Moving Art:

Moving Modernism Nell Andrew, 2020-03-11 The emergence of modern dance and the early history of cinema ran concurrent with the European avant garde's development of pictorial abstraction in the first decades of the 20th century. However many assume that modernist abstraction resulted from a century of natural autonomous evolution to painting styles and tastes. In Moving Modernism author Nell Andrew challenges this assumption. By examining dance and film created during this period she argues that performative modes of art created the link between bodily movement and movement depicted in modernist paintings. In a seeming paradox dance and film durational arts involving real bodies in space participated in the development of abstract art. With archival material collected in North America and Europe Moving Modernism resurfaces lost performances, identifies working methods and establishes the circles of aesthetic influence and reception for avant garde dance pioneers and experimental film makers from the turn of the century to the interwar period. Reexamining the motivation that fueled the emergence of abstraction Andrew claims that painters sought meaning not only in the material and formal picture but also in temporal and sensorial experience. Andrew looks at major figures and intellectual movements including Loie Fuller and Symbolism, Valentine de Saint Point and the Cubo Futurist and neo Symbolist movements and early cinematic abstraction from Edison and the Lumière to Hans Richter and Marcel Duchamp. Close examinations of each figure show that theatrical display embodied self projection and kinesthetic desire are not necessarily in opposition to pictorial abstraction; in fact they expand our understanding of the urges that created modern art.

Getting Off Lee Breuer, 2019-07-16 Since he first arrived on the New York art theatre performance scene in 1970 Lee Breuer has been at the forefront of the American theatrical avant garde creating challenging works both independently and with Mabou Mines, the company he co founded with JoAnne Akalaitis, Philip Glass, Ruth Maleczech and David Warrilow. By blending disciplines and techniques from widely different cultures he has created a unique performance genre fusing sound and musical components, visual arts and arresting movement, dance, puppetry into a groundbreaking form. Breuer's work as a director includes radical adaptations of major works such as his celebrated stagings of The Lost Ones by Samuel Beckett, The Gospel at Colonus inspired by Sophocles, a gender reversed King Lear and a revolutionary reinterpretation of Ibsen with Mabou Mines. DollHouse Breuer has also been a prolific writer who redefines the concept of character and the use of biography in such works as The Shaggy Dog Animation, A Prelude to Death in Venice, Hajj Ecco Porco and La Divina Caricatura in a distinctive American voice. In this volume theatre historian and journalist Stephen Nunns has assembled a unique look into one of contemporary theatre's most singular creative minds. Using interviews and excerpts from Breuer's writings with added historical commentary the thrilling result is equal parts autobiography, artistic manifesto and critical exploration. Extensively illustrated with photographs of his work from around the world this is a one of a kind portrait of the artist and theatrical activist at work.
