with each other and with their socio political environment this Handbook presents a thorough and up to date overview of the main debates around the role of corporations in the global political economy      Global Japan Roger Goodman, Ceri Peach, Ayumi Takenaka, Paul White, 2003 This book examines the context of immigration to and emigration from Japan and assesses the consequences of all this for Japanese people's view of themselves as a nation      Social Capital Nan Lin, 2002-05-20 1 Theories of Capital The Historical Foundation 3 2 Social Capital Capital Captured through Social Relations 19 3 Resources Hierarchy Networks and Homophily The Structural Foundation 29 4 Resources Motivations and Interactions The Action Foundation 41 5 The Theory and Theoretical Propositions 55 6 Social Capital and Status Attainment A Research Tradition 78 7 Inequality in Social Capital A Research Agenda 99 8 Social Capital and the Emergence of Social Structure A Theory of Rational Choice 127 9 Reputation and Social Capital The Rational Basis for Social Exchange 143 10 Social Capital in Hierarchical Structures 165 11 Institutions Networks and Capital Building Societal Transformations 184 12 Cybernetworks and the Global Village The Rise of Social Capital 210 13 The Future of the Theory 243 References 251 Index 267      Criminal Legalities and Minorities in the Global South George B. Radics, Pablo Ciocchini, 2023-01-24 This book explores how the law and the institutions of the criminal justice system expose minorities to different types of violence either directly through discrimination and harassment or indirectly by creating the conditions that make them vulnerable to violence from other groups of society It draws on empirical insights across a broad array of communities and locales including Afghanistan Colombia Pakistan India Malawi Turkey Brazil Singapore Puerto Rico and the Philippines It examines the challenges of protecting those at the margins of power especially those whom the law is often used to oppress The chapters explore intersecting marginal identities influenced by four factors rebuilding after violent regimes economic interest behind the violence entrenched cultural biases and criminalisation of diversity It provides scholars from the Global North with important lessons when attempting to impose their own solutions onto nations with a different history and context or when applying their own laws to migrants from the Global South nations explored in this book It speaks to legal and social science scholars in the fields of law sociology criminology and social work

Routledge Handbook of International Organization Bob Reinalda, 2013-06-07 This Handbook brings together scholars whose essays discuss significant issues with regard to international organization as a process and international organizations as institutions Although the focus is on intergovernmental organizations IGOs non governmental organizations NGOs are discussed where relevant The handbook is divided into six parts Documentation Data Sets and Sources International Secretariats as Bureaucracies Actors within International Bureaucracies Processes within International Bureaucracies Challenges to International Organizations and Expanding International Architectures The state of the art articles are meant to encourage current and future generations of scholars to enjoy working in and further exploiting the field and are also of great interest to practitioners of international organization and global governance
