Silent China Selected Writings Of Lu Xun:

Silent China; Selected Writings of Lu Xun Xun Lu, 1973 Reconstructing Twentieth-century China Kjeld Erik Brødsgaard, David Strand, 1998 This text argues that the underlying theme of China's development trajectory in the 20th century is reconstruction Contributors examine how movements and transitions have affected China at regular periods during this century Lu Hsun's Vision of Reality William A Jr Lyell, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1976 Women in Republican China: A Sourcebook Hua R. Lan, Vanessa L. Fong, 2015-08-12 Exploring one of the most dynamic and contested regions of the world this series includes works on political economic cultural and social changes in modern and contemporary Asia and the Pacific Transnational Chinese Cinemas Sheldon H. Lu, 1997-10-01 Zhang Yimou's first film Red Sorghum took the Golden Bear Award in 1988 at the Berlin International Film Festival Since then Chinese films have continued to arrest worldwide attention and capture major film awards winning an international following that continues to grow Transnational Chinese Cinemas spans nearly the entire length of twentieth century Chinese film history The volume traces the evolution of Chinese national cinema and demonstrates that gender identity has been central to its formation Femininity masculinity and sexuality have been an integral part of the filmic discourses of modernity nationhood and history This volume represents the most comprehensive wide ranging and up to date study of China's major cinematic traditions It is an indispensable source book for modern Chinese and Asian history politics literature and culture Philosophy in Multiple Voices George Yancy, 2007 The scope of Philosophy in Multiple Voices provides the reader with eight philosophical streams of thought African American Afro Caribbean Asian American Feminist Latin American Lesbian Native American and Queer that introduce readers to alternative complex philosophical questions concerning gendered sexed racial and ethnic identities canon formation and meta philosophy The overriding theme of the text is that philosophy is pluralistic in voice rich in diversity and ought to valorize democratic intellectual spaces of philosophical engagement Reading China [electronic resource] Daria Berg, 2007 This volume develops a new style of reading Chinese sources as pioneered in Chinese Studies by Professor Glen Dudbridge providing fascinating new insights into Chinese literature history and popular culture The analysis of self fashioning representation and political propaganda sheds new light on Chinese perceptions of the world China in the Mix Ying Xiao, 2017-08-09 Scarce attention has been paid to the dimension of sound and its essential role in constructing image culture and identity in Chinese film and media China in the Mix fills a critical void with the first book on the sound languages scenery media and culture in post Socialist China In this study Ying Xiao explores fascinating topics including appropriations of popular folklore in the Chinese new wave of the 1980s Chinese rock n roll and youth cinema in fin de siècle

China the political economic impact of free market imperatives and Hollywood pictures on Chinese film industry and filmmaking in the late twentieth century the reception and adaptation of hip hop and the emerging role of Internet popular culture and social media in the early twenty first century Xiao examines the articulations and representations of mass culture and everyday life concentrating on their aural oral manifestations in contemporary Chinese cinema and in a wide spectrum of media and cultural productions China in the Mix offers the first comprehensive investigation of Chinese film expressions and culture from a unique cohesive acoustic angle and through the prism of global media cultural exchange It shows how the complex evolving uses of sound popular music voice over silence noise and audio mixing in film and media reflect and engage the important cultural and socio historical shifts in contemporary China and in the increasingly networked world Xiao offers an innovative new conception of Chinese film and media and their audiovisual registers in the historiographical frame of China amid the global landscape

Chinese Women in a Century of Revolution, 1850-1950 Kazuko Ono, 1989 Spanning the century from the Taiping Rebellion through the establishment of the People's Republic of China this is the first comprehensive history of women in modern China Its scope is broad encompassing political economic military and cultural history and drawing upon Chinese and Japanese sources untapped by Western scholars The book presents new information on a wide range of topics the impact of Western ideas on women especially in education the importance of women in the labor force the relative independence enjoyed by some women textile workers the struggle against footbinding the influence of anarchism the participation of a women's brigade in the Revolution of 1911 the role of women in the May Fourth Movement the differences between the more assertive women of South China and the traditional women of the North in organizing for political action the involvement of peasant women in insurgency and anti Japanese struggles in the countryside and the effects of the Marriage Law of 1950 The author has contributed a new preface to this English edition and Joshua A Fogel and Susan Mann have written an introduction that places the book in the context of studies of Chinese women Japanese sinology and women's history in general The book has extensive notes a bibliography and as an appendix a chronology of the history of women in modern China

The YWCA in China Elizabeth A. Littell-Lamb, 2023-11-15 The YWCA arrived in China as a cultural interloper in 1899 How did activist Christian Chinese women maintain their identity and social relevance through the tumultuous first half of the twentieth century The YWCA in China explores how the Young Women's Christian Association responded to the needs of Chinese women and society both before and after the 1949 revolution ushered in a communist state Western secretaries originally defined the Chinese YWCA movement but successive generations of Chinese leadership localized its Western defined organizational ethos Over time the Y became class conscious and progressive as Chinese women transformed it from a vehicle for moral and material uplift to an instrument for social action and an organizational citizen of China And after 1949 national YWCA leaders supported the Maoist regime because they believed the social goals of the YWCA aligned with Mao's revolutionary aims The YWCA in China is a fascinating investigation of the lives thinking and action of women whose varied forms of Christian and Chinese identity were buffeted by historical events that moulded their social philosophies
