Stratton, 1995-12-01 Out of Eden contributes towards conversations about interpreting scripture Rather than adopting traditional views creation and fall or growth this study integrates literary critical theories and feminist scholarship to read the Genesis narrative in relation to concerns of contemporary communities The question of how we might engage the interpretative process and the rhetorical power of texts as we live our lives out of Eden is addressed Stratton argues that the interpretation of Genesis 2-3 matters that there are consequences for the actions we take on the basis of our interpretations and that we should enter the interpretative process only with care Walking with the Mud Flower Collective Stina Busman Jost, 2014-10-01 Arguing for a retrieval of the landmark work God s Fierce Whimsy Stina Busman Jost establishes the critical importance of this volume for the construction of a dialogic theological method This is accomplished through a close reading of God s Fierce Whimsy in which the author identifies key methodological characteristics informing the volume s formation Critical importance also is established through interviews with the volume s authors the Mud Flower Collective which included Katie G Cannon Beverly W Harrison Carter Heyward Ada Mar a Isasi D az Bess B Johnson Delores Williams Mary D Pellauer and Nancy D Richardson Undergirding this endeavor is a recognition of the theoretical importance of difference to the project of theological construction and the vital form of the dialogic as constitutive of theological practice this is carried forward through engagement with the pivotal theorists Martin Buber and Mikhail Bakhtin who helped pioneer the philosophical and literary critical importance of otherness difference and dialogue Finally the author constructively engages recent developments in feminist theologies and postcolonial theories ultimately making the argument that a dialogic theological method is relevant for the doing of theology today Reconciliation in a Michigan Watershed Gail Gunst Heffner, David P. Warners, 2024-05-01 Like many American urban waterways Ken O Sha has been in decline for nearly two hundred years Once life supporting the waterway now known as Plaster Creek is life threatening In this provocative book scholars and environmentalists Gail Gunst Heffner and David P Warners explore the watershed s ecological social spiritual and economic history to determine what caused the damage and describe more recent efforts to repair it Heffner and Warners provide insight into the concept of reconciliation ecology as enacted through their group Plaster Creek Stewards who together with community partners refuse to accept the status quo of a contaminated creek unfit for children s play severely reduced biological diversity and environmental injustices Their work reveals that reconciliation ecology needs to focus not only on repairing damaged human nature relationships but also on the relationships between people groups including Indigenous North Americans and the descendants of European colonizers Women in the Presence Jody Shapiro Davie,1995-08 A beautifully written ethnography that provides new insight into the functioning of congregations and the meaning of spirituality at the end of the twentieth century Robert Wuthnow Princeton University But She Said Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza,1993-07-01 One of the world s leading feminist theologians demonstrates how reading the Bible can be spiritually and politically empowering for women Catholic Social Learning, Expanded Edition Roger Bergman,2023-12-20 The award winning and widely read first edition of Catholic Social Learning Educating the Faith That Does Justice published in 2011 described the critical edge of the tradition of justice pedagogy in Catholic higher education at the end of the first decade of the twenty first century But living traditions change in response to new challenges and develop their own resources more fully The most obvious and compelling development in recent years has been the publication in 2015 of Pope Francis landmark encyclical Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home the occasion for the new chapter length afterword to this expanded edition of Catholic Social Learning The urgent imperative to defend creation is a major but not the only reason for a new edition Two new chapters on the many forms of shame as a pedagogical issue and on the Book of Job and belief in a just world add spiritual and theological depth to the original assessment of more than a decade ago Those three additions comprise the totally new Part IV The Critical Edge of the Tradition A new preface sets the argument in the context of current controversies over the place of painful emotions in educational settings Woman in a Man's Church ,2018-06-15 Are you satisfied with the position of women in the Church today No Are you willing to do something about it but don t know where to begin This book will inspire you to pick up the torch of Arlene s lifetime mission to see hear know and experience women as equals in the Church and in today s society Arlene s work was pivotal in validating both the movement of Catholic feminism and like Betty Friedan the general role of women in society Through her studies of scripture Arlene emboldened the position of women in church scholarship condemning the prominence of male thought in philosophy theology and psychology Today people refer to certain social injustice as a glass ceiling when the author wrote this book in 1971 the ceiling was more like an unscalable mountain
