Mann's Magic Mountain Karolina Watroba, 2022-09-08 This is the first study of Thomas Mann's landmark German modernist novel Der Zauberberg The Magic Mountain 1924 that takes as its starting point the interest in Mann's book shown by non-academic readers. It is also a case study in a cluster of issues central to the interrelated fields of transnational German studies, global modernism studies, comparative literature, and reception theory; it addresses the global circulation of German modernism, popular afterlives of a canonical work, access to cultural participation, relationship between so-called high brow and low brow culture, and the limitations of traditional academic reading practices. The study intervenes in these discussions by developing a critical practice termed closer reading and positioning it within the framework of world literature studies. Mann's Magic Mountain centres around nine comparative readings of five novels, three films, and one short story conceived as responses to The Magic Mountain. These works provide access to distinct readings of Mann's text on three levels: they function as records of their authors' reading of Mann, provide insights into broader culturally and historically specific interpretations of the novel, and feature portrayals of fictional readers of The Magic Mountain. These nine case studies are contextualized, complemented, enhanced, and expanded through references to hundreds of other diverse sources that testify to a lively engagement with The Magic Mountain outside of academic scholarship, including journalistic reviews, discussions on internet fora and blogs, personal essays and memoirs, Mann's fan mail and his replies to it, publishing advertisements, and marketing brochures from Davos where the novel is set. The Magic Mountain Thomas Mann, 2025-09-07T22:50:38Z

Hans Castorp is a young man ready to start a career in shipbuilding but before he does he decides to visit his cousin Joachim, a patient residing at a tuberculosis sanatorium in the mountains of Switzerland. Castorp enjoys meeting and chatting with the wide array of colorful personalities living at the sanatorium until its director delivers some bad news: Castorp too has symptoms of disease and must remain at the sanatorium indefinitely. Thus begins a black comedy spanning years in which he lives and learns in this self-contained world in the mountains. The Magic Mountain is a Bildungsroman and an allegory of the years surrounding World War I in which Castorp, a naive blank slate symbolizing the Weimar Republic, spends time with the motley crew in the sanatorium who each represent the nations and ideologies of Europe vying for his attention. World War I broke out and concluded as Mann was writing the novel; at first he was opposed to the Weimar Republic but he later changed his mind, and this development in his personal philosophy is reflected in how Castorp and the patients interact over the years and in Castorp's ultimate fate. Adding to the novel's staying power are its many layers of allegory and allusion, including Greek mythology, European fable, music, opera, and theater literature, mysticism, numerology, medicine, and philosophy. Above these layers is Mann's overarching message of illness and death as necessary struggles to overcome before reaching a fulfilled life, a theme from his earlier novella Death in Venice that he explicitly wished to revisit and expand upon.
