Silver From The Collection Of The Birmingham Museum Of Art Birmingham Alabama:

Silver from the Collection of the Birmingham Museum of Art, Birmingham, Alabama Birmingham Museum of Art (Birmingham, Ala.),1982 Silver from the Collection of the Birmingham Museum of Art, Birmingham, Alabama ,1982 Silver from the Collection of the Birmingham Museum of Art ,1982 English, Irish, & Scottish Silver at the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute,Beth Carver Wees,1997 In this stunning catalog Wees curator of decorative arts at the Clark Art Institute shares her extensive knowledge of silver Robert Sterling Clark who established the Art Institute in 1955 preferred Huguenot silver especially that of Paul de Lamerie so his collection which contains typical objects from the early 16th to the mid 20th centuries is especially rich in 18th century examples Wees arranges this collection according to general function Dining Lighting etc and prefaces each chapter with exhaustively footnoted essays She accompanies each item with crisp black and white photographs a wealth of description and helpful commentary Analogous to Kathryn Buhler s standard catalog of American silver in Boston s Museum of Fine Arts this is a wonderful tool for researching makers and hallmarks comparing stylistic elements or just marveling at the beauty of an extraordinary collection While not intended to be a historical compendium this informative visual feast belongs in all silver reference collections and will also certainly appeal to individual collectors 19 colour 1 222 b w illustrations Annual Report National Endowment for the Arts,1982 Reports for 1980 19 also include the Annual report of the National Council on the Arts Silver in England Philippa Glanville,2013-11-05 First Published in 2005 Silver is unique among the decorative arts in that its raw material is both inherently valuable and infinitely reusable Its ownership has been a social bench mark and its form has exercised the skills of sculptors designers chasers and engravers but ultimately it could be and normally was melted down and refashioned quite without sentiment Because of this constant recycling the survival of any individual object is quite random and unrelated to its uniqueness or otherwise in its period Hitherto plate historians have focused on individual objects almost to the exclusion of the context social or economic from which they came but now that context is seen as crucial in understanding historic plate So in the first section of this book each chapter considers contemporary attitudes and usage Alabama Creates Elliot A. Knight,2019-07-02 A visually rich survey of two hundred years of Alabama fine arts and artists Alabama artists have been an integral part of the story of the state reflecting a wide ranging and multihued sense of place through images of the land and its people Quilts pottery visionary paintings sculpture photography folk art and abstract art have all contributed to diverse visions of Alabama s culture and environment The works of art included in this volume have all emerged from a distinctive milieu that has nourished the creation of powerful visual expressions statements that are both universal and indigenous Published to coincide with the state s bicentennial Alabama Creates 200 Years of Art and Artists features ninety four of Alabama s most accomplished noteworthy and influential practitioners of the fine arts from 1819 to the present The book highlights a broad spectrum of artists who worked in the state from its early days to its current and contemporary scene exhibiting the full scope and breadth of Alabama art This retrospective volume features biographical sketches and representative examples of each artist s most masterful works Alabamians like Gay Burke William Christenberry Roger Brown Thornton Dial Frank Fleming the Gee s Bend Quilters Lonnie Holley Dale Kennington Charlie Lucas Kerry James Marshall David Parrish and Bill Traylor are compared and considered with other nationally significant artists Alabama Creates is divided into four historical periods each spanning roughly fifty years and introduced by editor Elliot A Knight Knight contextualizes each era with information about the development of Alabama art museums and institutions and the evolution of college and university art departments The book also contains an overview of the state s artistic heritage by Gail C Andrews director emerita of the Birmingham Museum of Art Alabama Creates conveys in a sweeping and captivating way the depth of talent the range of creativity and the lasting contributions these artists have made to Alabama s extraordinarily rich visual and artistic heritage Alabama Library Book Carole Marsh,1994

Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington,2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hugu s collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hugu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one's life, one's emotions, one's experiences on a canvas of one's own making. The Art Museum as Educator Council on Museums and Education in the Visual Arts, Barbara Y. Newsom, Adele Z. Silver, 1978
