Bubandt, Martijn Van Beek, 2012-03-12 Varieties of Secularism is an ethnographically rich theoretically well informed and intellectually coherent volume which builds off the work of Talal Asad Charles Taylor and others who have engaged the issue of secularism s and in socio political life The volume seeks to examine theories of secularism secularity and examine concrete ethnographic cases in order to further the theoretical discussion Whereas Taylor s magisterial work draws up the conditions and problems of a belief in God in Western modernity it leaves unexplored the challenges posed by the spiritual in modernity outside of the North Atlantic rim This anthology seeks to begin that task It does so by suggesting that the kind of secularity described by Taylor is only one amongst others By attending to the shifting relationship between proper religion and bad faiths between politically valorised and embarrassing spiritual phenomena between the new visibilities and silences of magic ancestors and religion in democratic politics this book seeks to outline the particular formations of secularism that have become possible in Asia from China to Indonesia and from Bahrain to Timor Leste This book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian religion politics and anthropology Journal of the Royal Central Asian Society Royal Central Asian Society, 1926 List of members in v 1 9

Ancient Futures Helena Norberg-Hodge, 2017-04-27 A moving portrait of tradition and change in Ladakh or Little Tibet Ancient Futures is also a scathing critique of the global economy and a rallying call for economic localization When Helena Norberg Hodge first visited Ladakh in 1975 she found a pristine environment a self reliant economy and a people who exhibited a remarkable joie de vivre But then came a tidal wave of economic growth and development Over the last four decades this remote Himalayan land has been transformed by outside markets and Western notions of progress As a direct result a whole range of problems from polluted air and water to unemployment religious conflict eating disorders and youth suicide have appeared for the first time Yet this is far from a story of despair Social and environmental breakdown Norberg Hodge argues are neither inevitable nor evolutionary but the products of political and economic decisions and those decisions can be changed In a new Preface she presents a kaleidoscope of projects around the world that are pointing the way for both human and ecological well being These initiatives are the manifestation of a rapidly growing localization movement which works to rebuild place based cultures strengthening community and our connection with nature Ancient Futures challenges us to redefine what a healthy economy means and to find ways to carry centuries old wisdom into our future The book and a related film by the same title have between them been translated into more than 40 languages All Kinds of Magic Piers Moore Ede, 2010-04-19 A personal search for the mystical and miraculous from the acclaimed author of Honey and Dust So sincere and carefully told that the result cannot help but move Financial Times Terrific Unpretentious often funny but also powerfully expressive of experiences beyond

Fewkes,2008-10-27 This book provides an ethno historical study of the trade system in Ladakh India a busy entrep t for Silk Route trade between Central and South Asia Previously a part of global networks Ladakh became an isolated border area as national boundaries were defined and enforced in the mid 20th century As trade with Central Asia ended social life in Ladakh was irrevocably altered The author s research combines anthropological historical and archaeological methods of investigation using data from primary documents ethnographic interviews and participation observation fieldwork The result is a cultural history of South and Central Asia detailing the social lives of historical Ladakhi traders and identifying their community as a cosmopolitan social group The relationship between the historical narratives and the modern ethnographic context illustrates how social issues in modern communities are related to those of the past It is demonstrated that this relationship depends on both memories narratives about the past constructed within present social contexts and legacies ways in which the past continues to shape present social interactions This book will be of particular interest to anthropologists historians and specialists in South and Central Asian studies as well as those interested in historical archaeology science sociology political science and economics Arts in the Margins of World Encounters Willemijn de Jong,Eriko Aoki,John Clammer,2021-09-07 Arts in the Margins of World Encounters presents original contributions that deal with artworks of differently marginalized people such as ethnic minorities refugees immigrants disabled people and descendants of slaves a wide variety of art forms like clay figures textile paintings poems museum exhibits and theatre performances and original data based on committed long term fieldwork and or archival research in Brazil Martinique Rwanda India Indonesia Japan Australia and New Zealand The volume develops theoretical approaches inspired by innovative theorists and is based on currently debated analytical categories including the ethnographic turn in contemporary art polycentric aesthetics and aesthetic cannibalization among others This collection also incorporates fascinating and intriguing contemporary cases but with solid theoretical arguments and grounds Arts in the Margins of World Encounters will appeal to students at all levels scholars and practitioners in arts aesthetics anthropology social inequality and discrimination as well as researchers in other fields including post colonialism and cultural organizations The Spectator ,1913 The Geographical Journal ,1928
