Maritime Law:

Admiralty and Maritime Law Thomas J. Schoenbaum, Athanassios N. Yiannopoulos, 1984 Maritime Law Yvonne Baatz, 2014-10-24 Now in its third edition this authoritative guide covers all of the core aspects of maritime law in one distinct volume Maritime Law is written by a team of leading academics and practitioners each expert in their own field Together they provide clear concise and fully up to date coverage of topics ranging from bills of lading to arrest of ships all written in an accessible and engaging style As English law is heavily relied on throughout the maritime world this book is grounded in English law whilst continuing to analyse the key international conventions currently in force Brand new coverage includes Regulation EU No 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters recast The coming into force of the 2006 Maritime Labour Convention and the Merchant Shipping Regulations 2014 The approval of the 2012 edition of the Norwegian Sale Form Regulation 100/2013 heavily amending Regulation 1406/2002 establishing the European Maritime Safety Agency Greater detail on piracy in the Public International Law chapter and discussion of the M V Louisa ARA Libertad and Arctic Sunrise cases in the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea Expanded sections in the marine insurance chapter Analysis of recent cases including Golden Ocean Group Ltd v Salgaocar Mining Industries PVT Ltd Starlight Shipping Co v Allianz Marine Aviation Versicherungs AG and Griffon Shipping Ltd v Firodi Shipping Ltd This book is a comprehensive reference source for students academics and legal practitioners worldwide especially those new to maritime law or a particular field therein Admiralty and Maritime Law Robert Force, 2013 Admiralty and Maritime Law Thomas J. Schoenbaum, 2001 Admiralty and Maritime Law in the United States David W. Robertson, Steven F. Friedell, Michael F. Sturley, 2008 The maritime law of the United States is harmonious in broad outline with the laws of other maritime nations but it has a unique structure tied to the U S Constitution and the Judiciary Act of 1789 entailing a special set of intellectual challenges Admiralty and Maritime Law in the United States is a leading casebook that reveals the areas of international harmony and explores U S law s special features Each of the authors is an admiralty expert but the book strives for a generalist s perspective It aims to tie the admiralty field into the students other studies while providing the fundamental professional tools necessary to the advanced study or practice of U S maritime law Instructors new to admiralty found the first edition of Admiralty and Maritime Law to be an orderly and user friendly introduction to the field Experienced admiralty professors found the book to be well organized and thorough In the second edition the authors have drawn on these reports and their own teaching experiences The book s basic organization and approach have been retained but much of the second edition is brand new Older cases have yielded to leading new ones new textual material has been added and older textual material has been deleted or streamlined Many of the cases that carried over from the first edition have been edited into shorter versions The second edition incorporates the body of admiralty statutes that came into effect in October 2006 and the reformulated plain English Federal Rules of Civil Procedure that took effect in December 2007 It includes the Supreme Court's dramatic new decisions in Stewart v Dutra Construction Co Norfolk Southern Railway v Kirby Norfolk Southern Railway v Sorrell and even in a stop the press one page summary the June 2008 Exxon Valdez punitive damages case When asked to identify the best new feature of the second edition the authors respond There are 70 fewer pages of text In three semester hours one can teach all of it For shorter or more ruminatively paced courses the Teacher's Manual provides suggestions on what to omit A 2012 Teacher's Manual is available as of July 2012 there is also a 2013-14 Supplement

Research Handbook on Maritime Law and Regulation Jason Chuah, 2019 There have been important developments in commercial practice technology shipping infrastructure and sustainability policies in recent times This Research Handbook examines the major themes surrounding the thinking and studies of maritime law and practice The stellar panel of contributors take a diverse range of approaches to identify any emerging theoretical and conceptual perspectives in law on what is essentially a fast paced sector of the global economy

Commercial Maritime Law Melis Özdel, 2020-04-02 The title Commercial Maritime Law is a misnomer There is a patchwork of different commercial maritime laws around the world However the title is a true reflection of what many legal scholars and practitioners in the field have long desired a common framework of commercial maritime law This book unravels the complexities of bridging the gap between common law and civil law and will discuss whether the title will remain a misnomer despite the countless attempts at harmonisation Internationally renowned legal scholars and practitioners discuss herein the areas in which the common law and civil law are divided the impact of these differences on the drafting and ratification of international conventions the search for a common framework and the procedural aspects of the common law and civil law divide embedded within commercial maritime law

Maritime Law Frank L. Maraist, Thomas C. Galligan, Catherine M. Maraist, 2003 Cases and Materials on Maritime Law is unique in its focus on the modern admiralty practice The cases and materials selected focus on current issues that the maritime lawyer faces in addition to the historical bases of those issues Another key feature of the book is that it includes applicable legislation alongside cases rather than in a statutory supplement This technique of statutory inclusion allows the student to see and understand the critical relationship between case law and statutes in admiralty The book could be used for a general admiralty course or for a shorter more focused maritime personal injury course

Maritime Law Gerald A. Malia, 1983 This reference book provides an in depth discussion of U S maritime law Included are cases and statutes and an analysis of issues such as maritime commerce drilling oceanographic research energy production and transportation
