Matthew Arnold Vol 1 Prose Writings:

Matthew Arnold Carl Dawson, John Pfordresher, 2013-10-31 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer's work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare's plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen's novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author's reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer's published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes Bewildered Travel Frederick J. Ruf, 2007 This book illustrates the truth of that statement Writing the Poetry of Place in Britain, 1700-1807 Elizabeth R. Napier, 2022-11-30 This book discusses the intrusion often inadvertent of personal voice into the poetry of landscape in Britain 1700-1807 It argues that strong conventions such as those that inhere in topographical verse of the period invite original poets to overstep those bounds while also shielding them from the repercussions of self-expression Working under cover of convention in this manner and because for many of these poets place is tied in significant ways to personal history poets of place may launch unexpected explorations into memory personhood and the workings of consciousness This book thus supplements past largely political readings of landscape poetry turning to questions of self-articulation and self-expression in order to argue that the autobiographical impulse is a distinctive and innovative feature of much great eighteenth-century poetry of place Among the poets under examination are Pope Thomson Duck Gray Goldsmith Crabbe Cowper Smith and Wordsworth The Nation, 1888 Aristophanes in Performance, 421 BC-AD 2007 Edith Hall, Amanda Wrigley, 2007 This book traces the international performance history of Aristophanic comedy and its implication in aesthetic and political controversies from 421 BC to AD 2007 It includes Brechtian experiments in East Berlin and musical theatre from Gilbert and Sullivan to Stephen Sondheim Romanticism and Popular Culture in Britain and Ireland Philip Connell, Nigel Leask, 2009-04-09 An edited collection examining the construction of popular culture in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Configurations of Comparative Poetics Zong-qi Cai, 2001-12-30 This comprehensive comparative study of Western and Chinese poetics begins with broad examinations of the two traditions over more than two and a half millennia From these parallel surveys a series of important theoretical questions arises How do Western and Chinese critics conceptualize the nature origin and function of literature What are the fundamental differences if any in their ways of thinking about literature Can we account for these differences by examining Western truth-based and Chinese process-based cosmological paradigms What are the major distinctive concepts of literature developed within Western and

Chinese poetics How have these concepts impacted the development of the two traditions at various times After considering a wide range of major critical texts Configurations of Comparative Poetics presents bold and cogent answers to these questions while shedding light on the distinctive orientations of Western and Chinese poetics The second half of the book features four comparative case studies Plato and Confucius on poetry Wordsworth and Liu Xie on the creative process the twentieth century Imagists and their earlier Chinese counterparts on the relationship of the Chinese written character to poetics and Derrida and the Madhyamika Buddhists on language and onto theology The author not only identifies an array of critical concerns shared by Western and Chinese critics but also differentiates the conceptual models used by each and traces them to cosmological paradigms Modernism and Colonialism Richard Begam, Michael Moses, 2007-10-15 The essays in Modernism and Colonialism offer revisionary accounts of major British and Irish literary modernists relation to colonialism The English Poets Thomas Humphry Ward, 1894 The Powers of Distance Amanda Anderson, 2018-06-05 Combining analysis of Victorian literature and culture with forceful theoretical argument The Powers of Distance examines the progressive potential of those forms of cultivated detachment associated with Enlightenment and modern thought Amanda Anderson explores a range of practices in nineteenth century British culture including methods of objectivity in social science practices of omniscience in artistic realism and the complex forms of affiliation in Victorian cosmopolitanism Anderson demonstrates that many writers including George Eliot John Stuart Mill Charlotte Bront Matthew Arnold and Oscar Wilde thoughtfully address the challenging moral questions that attend stances of detachment In so doing she offers a revisionist account of Victorian culture and a tempered defense of detachment as an ongoing practice and aspiration The Powers of Distance illuminates its historical object of study and provides a powerful example for its theoretical argument showing that an ideal of critical detachment underlies the ironic modes of modernism and postmodernism as well as the tradition of Enlightenment thought and critical theory Its broad understanding of detachment and cultivated distance together with its focused historical analysis will appeal to theorists and critics across the humanities particularly those working in literary and cultural studies feminism and postcolonialism Original in scope and thesis this book constitutes a major contribution to literary history and contemporary theory
