On Frank Lloyd Wright's Concrete Adobe Donald Leslie Johnson,2016-12-05 During the years 1919 into 1925 Frank Lloyd Wright worked on four houses and a kindergarten located in metropolitan Los Angeles using concrete blocks as the main building material The construction system has been described by Wright and others as uniquely molded woven like a textile fabric and perceived as ground breaking truly modern unprecedented Many have attempted to uphold these claims while some thought the house designs borrowed from old exotic buildings For the first time this book brings together Wright s declarations the support of upholders and inferences in order to determine their accuracy and correctness or the possibility of feigned or fictional stories It examines technical developments of concrete blocks by Wright and others before his experiences in Los Angeles began in 1919 It also studies the manner of Wright s design process by an examination of relevant pictorial and textual documents A unique in depth and critical analysis of the houses is set within historical biographical and theoretical contexts Consequently the book explains the impact upon Wright of California contemporaries architects Irving Gill and Rudolph Schindler and their instrumentally profound role upon the course of modernism 1907 1923 In doing so it allows a full appreciation of Wright s Gill s and Schindler s buildings beyond their experiential qualities Women of Steel and Stone Anna M.

Lineages of the Global City

Shiben Banerji, 2025-07-08 The forgotten history of the occult foundations of the early twentieth century global city War revolution genocide rebellion slump The economic and political turmoil of the early twentieth century seemed destined to rip asunder the ties that bound colonizers and the colonized to one another The upheaval represented an opportunity and not just to nationalists who imagined new homelands or to socialists who dreamed of international brotherhood For modernists in the orbit of various occultisms the crisis of empire also represented an opportunity to reveal humanity's fundamental unity and common fate Lineages of the Global City recounts a continuous if also contentious transnational exchange among modernists and occultists across the Americas Europe South Asia and Australia between 1905 and 1949 At stake were the feelings and affect of a new global subject who would perceive themselves as belonging to humanity as a unified whole and the urban environment that would foster their subjectivity The interventions in this debate which drew in the period's most renowned modernists took the form of a succession of plans for cities suburbs and communes as well as experiments in building drawing printmaking filmmaking and writing Weaving together postcolonial feminist and Marxist insight on subject formation Shiben Banerji advances a new way of understanding modernist urban space as the design of subjective effects
