

The illustration depicts a large, white, fluffy chicken with a prominent red comb and wattle, standing in the center of a dusty village square. The chicken is facing left, with its wings slightly spread. In the background, a crowd of people in traditional Middle Eastern or North African attire, including turbans and long robes, are gathered around the chicken, looking at it with expressions of surprise and curiosity. The setting includes a building with arched windows on the left and snow-capped mountains in the distance under a clear blue sky.
