Maid To Order In Hong Kong:

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 1997 The forms of discipline range from physical abuse to intrusive regulations including restrictions on hair length and the prohibition of lipstick

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 2007 In this update of her 1997 ethnography the author traces changes that have taken place in the service sector of Hong Kong's workforce since its reunification with mainland China in that year Argues that though the influx of foreign domestic workers has risen dramatically and they are somewhat more politically active the abuse lay offs and other challenges of these mostly Indonesian and Filipina women's daily lives in a globalized economy remain much the same as they relate in their own words

An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the social sciences However as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration

Multinational Maids Anju Mary Paul, 2017-09-28 Multinational Maids offers an in depth investigation into the international migrations of Filipino and Indonesian migrant domestic workers The author taps on her rigorous study of more than 1 200 subjects migration trajectories to reveal how these migrants work in a series of overseas countries to improve their lives and in some cases seek permanent residence in another country Challenging the portrayal of Asian migrant domestic workers as victims of globalization Multinational Maids reveals migrants agency and strategic thinking under conditions of constraint At the market level the establishment of guestworker programmes for migrant domestic workers in multiple countries has created a global labor market A transnational diaspora shapes migrants evolving destination imaginaries while manpower recruitment and placement agencies create transnational mobility structures In addition differing destination hierarchies and degrees of access to resources lead to the adoption of divergent stepwise trajectories Written in an accessible manner Multinational Maids appeals to migration scholars policymakers activists and students

Global Woman Barbara Ehrenreich, 2004 Two social scientists chart the consequences of the global economy on women across the world revealing the underground economy that has turned many poor women into virtual slaves

HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH: Maid to Order, Security and Migration in Asia Melissa Curley, Siu-lun Wong, 2008-07-30 Security and Migration in Asia explores how various forms of unregulated and illegal forms of human movement within Asia and beyond the region have come to be treated as security issues and whether and how a securitization framework enables a more effective response to them The process and theory of securitization and desecuritization have been developed within the international relations literature by the so call Copenhagen school scholars including Barry Buzan and Ole Waever among others The topics explored in this well presented and engaging book cover geographic areas of China Northeast Asia Central Asia the Russian Far East Southeast Asia and the Hong Kong SAR and includes research on human trafficking and people smuggling financing illegal migration and links to transnational organized crime regulated and unregulated labour migration the securitization of illegal migration in sending transit and receiving countries This book provides compelling insights into contemporary forms of illegal migration under conditions of globalization and makes a contribution to the literature in international relations and migration studies

Passport Entanglements Nicole Constable, 2022-11-15 Passport Entanglements examines the problems with documents issued to Indonesian migrant workers in Hong Kong and explores the larger role that passports and other types of documentation play in gendered migration precarious labor and bureaucracy Focusing on the politics and inequalities embedded in passports anthropologist Nicole Constable considers how these instruments determine legal status and dictate rights Constable finds that new biometric technologies and surveillance do not lead to greater protection security or accuracy but rather reinforce violent structures on already vulnerable women by producing new vulnerabilities and reproducing old ones

Psyche of Asian Society Aradhana Shukla, Anubhuti Dubey, Narendra Singh Thagunna, 2019-01-01 Every culture has its own values and of course they are different in every walk of life with more or less magnitude We can see a lot of variation in two cultures in regard to their way of thought way of behaviour parameters and so many other things Asia is a big continent and it covers forty eight countries in its roof These countries are somehow similar in traditions and behaviour performance and vice versa in some other respects of life But it is quite sure that there is a common thread that links them in one single garland The aim of this volume is to collect the gems from entire Asia and bring them on one platform There are twenty four articles in this volume They reveal various aspects of the particular country where the work is done Chapters are in theoretical and or in empirical mode and we hope that they will provide good insight to the readers to move on their interest and research

All Made Up Rae Nudson, 2021-07-13 A fascinating journey through history and culture examining how makeup affects self empowerment how people have used it to define and defy their roles in society and why we all need to care There is a history and a cultural significance that comes with wearing cat eye inspired liner or a bold red lip one that many women feel to this day even if we don't realize exactly why Increasingly people of all genders are wrestling with what it means to be a woman living in a patriarchy and part of that is how looking like a woman whatever that means affects people's real lives Through the stories of famous women like Cleopatra Empress Wu Madam C J Walker Elizabeth Taylor and Marsha P Johnson Rae Nudson unpacks makeup's cultural impact including how it can be used to shape a personal or cultural narrative how often beauty standards align with whiteness how and when it can be used for safety and its function in the workplace to name a few examples Every woman has had to make a very personal choice about her relationship with makeup and consciously or unconsciously every woman knows that the choice is never entirely hers to make This book also holds space for complicating factors especially the ways that beauty standards differ across race class and culture Engaging and informative All Made Up will expand the discussion around what it means to participate in creating your own self image
